Pompidou Served Under Ex-President

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Georges Pompidou, who served Charles de Gaulle for six years as premier, today announced his candidacy for the presidency, his former chief abandoned Monday.

Pompidou, 57, said he was offering his country "the will to maintain a continuity and a necessary stability, and the hope of preparing the future."

Pompidou's announcement had been expected and he already is a favorite. He announced in January that he planned to run in the next presidential election, but it was assumed then it would not be held until De Gaulle's term expired in 1972.

"Pompidou for President' clubs are springing up around the country, and the former premier has won the endorsement of Social Affairs Minister Maurice Schumann, the UJP, a young Gaullist group, and an organization of left-wing Gaullists.

Alain Poher, whose presidency of the senate made him interim president of the nation, said in a brief radio-television speech he hoped the elections would take place with "scrupulous respect for the law."

Meeting parliamentary correspondents before the address, he said he was sorry Gen. De Gaulle had resigned, but, "gentlemen, France must go on."

Poher, who campaigned for the defeat of the reform bill on which De Gaulle staked his office, is being mentioned as a possible Centrist candidate to oppose Pompidou. However, the provisional president declined to discuss his plans.

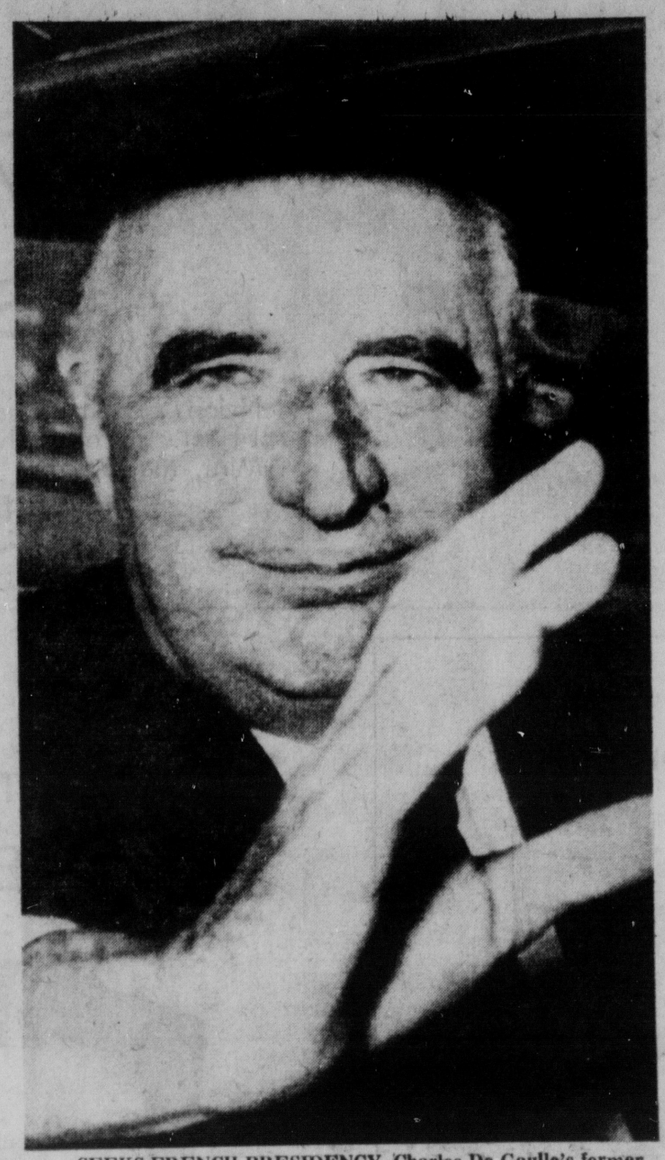

The election must be held between May 18 and June 2, within 20 to 35 days after De Gaulle's resignation. Most speculation settled on June 1 as the date for the first round. Poher said a date probably would be set next week.

If no candidate receives a majority on the first vote, a runoff is held between the two first-round leaders.

Major parties and factions represented in the National Assembly were meeting to prepare for the election. The Socialist partys leadership was to meet this afternoon, and the Communists met to decide what to do about Socialist disinterest in forming a leftist coalition.

Veteran Socialist leader Guy Mollet indicated he was more interested in a union with Centrist forces and said he would support Poher if the interim

Pen Guards Strike; Troops Take Posts

Pay Dispute Stirs Move In Walkout

State Penitentiary, Reformatory At Mansfield Affected

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Guards struck at two state penal institutions today and were replaced where necessary by Ohio National Guardsmen.

Only 54 of 175 to 200 guards and supervisors reported at the state penitentiary in Columbus. A unit of 100 guardsmen augmented the guard force there.

About 80 guards reported at Mansfield Reformatory where 130 would normally be on duty. A unit of guardsmen from Akron was sent to Mansfield to stand by in case it was needed.

Adjt. Gen. S. T. DelCorso said no national guardsmen were sent into the Mansfield reformatory immediately.

Maury Koblentz, chief of the Ohio Division of Correction, said guard situations were normal at penal institutions at Lebanon, London, Marysville, Marion and Chillicothe.

Spokesmen for the striking guards at Ohio Penitentiary said they are seeking a $1,500 annual across-the-board pay raise. Koblentz said present wages start at $4,900 annually at all institutions except at the penitentiary where the starting salary is $5,240 annually.

He noted a bill pending in the legislature would increase the starting salaries at all institutions to $5,630, with a possible hazard pay benefit for guards at the penitentiary.

Guard spokesmen said the pay raise now under consideration in the legislature would only provide $150 more a year and "is inadequate." Guards also are asking for full hospitalization.

Koblentz indicated there would be no effort to implement Ohio's Ferguson Act which bars strikes be public employes.

"We expect to explore all legal activities," he said. "We will not make any threats but we do have to run the institutions."

Lt. Col. James Abraham commanded 110 armed guardsmen who marched through the penitentiary truck entrance at 6 a.m. He said 330 members of the 1st Battalion, 166th Infantry, were called up to rotate on eight hour shifts at the prison.

Lowell G. Ridenour, deputy warden at the penitentiary near downtown Columbus, said about half of the overnight force of 80 men volunteered to remain on duty.

"We accepted their offer," he added.

Ridenour said he had not de-

Aims At Conglomerates

U.S. Challenges ITT's Merger Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration trust-busters have made their second move in two weeks to short circuit the trend toward conglomerate mergers by filing suit against the giant International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

ITT was challenged Monday in Chicago's U.S. District Court on acquisition three days earlier of Canteen Corp., a national food and vending company with 1967 revenue of $322 million.

The Justice Department complaint charged the acquisition might trigger other mergers, a tendency government antitrust chief Richard W. McLaren says he means to stop.

ITT, the country's 12th largest business, thus joined Ling-Temco-Vaught Inc., the 14th largest, as a defendant in separate government lawsuits to slow the rate of economic concentration.

Justice filed suit two weeks ago to stop LTV's purchase of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

In addition to futher entering economic power in a company whose 1967 sales were $3.6 billion, the government suit charged, the ITT-Canteen merger would strengthen ITT's power to favor its customers with purchases, a practice called reciprocity.

In New York, a spokesman for ITT denied that allegation: "Under each of the companies' own policies of long standing, neither company has in fact engaged in reciprocity. We are confident, therefore, that the courts will rule that this suit is baseless in fact and law."

More than a year ago, on Jan. 1, 1968, ITT canceled plans to merge with American Broadcasting Co. because of long delays caused by Justice Department claims that ITT international interests might influence ABC news operations.

The new suit said ITT has 109,000 employes in its plants

Gov. Rhodes Firm Against Life Charges

Welcomes Probe After Democrats' Investigation Call

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes is standing pat on his formal statement denying allegations by Life magazine that has manipulated public funds while in public office.

He has made it clear that he won't discuss the matter further.

And, as he said in his statement, he defies anyone to prove him guilty of any wrongdoing.

Asked Monday night to comment about a Democratic call for a federal investigation of the charges, Rhodes said:

O'Grady asked Nixon to direct the Justice Department, under the "personal direction of Atty. Gen. John Mitchell, to make a full and comprehensive investigation of the charges raised against Gov. Rhodes."

Saying it is not a partisan issue, O'Grady told Nixon the people of Ohio "have the right to the full and complete information surrounding these charges against their governor."

Meanwhile, another Democrat came to Rhodes' defense,

Drop 1,000 Tons Of Explosives

New B52 Bombing Attacks Aim At Reds Near Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has launched another B52 bombing campaign to harass North Vietnamese troops in the jungles north of Saigon, Military spokesmen reported today.

In a 24-hour period Monday and today, 36 Stratofortresses dropped more than 1,000 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese bases in the enemy's War Zones C and D. The strikes ranged from 71 miles northwest of Saigon to 55 miles northeast of the capital. Some were within 1½ miles of the Cambodian border.

Spokesmen said the bombing concentration in War Zone C is the heaviest of the war, with nearly 200 bombing raids flown along the Cambodian border in the past week.

The bulk of four North Vietnamese divisions is said to be concentrated in these two zones.

For the past four years, U.S. troops have battled enemy soldiers in the 2,000 uninhabited square miles of War Zone C, but all the fighting apparently has resolved nothing.

Two North Vietnamese divisions operating there have always been able to replace their losses from bases across the Cambodian border, using Zone C as a staging area for attacks into populated areas and allied bases to the southeast.

Sources said some captured documents mention another enemy offensive in the summer-autumn months, but intelligence officers have been unable to determine any firm trend. The aim of the stepped up B52 raids is to prevent the North Vietnamese troops from getting organized.

The Communists command's spring offensive, now in its 10th week, has tapered off sharply to about a dozen rocket and mortar attacks each night and only scattered ground assaults. Many of these occur in the 3rd Military Corps area, the most critical in South Vietnam because it includes the seat of government, Saigon.

Chief aim of these attacks is to inflict American casualties and undermine the influence of the Saigon government.

U.S. analysts feel the enemy is trying to make his presence felt in the 3rd Corps without any large commitment at present. The Communist command has placed one regiment from each of its four divisions in forward combat areas while holding the two other regiments from each division to the rear.

Tired Youths Steal Plane

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two youths apparently were tired of walking so they took a plan ride.

The 15-year-old boys drove a stolen car 25 miles to the Washington County Airport and flew off in a single-engine Piper Cherokee. They headed the aircraft towards Pittsburgh and buzzed several homes before returning to the airport.

Police arrested the pair in Pittsburgh Monday and charged them with stealing the plane. Police said the boys also took a car at the airport to return home.

Achievement Of 2 Objectives

Ship Pullout Off Korea Resulted In Goals Gained

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officers say quick achievement of two major objectives enabled President Nixon to order withdrawal of more than two-thirds of the 29-ship armada deployed off Korea only last week to protect U.S. reconnaissance flights.

One objective, military experts said, was resumption of Navy EC121 intelligence flights in the area without tempting North Korea with another easy, undefended target like the plane shot down April 15.

The other objective was to demonstrate to North Korean leaders that even though the United States is fighting a war in Vietnam it still can muster considerable military power elsewhere to defend American interests.

Whether military precautions or power politics was the bigger factor in Nixon's decision to rush a big fleet to Korea is a matter of speculation.

But the Pentagon's announcement Monday that 21 of the original 29 vessels in Task Force 71 had left the Korean area suggested the "show of force" aspect was uppermost in the President's mind.

"He made his point," one Navy admiral said. "Now we're gradually scaling down while still protecting our reconnaissance flights."

Bolt Causes Interruption In Phone Net

Long - distance telephone and teletype circuits linking the East Liverpool area to the north and west were disrupted late Monday afternoon when lightning struck an underground cable five miles west of Wellsville.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said most lines were repaired by 12:15 a.m. today, and all were back in service by 6:30 a. m.

The bolt hit the toll cable which lies three to four feet below ground level, Robert Sauer, commercial manager for the utility, said.

More than four feet of the cable were virtually welded together and the insulation burned off by the bolt. A farmer provided a tractor for repair crews to get across plowed fields to the site.

The interruption affected circuits to Canton, Youngstown, Salem and other communities. The Review's teletype link with Waterford Park race track and other points was out of order.

Sauer said telephone calls were placed on an emergency basis for some time, being routed through Youngstown.

Phillis Gets 2-Year Contract

Native Of Salem Selected To Head County's Schools

LISBON — A native of Salem who began his career in education 11 years ago in southern Ohio will come home this summer as superintendent of the Columbiana County school system.

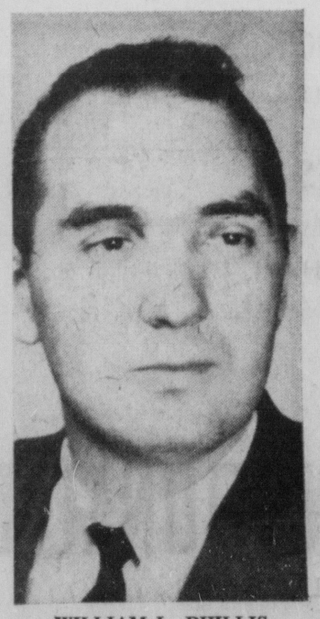

The county board of education Monday night gave a two-year contract to William L. Phillis, 31, of Minford RD 2 at $15,000 a year plus a car allowance of $600 annually. He will assume his new duties Aug. 1.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Phillis of Depot Rd., Salem RD 3, Phillis is superintendent of Minford Local Schools in Scioto County near Portsmouth.

He was graduated from Salem High School in 1954 and received his bachelor and master degrees in agricultural education from Ohio State University in 1958 and 1961, respectively. He is studying for his doctorate.

Latest Round In Fight Lost By Smoleski

The West Virginia Supreme Court at Charleston on Monday:

Refused to consider a petition in which Democrat Smoleski asked that the office be declared vacant and that Republican Ralph J. Patrick Jr. be ordered to give up the post.

Refused a hearing for 16 who sought reinstatement in the deputy sheriff jobs they held until a recount changed the November election outcome and installed Patrick as sheriff instead of Smoleski.

Both Smoleski and Patrick are from Weirton.

Criminal Trials Slated To Begin Monday For 18

LISBON — Criminal trials will begin Monday in Common Pleas court for Grand Jury defendants who pleaded not guilty at arraignment Monday before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

In addition to the 10 previously named defendants who pleaded not guilty in 11 cases before the morning recess yesterday, eight others entered similar pleas before and after lunch. They were:

John Wasson, 30, Akron, two Jan. 25 burglaries at Jarrett's Feed Supply Co. and Art Hole's Auto Co., both in East Rochester.

Fred T. Kidder and Gary Crowl, both of Lisbon, stealing two wheels and tires from a new car at the Lehman Ford Sales Lot.

Rachel J. Welker, Unity Rd., East Palestine RD 1, larceny by trick.

Robert E. Ammon, 25, East Palestine, burglary March 20 at Jim's Grill in East Palestine.

Eight defendants pleaded guilty as charged after the recess and asked the court for probation. Judge Buzzard ordered pre - sentence investigations and reports for:

Virgil Paul Hutchison, 44 McCormick Rd., Salineville RD 1, and David A. Cheuvront, 23, of 727 Avondale St., East Liverpool, both charged with burglary Feb. 28 at Denzil Conger property on McCormick Run Rd. in Madison Township.

The arraignment of two defendants was continued. Two others are currently serving sentences in state institutions. Three others named in secret indictments have not been located.

Bill To Cut Size Of Pa. Senate, House Offered

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to cut the size of the state Senate by 20 per cent and the House of Representatives by 40 per cent was introduced in the Senate Monday.

Sen. Jack McGregor, R-Allegheny, authored the measure which included President Pro Tempore Robert D. Felming, R-Allegheny, among its three Republican co-sponsors.

The proposal requires a state constitutional amendment, and must be approved by two sessions of the General Assembly and the voters before it could become effective.

The state Constitutional Convention had an opportunity to reduce the size of the legislature in 1968 but failed to do so.

Boy Bitten By Spider Still 'Very Critical'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Todd Quester, 5, remained in "very critical" condition this morning at Babies and Childrens Hospital, where he is being treated for a spider bite. Todd, of Amherst, was believed to have been bitten by a brown recluse spider while playing April 18.

His condition worsened over the weekend despite administration of a serum flown to Cleveland from Brazil last Thursday. He stopped breathing Saturday night and was put in a respirator. His parents and doctors keep a 24 - hour vigil at his bedside.

Lisbon Sets Pay Boost For Street Head, Crew

LISBON — Council Monday night granted pay raises to the street commissioner and street crew, effective Thursday.

Commissioner Thirl Flugan will receive $475, a $25-per a month increase, while crewmen will be paid $2.25 per hour, up 25 cents per hour.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike announced that the Rotary Club will clean the community swimming pool bathhouse this evening.

The Kiwanis Club will paint the buildings at the pool, he said, and the Key Club of David Anderson High School will paint the pool itself.

Council voted to authorize repairs and expenses to get the pool in condition for the summer season.

The North Beaver street Church of Christ was given permission to break the curbing for two new entrances to its parking lot. Donald I. Hill appeared on behalf of the congregation. He said the portions of the existing entrances no longer needed will be curbed and filled in when the new drives are made.

Hill said the changes are necessary because of a proposed addition to the church.

Under suspension of rules, Council passed on three readings an ordinance prohibiting peeling of tires and "cracking exhaust noises." The new law will become effective in 30 days and carries a penalty of a fine of $25 to $200 and up to three days in jail.

First reading was given an ordinance authorized two weeks ago to prohibit the extension of water and sewer lines beyond the village limits.

Council rejected a park commission suggestion that 25-cent-per-hour meter be installed at the tennis courts to help pay for their maintenance.

Councilman Willis Coleman said the courts are in poor condition and should be resurfaced. An attempt will be made to obtain financial help from service clubs and individuals.

Sampson Quits As Budget Chief

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislative leaders were mixed today in their reaction to the resignation of Budget Seretary Arthur F. Sampson in the midst of Gov. Shafer's battle for his record $2.52 billion budget.

Sampson, the chief architect of the record spending proopsal and its accompanying state personal income tax has resigned effective June 1 to take a federal post, Shafer announced Monday.

By that time, the governor said, the "battle of the budget" should be about over.

House Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, disagreed, however, and added, "It was inconsiderate of Mr. Sampson to have pulled up stakes and departed at this time."

Fineman said the budget "ballgame is just getting started" and indicated the loss of Shafer's "closest fiscal advisor" is bound to hurt."

Sampson will serve under General Services Administration director Robert Kunzig as purchasing executive at $36,000 a year. He earned $25,000 a year here, serving in the dual cabinet positions of budget secretary and secretary of administration.

New Phase Of Campus Revolt

The full impact of the introduction of arms into the ongoing campus is yet to be determined. yet to be determined.

What happened at Cornell University will find application at other troubled institutions across the land in one way or another.

A band of Negro students occupied a building and took with them a good-sized arsenal. Their demands for amnesty were met to end the armed occupation of the campus building.

THE INCIDENT brought varied reactions.

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, a Negro psychologist and member of the New York Board of Regents, said the outrageous action stimulates the same feelings of revulsion and sadness experienced when the Birmingham police used cattle prods on civil rights demonstrators a few years ago.

The psychologist said: "These spectacles must be viewed as serious symptoms of deep disturbances which threaten the foundation of our society."

Examining the current wave of campus disturbances, he was sharply critical of protesters —white and black—whose tactics interfered with the freedom and rights of others.

Dr. Clark warned against regarding campus confrontation promoters as "mere random revolutionaries seeking any cause or seeking disruption for its own sake."

HE DECLARED that violent tactics are wrong but cautioned that cause of unrest "must be remedied by rational processes if our democratic society is to survive."

Author Clinton Rossiter, who also is a Cornell professor, said a university "is a place of controlled controversy and rational discourse . . . there is nothing rational about a gun."

A measure to outlaw firearms on college campuses drew widespread support among New York legislators.

Sen. Edward J. Speno, a Republican and a Cornell alumnus, said: "The threat of armed coercion has no place in American education. Let us not condemn our youth, but let our youth know we condemn what they have done."

"I can understand how people from the ghettos, the Afros, are lost up here. Even I had trouble adjusting when I first got to Cornell. The academic environment, the white society—I'm sure a lot of them never came into contact with this before they got here. It's all right to demonstrate, but not to seize buildings or carry guns."

A MINORITY of militant Cornell faculty members vowed to assist the students in seizing another building if the demands to nullify disciplinary action against five Negro students were not met.

Professor Rossiter, who had previously resisted student coercion, said he had been "forced by conscience and by the rational persuasion of students and faculty" to change his mind.

A minority of senior professors dissented and called the faculty action "abject capitulation" and "surrender to intimidation."

The Cornell faculty bought some time but what else did it buy? How long will it be before another disgruntled group of students—white or black—fall back on the tactic of threatening the use of arms?

SEEING HOW WELL armed occupation worked at Cornell, how long will it take for radical activists to adopt the method on other campuses?

It is our fervent hope that college and university leaders throughout the country will be able to head off armed conflict but the Cornell precedents of capitulation and impunity will make the job difficult.

It will be a miracle if all our citadels of intellectualism avert the spilling of blood.

OEO Has A New Chief

Donald Rumsfeld, the Illinois congressman who criticized the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) and voted against funds for its operation, today is singing a different tune about government antipoverty programs.

The difference being, of course, that he has just been named by President Nixon as director of the program.

MR. RUMSFELD, a campaigner for Mr. Nixon, now sees the OEO as "a very special mechanism . . . an incubator for ideas" which is charged with producing "precise and responsive solutions to problems" of the poor.

Mr. Rumsfeld's statement, released after announcement of his appointment as successor to Sargent Shriver, who resigned a year ago, reflected that his thinking is in line with the administration.

He said: "We have learned in some instances that our efforts have been less successful than we had hoped. We have seen that programs must be improved—for the sake of those they serve."

Mr. Nixon recently pulled the Job Corps and Head Start project from the jurisdiction of the OEO which he sees as "an initiating agency" which devises new programs to help the poor and serving as an "incubator for these programs during their initial experimental phase."

Mr. Nixon praised Mr. Rumsfeld for giving up his "safe" congressional seat to assume an "immensely important" but "controversial" assignment.

The new director expressed the thought that the new job carries a formidable challenge and he expects it to be "exciting" and possibly "discouraging."

The 36-year-old Princeton graduate summed up his projection of what the job means in these words:

"We must make progress in the painstaking process of aiding individuals to fulfill their potential, the heartening and sometimes heartbreaking task of gaining new knowledge. The commitment is to find out what works and what does not; and more, it is to put that knowledge to work, to implement it."

Which side of the fence you are on surely does make a difference in the way you look at a problem doesn't it?

IT IS SOMETHING akin to listening to a discussion of poverty by a poor man and a wealthy man—it often sounds as if they are talking about different topics.

Mr. Rumsfeld's position is unique—for not many people get a chance to bring their ideas to bear directly in an area where they have been extremely critical.

He is to be wished well in his endeavor for the solving of poverty programs is vital to the nation.

The Camera Protest

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There is some question as to what role the communications media are playing in student unrest. Most of us like to think we're just reporting the events on college campuses, but there is a gnawing suspicion that our role may be one of participant rather than observer. Have you ever wondered what might happen if the press and TV didn't show up at a student demonstration?

Art Buchwald

"Who was supposed to alert the TV stations?"

"I DID ALERT THEM. I said we were going to lock ourselves in at noon. They said they were covering the flower show at the Coliseum and they didn't have any cameras available."

"That's a hell of a note. It's just like the bourgeois, racist, capitalistic TV media to ignore the revolution. What do we do now?"

"Let's take the building anyway."

"What good will it do? There are no press photographers or newspapermen here either."

"Where are they?"

"I called up the papers and told them what we were going to do and they said they were too busy to cover another student takeover of a building. They said it wasn't news any more."

"Did you tell them we were going to tar and feather the dean of the law school?"

"Yeah, and they said to send them a press release on it."

"WHERE'S THE REPORTER from the school newspaper?"

"The school newspaper said they didn't have any student to spare for our demonstration, but they'd get a fill-in later from one of us."

"Boy, this isn't much fun. Hey, here comes a guy with a camera. Up against the wall! Up against the wall!. The university is a fascist cesspool."

"I get your pardon?"

Who are you shooting the film for, man?"

"My cinema class. Would you mind doing that again?"

"Get our of here."

"Somebody's got to come. What about the radio stations?"

"No dice. They said we could call in on their telephone talk show if we wanted to, but they're not sending anyone over."

"There's got to be some law that the press has to cover a student riot."

"If I had known nobody was going to be here, I wouldn't have missed my lunch hour."

"I want to read my speech telling why we are taking over the law building."

"Who cares? You wrote it for the press. As long as they're not showing up, spare us."

"I say we should takeover the law building anyway."

"What good will it do? Nobody will know we did it."

"It could keep us in practice."

"Why are you combing your hair?"

"Well, if nobody's going to take my picture, I might as well go to English class."

"WAIT. DON'T GO. Let's make new demands to the administration."

"Such as?"

"It's the administration's responsibility to see that our student demonstrations are covered by the press and TV media, and if they don't provide adequate coverage the university has three hours to live."

"Let's hurry. I promised my parents I'd be on the Cronkite show tonight."

Let's Hope It's Loaded

VICTOR RIESEL

New Anti-Mafia Strategy

WASHINGTON — On the desk alongside my typewriter are photostats of stock certificates issued to the late Cosa Nostra czar, Vito Genovese, by prominent and influential waterfront company. Don Vito did not have to infiltrate that business. He walked right in the front door.

Victor Riesel

And when he went to a well-earned prison cell, he merely transferred the stock to his brother Mike. But the influence of the boss of bosses hardly was gossamer. He got those company shares on May 13, 1955 — and he was persona extremely grata in company circles until death parted them.

The ever-embattled New York Waterfront Commission did the best it could. Recently in a quixotic mood, commission counselors even presented this evidence of Mafia influence in the vast New York harbor to the New York and New Jersey legislatures. The "lawmakers" couldn't care less.

As for the U.S. attorneys in the area, there just has not been enough manpower to pursue common criminals and defrauders as well as tackle the seven or eight major and minor Cosa Nostra families in the region — and dig into all business operations of dons, cappo regimes and button men (troops).

NEITHER HAS THERE been continuity Fighting the Mafia has been cyclical. The federals would move in, the cameras would zero in, the newsmen would pack in. There'd be an indictment or two, moral and juridicial and everybody would go away.

But now something new has been added — it seems. President Nixon's decision to set up 20 permanent federal anticrime field offices will supply that continuity, end the cycles, establish the struggle against organized crime and racketeering as a permanent institution.

If successful, these first 20 federal metropolitan antiracketeering centers will wipe out the Mafia as we have known it since the days it ran whiskey and murdered its way into the labor movement.

Once the field offices are operative, La Cosa Nostra (LCN, according to the FBI's code book; chiefs no longer will be able to winter it at cool watering places while the heat is on.

Despite undulating waves of investigations at five-year intervals since Tom Dewey went after Murder, Inc. and its blood brothers in the '30s, the crime syndicates are more powerful, wealthier and vastly more politically influential than ever before.

THIS ISN'T CYNICISM. This is fact. Just watch some congressmen line up on the appropriations and legislation requested by the President. They'll give him a hard time, though he has said — with low-voiced understatement:

"Not a single one of the 24 Cosa Nostra families has been destroyed. They are more firmly entrenched and more secure than ever before."

Mr. Nixon, on the advice of John Mitchell's Justice Department, plans to expand the antiracketeering strike force technique now used in eight cities. These will be turned into permanent units. Then, in coming months, four more headquarters will be opened — Kansas City, and New Orleans are expected to be the first. The other 12 headquarters will spread eastward from the West Coast, according to one Justice Dept. source. Eventually there will be units in such widely separated cities as Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Tampa.

They'll be well staffed compared with the current strike forces, made up of five attorneys and seven or eight investigators. At first they'll concentrate on the metropolitan center in which they set up shop. Some will move swiftly — as is the Newark strike force, now about to ask a grand jury for several indictments. Some will take a year, for without continuity, without any files, without many contacts, they will have to start clean.

THEN, IN A few years, as they form a grid across country, they'll be turned into regional offices. They'll fan out of the big cities and across each state. They'll funnel the information back to the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section, which may soon be upgraded to a full Justice Dept. division. Facts will be computerized. With an additional 415 FBI agents in the field, bringing the total to 6,800 (out of an FBI staff of 17,000), the computer's memory box hardly will be vacuous.

Furthermore, there will be no wasteful competition between U.S. attorneys or between the "locals" and the federals. There will be no battling for witnesses or cases. There will be memoranda of agreement on cooperation, jurisdiction, manpower and money. And about time, too.

There will be the pooling, for example, of wiretap information. In the past this has linked the mob with at least two members of the Congress — and it should be remembered that the authorities tap racketeers, not congressmen. It was the tap on the underworld which turned up the voices of those two members.

It will be more difficult for the underworld to communicate with their political protectors. It will be tougher to hold crime summit sessions, even out on a yacht, as the mob has done recently.

The 20 field offices will mean constant pressure, building of files, familiarity with the Cosa-Nostra operations on a street by street basis, business by business, local by local basis.

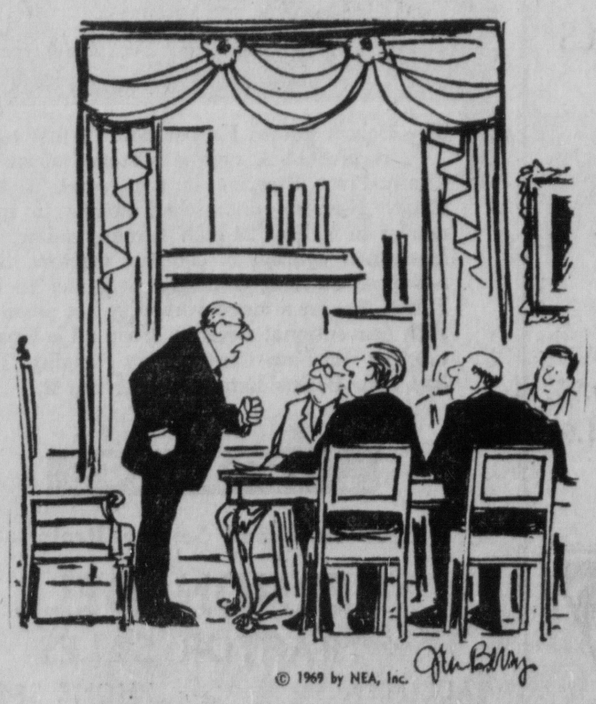

That is, if Congress comes up with the money — $61 million. It may not.

Odd Facts

The number of husbands who desert their homes, according to one recent estimate, is just about 14 times the number of wives who walk out on their families.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Government's Structure Hit

WASHINGTON — The big story in the national capital is not how President Nixon has fared in his first 100 days in office. It is rather, the tragic failure of that part of the American system of government which permits a majority from one political party to control both houses of Congress while a chief executive is elected from another party.

This means standstill government as the opposition party members not only snipe at the administration on legislative proposals for domestic affairs but actually interfere with the conduct of foreign affairs by emphasizing to the world a mood of dissension if not irresponsibility. A pertinent question is: "What has Congress done in the last 100 days?"

THE AMERICAN SYSTEM is weak because the people do not have to vote for a party but may select members of Congress from one party and the president from the opposition party.

With all the suggestions for constitutional amendments being made in Congress nowadays — mostly about direct or popular election of presidents — not a single proposal has been offered which would give the American people a responsible system of government. This could be readily attained if the president and his cabinet were always an integral part of a majority organization in the Senate and House of Representatives. An analogous combination of leaders and prospective cabinet officers could be formed by the minority party.

The United States today is confronted with obstacles within Congress itself which impair the operation of a successful foreign policy. Thus, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a Democrat, acts and speaks on international questions as if he thought he had the powers of a president or a secretary of state. Again and again in the past a Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has done the same thing. A Republican senator in that post in 1919 blocked American entrance into the League of Nations which had been advocated by a Democratic president at the Paris peace conference after the close of World War I.

The amount of damage done to both national and international programs by the members of the opposition party in Congress in the last 100 days is considerable, especially in failing to support the government during maritime.

Long delays in enacting major policies of a domestic nature may be expected. In the end, the administration will find it necessary to modify its proposals considerably in order to win the necessary majority in both houses.

Whether it's a tax-reform bill, or a system for distributing public funds by an effective method of sharing with the states, or the enactment of a stern policy to deal with the riots and disturbances — plainly being instigated by groups in our midst with some foreign influence behind them, and hence subject to federal surveillance and prosecution — there is little progress being made on the legislative side.

Although the Democratic party has a majority in both houses of Congress, it has not presented in the last 100 days a program of its own in either house. Yet the Democrats control the chairmanships of all committees in the Senate and the House.

WHAT IS PRIMARILY lacking is a system of party discipline. President Johnson had a majority of his party in both houses for the last six years, but he, too, was faced with revolts. While a coalition of certain Republicans with Democrats produced for him a majority vote on some important pieces of legislation, this merely accentuated the lack of a system of party responsibility.

The American people in the 1970 election will vote to fill all the seats in the House of Representatives but only one third of the Senate. This is a lop-sided arrangement which makes it possible for the Senate to become Republican next time while the house stays Democratic. The people would be better served if elections were held every four years in which the entire membership of both houses had to go before the people along with the presidential nominees. This would at least be a start toward responsible government.

Science Post Turned Down

Nixon Reverses Position But Long Rejects Offer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, in a major reversal of position, has offered an important administration appointment to a man originally vetoed by the White House for opposing the Safeguard missile defense system.

But the man involved, scientist Franklin A. Long, says no thanks.

Following criticism from congressmen and scientists for letting politics override qualifications in selecting the new director of the National Science Foundation, Nixon Monday said the job would be picked on merit only.

The President also revealed to the members of the National Science Board and the National Academy of Sciences that after first approving Long's rejection he had asked the Cornell University vice president to take the job.

But presidential science adviser Lee A. DuBridge, who originally recommended Long for the job, said Monday Long was no longer interested because he found "the political situation distasteful to him and he preferred not to have it reopened."

After DuBridge recommended Long several weeks ago, White House staff members protested that he had publicly opposed Nixon's missile defense proposals and should not get an administration appointment.

Nixon backed up his staff at his April 18 news conference, confirming that Long's opposition to the proposed Safeguard project "would be misunderstood."

Asked why the President changed his mind, DuBridge said Nixon had "looked at it more carefully."

In his meeting with the scientists, Nixon asked for suggestions for the NSF spot and promised that he would pick the new director from one of the names submitted, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Nixon also said he would support the independence of the foundation and assured them of his interest in science and in international scientific cooperation, Ziegler added.

DuBridge was asked how the fresh Nixon stance would affect the scientific community. "I'm sure it will be tremendously pleased and encouraged," he answered.

Ziegler refused to discuss the politican implications of Nixon's position change, which could be considerable.

Two important Republican congressional figures—Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. James G. Fulton of Pennsylvania—had opposed Long's appointment and took credit for his original rejection.

Billion Dollar Club Luncheon Set May 5

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The fifth annual Billion Dollar Club Luncheon, which honors presidents of companies which have built or expanded manufacturing facilities in Ohio, will be held here May 5.

Gov. James A. Rhodes will serve as host for about 500 industrialists and business leaders.

4 Escapees Returned To Elkins Jail

ELKINS (AP) — All four Randolph County Jail escapees are back behind bars after less than 24 hours' freedom.

West Virginia state police said the four, who escaped Sunday night while one held a knife to the jailer's wife's throat, were apprehended Monday. They are being held on federal charges relating to interstate transportation of stolen automobiles.

Police said Fred L. Bennett, 19, of Clarksburg was picked up at a friend's house in Clarksburg and John P. Emerson, 24, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, was captured on a rural Randolph County road at Lower Cheat Mountain.

Robert Knight, 21, of Newell and John Pierce, 33, of Burnside, Pa., were apprehended in the same area where Emerson was caught.

Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Spec. 5 David M. Lacey of Mantua, Ohio, has been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

Magnesium is unique in that it weighs more after it has been burned, its ashes weighing more than the metal itself.

Tough To Keep Politics Out Of ABM, Critic Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leading Republican critic of President Nixon's Safeguard program says it is becoming harder and harder to keep politics out of the dispute over the missile defense system.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky made his observation in advance of today's appearance by Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard on behalf of the Safeguard before a closed session of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Cooper said he deplores the injection of politics into the coming Senate battle over whether to authorize a Safeguard go ahead.

"I'm afraid you can't keep politics out of it," Cooper said in an interview.

The Kentucky senator said he had been brought under no pressure by the Republican administration because he is not supporting the President.

"They couldn't have been nicer to me," he commented.

Previously Sen. Milton R. Young, secretary of the Senate Republican Conference, had complained about what he called partisan political attacks against him in North Dakota on the Safeguard issue.

In a statement to his constituents, Young also denied allegations that he is supporting the system because of plans to spend $150 million in North Dakota for one of the two Safeguard sites in Nixon's modified program.

Packard was invited to make the administration's case before the Republican policy group by Chairman Gordon Allott, a Safeguard backer. The Colorado senator left it up to Cooper and other opponents to name an opposition speaker for a similar session next week.

Youth Is Sentenced In County Burglaries

LISBON — Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court sentenced William J. Mort, 20, of Youngstown to the Ohio State Reformatory Monday for two burglaries.

The court terminated the defendant's probation granted Jan. 24, 1968, after finding he violated two conditions of his release on good behavior.

Mort had pleaded guilty to break-ins March 22, 1967, at Jan's Restaurant on route 7 and Carter's Market, New Waterford RD 1.

Judge Sharp sentenced Mort to 1 to 15 years on each count, but said the sentences may be served at the same time.

Be Careful, Your Vote on the School Levies Could Cost the City School System $1,353,628 in State Funds.

(53.7% of the total operating Budget.)

It's up to you. If the 12-Mill Renewal Levies fail to pass, the school system will lose $1,353,628 in state funds. Over half the operating budget. And this is money already paid out of your pocket, which will not be returned by the state unless the levies are renewed.

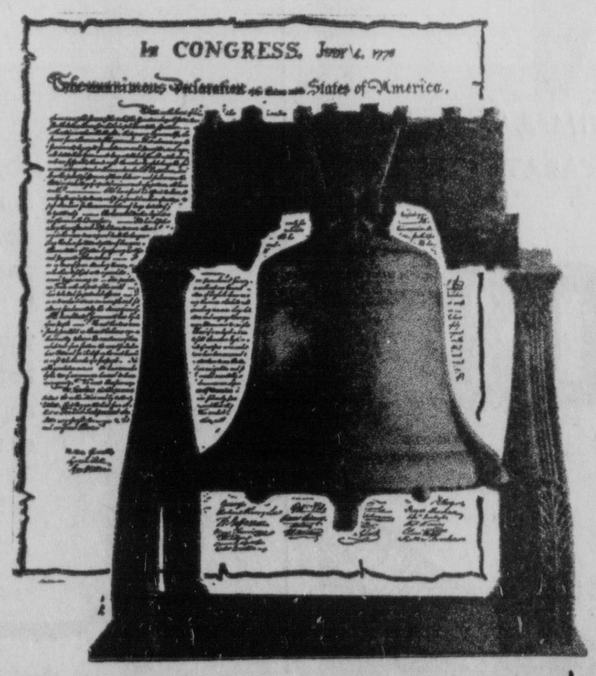

The Renewal Levies do not represent an increase in taxes.

The question you will vote on May 6, is whether or not to continue the school levies as they stand now.

By renewing this millage we will continue to receive State Foundotion Funds. We cannot operate without the 12 mills renewal and the State Foundation Funds, which together total almost three-fourts of our operating budget. The loss of these levies would put us in a very precarious position.

Look at it this way:

If you had the one and only deciding vote, could you vote against our youth?

Edison Local Sets Ballot On 2 Buildings, Repairs

Construction of two new elementary schools in Edison Local School district along with remodeling, repairing and updating other facilities are proposed in a $4,246,000 bond issue on which the voters will ballot May 6.

Serious overcrowding and lack of proper facilities have been cited by Supt. C. P. Henderson as problems of the recently - consolidated district which should be solved.

"All schools, with one exception, are overcrowded at the present time which makes it impossible to have the proper kind of an educational program which is so necessary today," he said.

"Several buildings are in need of repair, some were never entirely completed, others need new heating and ventilating systems, as present systems are worn out, while the lighting in some is very inadquate. Repairs of less major importance are needed in many buildings.

"The program was recommended by the school's architect and a representative of an engineering and planning firm after a very close examination and inspection of present buildings.

"EDISON LOCAL is a fast-growing district. The school population has increased by 1,200 pupils within the last 10 years. The greatest increase has been within the last three years, which has been due in part to people moving from the urban area to the rural areas. This movement has been due partially to the installation of water lines, and with the further extension of proposed water lines the school population will increase more than ever.

"At present there are 265 students in classrooms other than regular school classrooms. Students are housed in four church buildings and some are in portable buildings. This situation will become more acute with the start of another school year, and will continue to do so. until more buildings are provided. It is impossible to carry on a proper educational program under such conditions.

"The enrollment in each high school next year will be increased by approximately 40 to 50 students, which is going to create further problems in an already critical situation.

"There is not one empty classroom in the school district. At the present time there is no room for special education classes. The county psychologist has determined there are 180 pupils in the district that should be in special education classes. These are not mentally rtarded children, but they are classified as slow learners.

"AT PRESENT there is no room or facilities for music, art or adequate library facilities. In some buildings library books and reference materials are kept in storage rooms and issued to children, who must either take them home or to their classroom to be used, which is a very unsatisfactory situation.

"The Board of Education proposes, in addition to the remodeling and repairing program, to construct two new elementary schools known as "middle schools". These new schools would provide for grades 5 to 8. There are enough students in the district at the present time to justify the construction of the new buildings if properly distributed. Classrooms would not be overcrowded and all students would be housed in regular school buildings, and all students would again feel they are a part of a school. All present buildings would continue to be used as they are at present. This type of organization (middle schools) is in accordance with modern day trends in education and in line with the thinking of our best educators and the results of recent research.

"The buildings would be so designed as to stress flexibility, programmed instruction, flexible scheduling, team teaching and other innovations common to a progressive school today.

"Construction of these buildings will make it possible to improve, broaden and strengthen the curriculum through all grades. In the middle grades the following would be added: elementary guidance, music, art, physical education, homeeconomics, industrial arts, typing, foreign language (equal to one year of high school by the time a student reaches high school) special education at all levels.

"ONE NEW building would be located somewhere in the Knoxville - Pleasant Hill area, and the other one in the East Springfield-Richmond area.

Extensive repairs and remodeling would be made to the Knoxville, Pleasant Hill and Richmond elementary schools. New sewage systems must be installed at two of the schools. Remodeling of the music, home economics departments and library at Jefferson Union High School. A new automatic heating system would replace the worn-out coal-fired system at East Springfield elementary school.

"If there is a delay in the passage of this bond issue, the cost will be higher. Completion of this program will fulfill the reason for consolidation of the original school districts that make up the Edison Local School District," Henderson concluded.

Track And Field Meet Set For Hancock Youngsters

The first annual track and field meet for fourth, fifth and sixth-grade youngsters in Hancock County schools will be held Saturday, May 17, at the Weir High stadium in Weirton, beginning at 10 a.m.

The program, termed "Operation Physical Fitness," received final approval of the board of education during Monday's night's meeting at New Cumberland.

THE EVENTS will include dashes, broad jump, high jump, softball throw and relays.

The youngsters will be placed in four classifications for the competition according to grade, age, height and weight, John Kuzio, supervisor of the program, said.

Preliminaries are to be conducted at each school, with all first-place winners, boys and girls, from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades competing in the finals at the Weir High stadium.

Kuzio said he expects some 250 to 350 boys and girls to participate.

Each youngster will receive a certificate for taking part and badges or ribbons will be given the first five places in each event.

THE RULES and regulations follow:

1.—Each student will be placed in one of four classifications according to grade of school, age, height and weight.

2.—Each student is to participate in at least one event and no more than three events, which does not include the relay.

3.—Each school will be allowed to enter one girls' and one boys' relay team.

4.—Both a boy and girl winner will be selected in each event.

5.—All 25- and 50-yard dashes will be timed.

6.—Each youngster will be given two trials, with the best being recorded in the following events: softball throw, standing broad jump and running broad jump.

"We are hopeful that many parents will turn out to watch their youngster compete in this program. We are also hopeful that they will volunteer to help in running the program during the day," Kuzio said.

Those desiring to volunteer are to contact Kuzio at the Pupil's Servies Office in Weirton.

Driver Escapes Injury In Plunge

A Wellsville driver escaped injury early this morning when his car plunged down a steep embankment on Route 267, just south of Route 30.

The car was only slightly damaged, the patrol said. The accident occurred at 5:35.

City Will Push Requests For Project Help

A delegation of city, county and state officials will confer at New Philadelphia Friday with Ohio Highway Department representatives to push East Liverpool's request for state funds with which to undertake three major local highway projects.

East Liverpool started action in mid - April to obtain a share of the funds from a statewide bond issue approved by voters last November to help with improvement of Maine Blvd. and Shadyside Ave. and the city's share of the cost of extending the Freeway east into East End.

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey will represent the city government in the meeting at 10 Friday morning. Commissioners James Boyd, Charles Gause and Max Gard, and possibly Engineer Bert A. Dawson Jr., will speak for the county.

State Rep. Clarence (Dutch) Wetzel of near Lisbon and State Sen. Douglass Applegate of Steubenville also are expected to attend. Willshaw said the city is seeking to arrange the appearance of a representative of the Liverpool Township trsutees, as the proposed Shadyside Ave. improvement would affect both the city and the township.

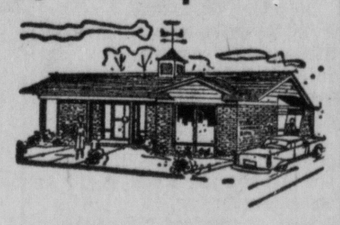

The mayor and director and Engineer George Bloomgren conferred at Columbus April 17-18 with Wetzel and Applegate, discussing the possibility of obtaining state bond issue funds to assist with the three projects.

No One Injured In Area Mishaps

No one was injured in two automobile mishaps investigated by Wellsville police.

Police Chief John Hephner reported a two-car collision resulted when Leyman Pearson of 1321 Main St. swerved to avoid hitting a parked vehicle, and his car struck an auto operated by Iris L. Carpenter of Irondale RD 1.

A car operated by Timothy L. Madison of Salineville hit a parked auto on 15th St. The parked vehicle was owned by Charles Wright of 210 15th St. and was in front of his home.

Bomb-By-Mail Trial Due For Jury Today

CLEVELAND Ohio, (AP) — The bomb-by-mail trial of Orville E. Stifel II, a former Cincinnati laboratory technician, was expected to reach the jury in U.S. District Court late today.

Taking the stand in his own defense Monday, Stifel, 22, denied that he mailed the bomb that killed Daniel J. Ronec, 23, last July 8.

"We have a heat pump, and one of the advantages is that the same piece of equipment is used to both heat and cool the house, so the cost includes air conditioning."
Hayden Hannabass*

"I have a heat pump, and it costs me considerably less money because it's about twice as efficient. The ducts were already in existence, therefore, all they had to do was set the unit inside and the other one outside, and insulate. There's no reason at all why you can't install electric heat in any older home."
Raymond Dervin*

"We have a heat pump, and it's very economical! There's very little repair and if it's insulated and built properly it will compete or beat any other type of heat on the market. There's a definite guarantee on them and it's definitely no more expensive to operate. We've had it for 8 years and we're well pleased with it."

ANN LANDERS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I did a slow burn when that guy wrote to complain that his wife acts like she's doing him a favor once every two weeks. A timetable like that would have been heaven to me.

I married Aggie when I was 26. She was 22. What I thought was high principles turned out to be a pathological hatred for sex. From the night we married until I left her, 17 years later, Aggie wore underwear and ankle sox under her nightgown.

She also had this thing about lubricating her skin so it wouldn't wrinkle. At bedtime she put so much grease on, she looked like she was fixing to swim the English Channel.

And then of course there were the headaches and backaches and colds. She managed to get six colds a year, each one lasting a month.

I'm now married to a wonderful gal who knows that sex can be a bond that ties a man and woman together. My only mistake was waiting 17 years to lead a normal life. You print lots of letters from women who think their husbands are sex manics. Please print this one and help even the score. — ALIVE AND WELL IN DEYATUR.

Dear Alive: The score never will be even, but your letter helps balance it a bit. Thanks for writing.

The I.D. D.T.'s

Dear Ann: Why do people get belligerent and act insulted when they want to cash a check and are asked to produce identification? Don't they realize employes have to keep records? It isn't enough that a person has an honest face.

I work in a large store and I try to be as polite and considerate to our customers as possible. Yesterday when I asked for identification, she snapped, "Are you trying to say I'm a swindler"?

A half hour later a man threw his credit cards and driver's license in my face and yelled, "Some fresh punks just have to show their authority!"

I'm sure I'm not the only sales person who has this problem, so please print my letter. I'd like to tape it to the cash register and I'll guarantee you, so will hundreds of other employes. — ABUSED.

Dear Ab: Here's your letter and I hope it helps promote better understanding on the part of the customers.

Language Barrier

Dear Ann: Our 19-year-old daughter is a sophomore at a well known school in the East. Judy always has been considered one of the better brought up young ladies in this town. But her language since she has been away at school is appalling.

She uses some very dirty words in ordinary everyday conversation. Her father, half kidding, said, "When you were younger I used to wash your mouth out with soap and I might have to do it again."

Judy's answer was, "I tell it like it is. Words are only sounds. Get with it."

What should a parent say in response? — SPEECHLESS.

Dear Speech: A parent should say, "If you want to stay in this house you'd better use decent language to tell it like it is. We don't go for gutter talk around here and YOU'D better get with it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her incare of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Thief Obtains $30 In Wallet

A Substation area woman told police her wallet containing $30 to $40 was stolen Monday night in the New York Restaurant in the Diamond.

Mrs. Betty Grimm of Dome St. told officers she placed the wallet beside the telephone while making a call. Returning to a booth to get her coat, she remembered she did not have her wallet, but when she went to retrieve it, the wallet was gone, she said.

The incident was timed about 6:10. The money was mostly in change. The wallet also contained various keys, she said.

Two vandalism cases also were reported to police Monday.

Archie Pinkerton of 1066 Huston Ave. told officers yesterday afternoon a "director element" which is part of the antenna for his citizens band radio was damaged by a bullet within the preceding four days.

David Huffman of 1023 Edgewood Ave. reported the power radio antenna of his auto was bent and the right rear fender was scratched while the vehicle was parked near his home between 11 p. m. Saturday and 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

32 Teachers Approved By Board In Hancock

Thirty-two teachers were approved for appointment and eight resignations were accepted when the Hancock County board of education met Monday night at its offices in New Cumberland.

The issuing of contracts for the 1969-1970 term was authorized for Shirley Halley, Shirley Gaydos, Sally Blankenship, Martha Possnak, Arlene Midgett, Janice Manypenny, Joseph Vidmar, Patricia McIntosh, Kurt Culler, Loretta Lugano, Eleanor Rice, Thomas Crockett, Barbara Ivady, Mary Hydak, Dianne Lounder, Karin Hutton, Mary Baldwin, Sandra Day, Carole Hager, Kay Hicks, Ronald Shelestak, John Rowe, Jo-Anne Rosso, Sharon Knotts, Judy Mae Shaffer, William Shaffer, Kathryn Harry, Dan Harris, Carole Fetty, Patricia Jersey, Stephen Hanna and Charlene Hanna.

Assuming they accept the contracts, the above would be assigned to various buildings in the county system.

Resignations accepted included Karen Darkow, Barbara Sweeney, Robert Sweeney, Cathryn Guido, John Stull, Ora Coffman, Kathryn D. Hoover and Jody Lesho.

Approved for driver education posts at Oak Glen during summer school were Jerry Durante and Larry Canterburg.

The following non-teaching personnel have resigned, the board said:

The following were approved for employment: Elzie Martin, custodian, New Cumberland; Beatrice Watkins, bus driver, Transportation; Marlene Harchar-ic, teacher aide, extra, Liberty, and Betty L.Ball and Nora Toms, teacher aides, Cove.

Former Resident To Have Role In California Opera

Mrs. Jeanne Henderson Withroe of Ontario, Calif., formerly of Glenmoor, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Henderson of Sub Station Rd., will appear in the opera "Carmen" Saturday at the Gardiner Spring Auditorium in Ontario. She will portray "Micaela."

Mrs. Withroe studied voice and was active as a soloist in various church and community affairs in East Liverpool and Wellsville. She has sung major roles in oratorios as well as trios and duets.

The Withroes, with their daughter and son, moved to California in 1964.

The 1970 U. S. census will be taken principally by mail. In March of next year, letter carriers will deliver census forms to all households. In major metropolitan areas, with 60 per cent of the total population, households will be asked to fill out and return these forms by mail on April 1. Census workers will visit only households failing to return forms or failing to answer all questions. Elsewhere in the nation, census workers will visit every household to pick up the questionnaires.

Education Unit Hits More Regents Power

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Higher Education Conference Committee, a group of five organizations concerned with higher education, voiced opposition Monday to giving the Board of Regents more control over state universities.

The position paper apparently was in response to proposed legislation before the legislature which would give the board more power over state-supported universities. The committee suggested that at least one faculty member and a student be inluded on the board.

Hershey Warns Protesters Who Dispose Of Draft Cards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service chief Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says antiwar protesters who throw away their draft cards will continue to lose their deferments and be reclassified for immediate induction until the courts order the procedure stopped.

Putting such protesters first in line for the draft "has nothing to do with punishment," the blunt, 75-year-old Hershey said in an interview. "I get riled up when they talk to me about serving your country being punishment."

Hershey spoke after the Supreme Court Monday agreed to hear arguments next fall by two antiwar protestors who charge their reclassification was unconstitutional.

One of the protesters, 22-year-old David Earl Gutknecht of Gaylord, Minn., is appealing a four-year prison sentence for refusing induction after he was reclassified for leaving his draft card on federal building steps during an antiwar demonstration in Minneapolis.

The other, 21-year-old Timothy J. Breen of Westport, Conn., sued against being drafted after he was reclassified for giving his draft card to a Boston clergyman to protest the war.

Both gave up their draft cards within weeks of Hershey's October 1967 memorandum authorizing draft boards to take away draft deferments for such "illegal activities" and declare the violators delinquents, which sends their names to the top of the draft list.

American Civil Liberty Union attorneys for the two protesters say 537 students were stripped of deferments and put on 1-A delinquent status in 1968.

Legal Director Melvin L. Wulf said in New York the ACLU hopes the Gutknecht case "will be the central test of the power of Gen. Hershey to reclassify men as punishment for protesting the war in Vietnam."

Hershey's general counsel, Col. David D. Omer, said he welcomes the Supreme Court decision to hear the two cases and is confident the court will uphold the reclassification policy.

Failure of a potential draftee to carry his draft card is a specific violation of the Military Selective Service Act. The issue before the court is whether a man can lose his deferment and be reclassified to high draft status for the violation.

Hershey's position is that draft deferments for college or any other reason are a "privilege" and they are granted only when it is in the national interest

"Breaking a law is never in the national interest," he said, "and if they (young men) break a law, it's not in ths national interest to defer them."

Violation of the draft card possession law also makes them liable for top-of-the-list delinquent status rather than simple reclassification to 1-A, he contends.

Man Fined And Jailed In Hearing At Lisbon

LISBON — Roy Jeffery of 251 W. Washington St. chose an immediate hearing before Mayor Clyde B. Pike Monday night after being taken into custody during a domestic disturbance at home.

He pleaded guilty to an assault and battery complaint filed by his wife Ardith and to a charge of fighting with Patrolman Edward C. Dray, who placed him under arrest.

Mayor Pike fined Jeffery $100 and costs and sentenced him to three days in jail on the first count and $50 and costs on the second.

Then the mayor imposed a $50 disorderly conduct fine suspended Jan. 1 on condition the defendant be of good behavior.

Probe Of 'Loopholes' In Pa. Business Tax Laws Urged

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House had under consideration today a pair of resolutions proposing legislative investigations of so-called "loopholes" in Pennsylvania business tax laws.

One proposal, sponsored by Rep. John Hope Anderson, R-York, would authorize a joint investigation by the House and Senate and would require approval by both chambers.

The other, offered by Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, would enable the House to conduct the probe on its own in the event the Senate failed to act on the Anderson resolution.

Fineman said he would prefer a joint inquiry in a spirit of bipartisanship, noting that the Senate is controlled by Republicans and the House by Democrats.

"I don't want this investigation to get bogged down in politics," the House speaker said. Fineman added, however, that the House would proceed on its own, if necessary.

more more more

The House dominated action on the General Assembly Monday with the passage of several bills, including a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

Action was light in the Senate, but four senators from the Republican side introduced an amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

The key measure approved by the House would require the state to represent the consumer's interests at official proceedings such as utility and insurance rate hearings.

The vote was 103-92 with all the opposition coming from the GOP. Republicans maintained that consumer interests already were served by the state agencies that regulate rates.

Democrats argued otherwise and convinced two Republicans to vote in the affirmative. The two were Reps. Marvin E. Miller, Lancaster, and Francis Worley, Adams.

The House voted 149-46 in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would enable a verdict in a civil trial to be rendered by 10 of 12 jurors.

President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming, R-Allegheny, was among the four senators who proposed the amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

Under the proposal, the Senate would be cut from 50 to 40 members and the House from 203 to 120. Similar legislation in the past has failed.

Janet Lindner, Dennis Cataldo Set Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lindner of 200 Water St., Salineville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janet Lindner, to Dennis Cataldo, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cataldo of 709 Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

The bride-elect is a member of the senior class at Southern Local High School. Her fiance is employed at Patterson Industries and attends the Salem Machinist School.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Seaman Albert V. Luckino Phyllis Beth Dillon Weds

Miss Phyllis Beth Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dillon of 870 State St., became the bride of Seaman Albert Vitoangelo Luckino, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Luckino of 506 12th St., Wellsville, April 19 at 10 a.m. in the Wellsville Riverside United Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. James D. Sanko officiating for the double - ring ceremony.

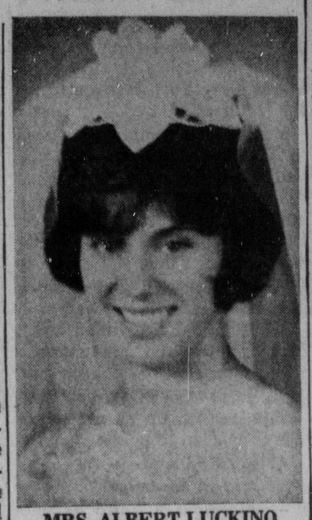

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a slipper-length gown of hand-clipped, scalloped Chantilly lace designed with an Empire bodice and highlighted with crystals and sequins. Lace scallops encircled the neckline, Spanish-style sleeves and bordered the hemline. The skirt was fashioned in a redingote effect with chapel train.

HER VEIL of English illusion was attached to a headpiece of lace petals designed in star effect and edged with seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations, baby breath and fernery tied with satin streamers interspersed with lily-of-the-valley. In observing the traditions, she borrowed the sixpence from a sister-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Dillon.

Miss Sheila Lamp, maid of honor, was attired in a full-length gown of green chiffon styled along Empire lines. Her headpiece was a circlette of white net adorned with yellow carnations and fernery.

MRS. ALBERT LUCKINO
Marries In Church Rites.

A RECEPTION followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents, where the buffet table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with yellow maline. The three - tier cake was separated with inverted champagne glasses placed over yellow rosebuds. Wedding bands and doves served as the ornament.

The bride attends East Liverpool High School. Her husband was graduated in 1968 from Wellsville High School and is attending the hospital corps man school at Great Lakes, Ill.

75th Anniversary Marked By Eastern Star Chapter

The 75th anniversary of Crystal Chapter 18, Order of Eastern Star, was observed with a grand inspection Friday night at the Masonic Temple. Some 230 attended.

Mrs. Irene Thornbury of Washington Court House, worthy grand matron, was inspecting officer. She was presented an honorary membership certificate arranged on a lace crown by Mrs. Phyllis Eaton.

Mrs. Mary Matheny, worthy matron, and her husband, Elmer Matheny, worthy patron, presided.

The theme for the year, "Faith," was symbolized in decorations in the East, which was draped with a blue satin cloth and featured a glittering 75th emblem and a white cross entwined with flowers. A large replica of an uncut diamond was suspended over a basket of flowers at the West draped in pink satin.

A 50th-year membership pin was given Mrs. Helen Caldwell by Mrs. Thornbury.

White Bibles were presented by Matheny to the four candidates who were initiated. Mrs. Matheny read a poem, 'Star of Hope," composed by Mrs. Eva Beaver. Mrs. Marilyn Wagner sang.

Grand officers introduced were Mrs. Eunice Huston of Wellsville, who serves as Ruth; Mrs. Pauleen Wolfgang of East Palestine, deputy matron; Mrs. Evelyn Moesle of Massillon, representative to California; Mrs. Dorothy Jordan of Sebring, representative to Massachusetts; Mrs. Rowena Dusthiner of Danville, warder, and Mrs. Jessie Nagus of Sebring, past grand matron.

District 13 officers present were Mrs. Virginia Buckley, president, and Bruce Pelley, treasure. Also welcomed were 16 district worthy matrons and 12 worthy patrons along with 20 local past matrons and six past patrons.

Other chapters represented were Chester, Homeworth, Salem, Steubenville, Negley, Alliance. Orville, Hanoverton, Wellsville, Minerva, Canton, Louiisville, Augusta, Lisbon, Salineville and Columbiana.

REFRESHMENTS were served in the diningroom by the Past Matrons Association, with Mrs. Freida Adkins chairman. The decorating committee included Mrs. Eaton, chairman, Mrs. Nellie Birch and Mrs. Frances Bussard.

Five tables forming star points were centered with a round table covered with a white satin cloth. Letters of the theme "faith" were placed along the edge, along with vigil lights. Decorations included five gold-covered boxes upon which were placed fans in the chapter's colors. The other tables were centered with fans, spring flowers and lighted tapers. Favors were fans featuring the anniversary emblem.

The next session will be May 14, with more candidates to be initiated.

Q. — How can I improvise a delicious syrup for pancakes when I find I am out of the real thing?

A. — Try adding a little water and a dab of butter to some fruit jelly, and heat. It's finger-licking good!

Q.—How can I dry matches that refuse to strike because of dampness?

Q.—How can I treat scratches on furniture?

A.—These can often be obliterated by wiping with a solution of equal parts boiled linseed oil, turpentine, and white vinegar. Follow with a polishing with a dry, lintless cloth.

MRS. NORA STODDARD
Birthday Honored.

Open House Held For Woman, 80, At Home Of Son

Mrs. Nora M. Talbott Stoddard of Glenmoor was honored with an open house reception celebrating her 80th birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of her son, Charles E. Talbott of 1548 Globe St.

Mrs Stoddard was born April 26, 1889, at Tuppers Plains in Meigs County, a daughter of the late Edward Burton and Etta Heiney Burton. She was married to Charles G. Talbott, who died in 1941. She became the wife of Chester L. Stoddard in 1943. He died last Nov. 30.

She has another son, Kenneth E. Talbott of Cleveland Ave., and another daughter, Mrs. Leander (Maxine) Henson of the Y. & O. Rd. She also has two stepsons, C. Robert Stoddard of St. Clair Ave. and Lewis H. Stoddard of Shadyside Ave.

There are 16 grandchildren and 13 great - grandchildren.

Refreshments were served 50 at a buffet table covered with a deep pink cloth and centered with an arrangement of daisies, roses, jonquils and carnations. A large birthday cake and milk-glass appointments completed the setting.

The oldest guest present was Mrs. Myrtle Talbott, 85, of East Liverpool and the youngest, Jennifer Talbott, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Talbott of Pittsburgh.

The honored guest received gifts and cards.

Officials and diplomats at the Brussels headquarters of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization foresaw only a slow change in French relations with the Atlantic alliance and expected any dramatic developments.

De Gaulle pulled France out of most integrated NATO defense arrangements but maintained the nation's membership in the alliance.

France also continued its boycott of the permanent council of the Western European Union and stayed away from the councils regular meeting in London Monday. France has boycotted the biweekly meetings of the council since February, when the British enlarged the scope of the council's discussions. De Gaulle considered this an attempt to get around his veto of Britains membership in the Common Market.

Cite Mongolism In Offspring

Critics Of Fluoridation Claim Poisoning Danger

By DIANA STOVER
Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fluoridation of public drinking water can, according to those against it, lead to poisoning of the user and Mongolism in their offspring.

Dr. Jonathan Foreman of Columbus, in testimony Monday night before the Ohio Senate Education, Health and Welfare Committee, said persons who drink fluoridated water may suffer chromosome damage, which in some cases would later result in Mongolism among their children.

Dr. Forman, the chairman of the National Medical and Dental Committee to Evaluate Fluoridation and president of the Ohio State Alliance against Fluoridation, testified against a bill to require statewide fluoridation of water supplies serving 5,000 or more persons.

Dr. Forman, however, declined to endorse the testimony of four other persons who appeared before the committee.

"What they know and don't know I wouldn't want to comment on," he told the committee.

Thomas McIlvain of Wyoming, Ohio, which has fluoridated water, told the committee he suffered fluoride poisoning from drinking the water and almost died from it.

"The doctors asked me if I had been exposed to rat poisoning," he said, saying they were at a loss to determine his illness.

At this point, the committee's chairman, Sen. Oakley C. Collins, R - 18 Ironton, suggested the McIlvain's testimony "was taking up a lot of time and getting us nowhere.

Collins sponsored the fluoridation bill.

Edith Bowman, representing the Citizens Committee against Fluoridation of Cincinnati, said "fluoridation is treating your body without your consent."

In other action, the committee recommended for passage a bill requiring all day care centers in the state to be licensed by Jan. 1, 1970.

To be licensed, a center would have to have at least 35 square feet of indoor space for each child and 60 square feet of outdoor space. Infants would have to be cared for in rooms separate from older children.

The bill sets maximum numbers of children for each staff member.

Administrators would be required to have at least a high school education and by Dec. 17, 1971, must have completed at least two years of training or have at least two years experience working with children and their parents.

In earlier legislative action Monday, the Senate received a resolution calling for Collins' committee to investigate conditions within the Ohio Penitentiary.

The resolution's main sponsor and committee member, Sen. Marigene Valiquette, D - 11 Toledo, said from "preliminary soundings out" with the Republican leadership, she felt her proposal has a good chance of being heard by the committee.

She said unless Ohio's penal system is overhauled there will be "further riots" at the century old prison.

In te House, a bill to permit jail or workhouse inmates to hold outside employment was adopted 81-8 after a vigorous debate.

The bill was a victory for Jim Thorpe, R-90 Alliance, who has sponsored a similar bill without success for the past five years.

The bill permits courts within a county to adopt a work-release program for prisoners if they want. Prisoners who qualify would pay their own board.

The paychecks of prisoners would go to help their family and to pay their debts.

The House also sent back to the Judiciary Committee a bill calling for councilmen in non-charger cities to be elected to four year terms, instead of the two year terms they now serve.

The first one would extend the deadline for trials in small claims court from 20 to 30 days. The second would designate Ohio 72 beginning in Springfield as the "Simon Kenton Trace Highway."

Mental Health Group Meets

LISBON — Twenty - three attended a general meeting of the Columbiana County Mental Health Association Monday evening at the Courthouse.

The speakers were Judge Louis Tobin of Probate Court, Mrs. Edith Martsolf, supervisor of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, and Gordon Fediaczko, psychiatric social worker at the County Mental Health Clinic. They answered questions from the audience.

Dr. John W. Hayes of East Liverpool, president, was in charge.

Other East Liverpool residents present were Mrs. Christie Krafft of the Jaycee-ettes, Mrs. William Erwin Jr., Mrs. R. A. Wagner and the Rev. Allen R. Conway of the First United Methodist Church.

Salem area residents present were Mrs. Carey Jackson, Lillian R. Schroeder, Lozier Caplian, Mary Catherine Donahue, executive director of the Catholic Charities Bureau; the Rev. William W. Stickle, Episcopal church minister; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hawk Jr., East Rochester RD, and Richard Broomall, president of the Guilford Lake Ruritan Club.

Odd Facts

There are approximately 13,000 people today in the United States who are 100 years of age or older, according to latest count.

The normal intelligible outdoor range of the male human voice in still air is generally computed to be about 150 yards.

Employe Named By Water Board At Salineville

Madison will serve as a meter reader and general repairman for the water department at a salary of $145 a month. He will start Monday.

The board authorized estimates of water bills in the West End section for one period. Joe Weston, meter reader and assistant superintendent, resigned effective March 31, and the meters were not read.

It was announced scheduled installation of fire hydrants to replace four old ones have been delayed. Rain prevented the project last Wednesday.

craft carriers, as an indication of the risk Nixon attached to resumption of the EC121 flight.

"North Korea is a belligerent," he commented. "We didn't know what to expect. So we didn't go up there with a little stick; we took a big stick."

After "proving his point," the President had to consider the cost of keeping a sizeable Navy force in the area over any extended period—not only in terms of dollars but also in terms of assignments the Navy had elsehwere.

One carrier, for example, had been pulled from Vietnam waters to join the task force, cutting Navy bombing capability in the war zone by one-third.

Nixon also may have considered the possibility that a prolonged presence of many U.S. warships near Korea would have been construed as provocative.

"By pulling out most of the ships, Nixon showed he wasn't out looking for trouble," a civilian analyst said.

The Navy still has a considerable presence off Korea—the carrier Enterprise with more than 90 planes and seven destroyers.

While two carriers have left, Pentagon sources report that an additional squadron of F4 Phantom fighters—about 24 planes—has been sent to South Korea to beef up American air strength there.

Police Unit Sets Picnic Plans At Wellsville Hall

Plans for the annual Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police picnic were discussed at a meeting Monday at the lodge hall.

The event will be held at James Lake along Route 45. The date will be selected at the next meeting May 26.

Police Chief John Hephner, president, was in charge. Verification of debts for payment was aired.

Plans were discussed for electing a delegate to the state FOPA conference July 20-22.

An application for membership from Jess Warren Gill of Route 30 was approved.

Area Man Jailed For 3 Violations

A Wellsville man is serving an 8-day jail term on charges of resisting arrest, intoxication and escaping custody.

Donald Brewer of Commerce St. was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to jail by Mayor William Daugherty after he was taken into custody Saturday near 9th St.

Three motorists were fined a total of $70 and costs for failure to pay parking ticket penalties. They were Walter Carroll of 1728 Lincoln Ave., $22; Wilbur Jarvis of Commerce St., $36, and William Murry of 12th St., $32.

William B. Miller of 227 Center St., East Liverpool, forfeited a $20 bond for traveling the wrong way on a 1-way street.

Police Chief John Hephner has issued a warning to motorists who are operating cars with invalid licenses or to owners of parked inoperable autos. He said such owners will be prosecuted, and the autos towed away.

Award Given Key Club At Beaver Local

The Beaver Loocal Key Club was the recipient of the Governor's Award for outstanding service over the past year during the 20th annual Ohio District Key Club convention in Cleveland over the weekend. Nine members attended.

The award was presented by Gov. Rod Wynkoop of Findlay and was accepted by Keith Steiner, president, on behalf of the club.

The local organization was rated fifth in the almost 200 clubs of the Ohio District on the basis of "over-all service to school and community."

Steiner, who has stepped down from his one - year term as secretary of the Ohio District, also was recognized for his service.

The convention, at the Pick-Carter Hotel, attracted about 900 Key Club members and Kiwanis advisers. The theme was "Influence Through Example."

Kiwanic Club advisers who accompanied the group were Robert Stewart, James Steiner, Lloyd Rhodes and Irvin Vorndran.

Dixie College Building Held By Students

By The Associated Press

About 30 students, some armed with guns and knives, held the administration building of predominantly Negro Voorhees College in South Carolina today but school officials said they would take no hasty action.

About 25 Negro students ended a sit-in at the administrative offices of St. Louis University, when officials met most of their demands.

City College of New York was closed indefinitely and sit-ins continued at two other branches of the City University.

At Harvard University students participating in a referendum voted 3,222 to 945 not to resume a strike of classes.

The New York State Assembly meeting in Albany, passed and sent to the senate a bill to ban guns from college campuses. The bill, backed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, would allow seven-year jail terms for armed students convicted of unlawfully occupying buildings on New York State college campuses.

Ultra-Leftist Students Battle Tokyo Police

TOKYO (AP) — Five thousand ultra-leftist students celebrated the 17th anniversary of the end of the U.S. occupation Monday by battling police with rocks, wooden staves, lead pipes and Molotov cocktails. They were greeted by tear gas, and 967 landed in jail.

It was the most serious of 252 demonstrations throughout Japan demanding the return of Okinawa and abolition of the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty.

Probers In Pueblo Case Say

Code For Captured GIs Seen Code Of Confusion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen probing the North Korean capture of the USS Pueblo say the code of conduct for captured American servicemen is really a code of confusion.

"Rather than stricter or looser the code should be clearer," said Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee investigating the capture of the Pueblo and its crewmen. "I certainly think the confusion Monday made that manifest."

Pike referred to a parade of Pentagon officials who tried to explain the regulations governing the surrender of the Pueblo to the North Koreans and subsequent false confessions by crew members.

Committee members zeroed in on what they termed inconsistment, vagueness on information the enemy can be supplied, and absence of guidelines for surreder of a ship.

Vice Adm. Charles K. Duncan, chief of naval personnel, described the code as a "professional and inspirational' guide that needs no revision at this time.

However, Adm. Joseph B. McDevitt, the Navys chief lawyer, said violators of the code technically can be prosecuted.

"But it is not the policy of the Navy to punish violation of the code," Duncan injected.

And both men agreed that sections of the code are extensions of the Uniform Code of Military Conduct. Violators of the uniform code are subject to court martial.

"On one hand they say the code is inspirational and professional," committee member G. William Whitehurst, R-Va., complained in an interview.

"But on the other hand they say if you violate some sections you can be wrapped up (prosecuted) either under a general order or the uniform code," he said. "You can't have it all three ways."

Another puzzler came from testimony by Brig, Gen. Leo A. Benade, a deputy assistant secretary of defense, who commented on a section that says a prisoner of war is "bound to give only name, rank, service number and date of birth."

man day force reported to work. termined how many of the 130-

Twelve highway patrolmen armed with shotguns also entered the prison.

Twelve men formed picket lines at a walkway and two vehicle drives at the prison. They are members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes Union.

One picket carried a sign stating, "Prison Guards Day of Mourning." This referred to a "day of mourning" called for some state workers by spokesmen for the State Employes Union in a protest of present wages.

The prison, scene of a major fire and two riots last summer, now has 2,307 inmates.

Ridenour said they would eat on schedule but that some prison work would be curtailed "until we see how we stand." This would affect the machine shop, shoe factory and printing shop.

"We'll have recreation for the men if the weather permits," he added.

National Guardsmen were asked to be on standby at the Mansfield Reformatory if they are needed.

"We have an alert out," said Bernard Barton, associate superintendent.

"Should there be any need they will be ready."

Barton said there were some pickets in front of the reformatory.

Officials at other state penal institutions indicated they also expected labor problems among guard forces.

Guardsmen called up for service at the pen are from companies of the 166th Infantry Regiment stationed here, at Worthington and at Tarlton in Pickaway County.

James W. Smith, President of Local 1148 at the penitentiary, said Monday night the guards voted to strike because the state has not met their demand for a $1,500 a year across-the-board pay increase.

Smith said the guards work in 12-hour shifts that change at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. He estimated that 80 guards were on duty behind the galls overnight.

Warden Harold J. Cardwell predicted that a majority of the prison's guards would participate in the strike.

Ohio Corrections Chief Maury C. Koblentz indicated confidence that the troops could effectively maintain security.

Smith said that the prison guards, by voting to press their demands for a $1,500 raise, were rejecting provisions of an administration bill currently before the legislature that would raise salaries of 87 per cent of state employes by a maximum of $832 a year.

The AFSCME is demanding a $1,500 annual pay hike for all of the state's 45,000 employes. It has set Wednesday as the start of a "period of mourning," which could mean a strike by another 6,000 state workers who belong to the union.

By striking a day ahead of the "mourning" date and getting the jup on other state employes, the prison guards called public attention to their grievances.

Smith refused to confirm or deny that this was the reason for the action.

Judge Penalizes 5 Area Motorists

A Maplewood motorist was among five district drivers penalized at County Judge Barry Dickson's court in East Palestine Monday.

John E. Clutter of Fisher Ave. was fined $30 and costs for failure to display registration plates and Gary L. Andric of Lisbon RD 3 $5 and costs for an unsafe vehicle.

Forfeiting bonds were Gary L. Bowersock of East Liverpool RD 3, $25 bond for lack of a valid operator's license; John J. Falone of Glenmoor, $20 bond for speeding, and Frederick C. Gromley of Lisbon RD 4, $30 bond for speeding.

New Awards Captured By Vi-Lar Group

Four first - place awards were won by the Vi-Lar Kadettes Baton and Drum Corps of East Liverpool in the opening of another season's competition Sunday at Leavittsburg, Ohio.

In solo events, Tammy Reed took first place in intermediate, 7-8 years; Lavern Cochran, first in military and fourth in intermediate, 11-12, and Marsha Joy first in intermediate, 0-6, and second in military strutting. Also winning honors were Susan Williams, fourth in advanced, 9-10 years, and Gloria Creaturo, fourth in intermediate, 7-8.

The Kadettes will open their parade season Saturday here and in East Palestine. Members of the corps are reminded of the dress rehearsal Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Thompson Park.

The Vi-Lars Senior NBTA Corps will compete at Berea May 11. On June 28, the Vi-Lars will defend their state title at Fairfield, near Cincinnati.

Model Cities Program To Be Revamped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is revising the controversial model cities program with the hope of eliminating confusion over who is in charge at the local level—the citizen or City Hall.

Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney indicated at a news conference Monday that this was a principal aim of seven revisions to the program that Lyndon Johnson reportedly believed as he left office was the best instrument in the war on poverty.

"Final authority for the city must be the local officials," Romney said.

"If the citizens do not think the officials are wise, they can get rid of them" presumably through the electoral process, Romney said.

Created by Congress in 1966, model cities has cost the taxpayer $23 million in three years with not one program for the 150 cities involved yet out of the planning stage.

The model cities' concept is an integrated approach to solving the problems of the urban poor with across the board improvements in housing, schools and recreation.

Critics argue the program is vague and that spending could get out of hand. Some opponent also forecast the program will turn into a "domestic Pentagon," gobbling up huge expenditures without noticeable result.

Court Orders Man's Arrest

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a bench warrant for the arrest of a 24-year-old Wellsville area motorist who failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of driving 72 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone in the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

Louis R. Joy of Wellsville RD 1 was cited Monday at 9:47 p.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol, which said he was clocked with radar equipment. An officer said he started in pursuit of the defendant and clocked him at 75 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone just inside the Wellsville corporate limits.

When Joy did not appear for the hearing, the court forfeited his $27.50 appearance bond and also ordered the warrant for his arrest. The patrol's report to the court included a copy of a record from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles showing Joy has had four citations for speeding, two for improper passing and one for crashing a stop sign.

Meanwhile, Linda M. Jividen, 18, of Glenmoor was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Wellsville Rd. She was cited by the patrol Monday at 10:41 p.m.

Alfred T. Delphia, 55, of Steubenville forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, also on the Wellsville Rd. he was cited by the patrol Wednesday at 12:43 a.m.

Plant Is Toured By Ruritan Club On 2 Buildings

The Patterson Division of Banner Industries in East End was toured Monday night by 31 members of the Southern Ruritan Club.

The tour followed a brief business meeting at the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church, during which the club approved donations of $50 each to the Little League, 4-H Club and a needy family.

Honor students of Wellsville and Southern Local high schools and their parents will be guests during the May 26 meeting at the church.

Donald Rupert of New Waterford, county board president, said Phillis was one of 19 applicants for the position. He will succeed James L. McBride of Lisbon, county superintendent since 1950 and an educator 42 years. Mr. and Mrs. McBride, librarian at Beaver Local High School, plan to move in June to Alliance, where their daughter Jayne attends Mt. Union College.

Phillis is a member of the Ohio Education Association, the Ohio Association of School Administrators and the National Education Association, the President's Advisory Council of the Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, W. Va., and the Advisory Council of the Midwestern Children's Home near Cincinnati; secretary of the southeastern Ohio Unified Purchasing Committee, and treasurer of Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp near Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillis, the former Betty Lou Reeder of Columbus, are members of the Church of Christ. They have two daughters, Kimberly, 11, and Tamera, 8.

The new superintendent's sister, Miss Wanda Phillis, is a caseworker for the County Welfare Department. He has four brothers — George, James and Samuel, all of Salem RD 3, and Lowell of Yale.

The county board interviewed Phillis here last Thursday night. Rupert talked with him by phone last night and invited him to a combined meeting of the county board and four local boards in June. United, Fairfield - Waterford, Beaver and Southern Local boards make up the county system.

McBride read to the board a letter from William Oliver of Steubenville, a field consultant for OEA, who requested "a meeting with you and the county board of education" concerning the salary increase granted Lorin Ruff, elementary supervisor for the county school system.

In granting raises for the county office staff last December, the board increased Ruff's salary $700 per year, $300 less than the increases given the school psychologist and high school supervisor.

The board directed McBride to invite Oliver to the next regular meeting May 19.

McBride was given permission to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio School Superintendents Association in June at Lincoln Lodge, Columbus.

State Rep. Patrick A. Sweeney of Cleveland said the magazine article "is filled with innuendoes and I do not believe this type of reporting is good regardless of what party the accused is a member of."

"They impung the character of our chief executive and they do it with no facts," Sweeney said.

Sweeney is one of the chief backers of a code of ethics for all branches of state government. He said the magazine article is "either going to kill a conflict of interest bill or enhance its chances of passage."

Sweeney said if the bill, currently pending in the House, existed now it would have given the magazine a chance to separate rumor from fact before proceeding with the "damaging" article.

What you should know about auto insurance profits

If you believe everything you hear or read about the tremendous profits of auto insurance companies, you might feel you are being overcharged. But before you reach that conclusion, here are some facts you should know.

As a group, the auto insurance companies based in Ohio didn't make a penny of profit directly from money paid by their customers for insurance protection during the five years from 1964 through 1968. In fact, over the five-year period, the companies suffered a slight loss in daily operations.

These insurance companies did have net investment earnings of about 4½% during this five-year period — to be exact, $4.52 on every $100 they took in. All of the $4.52 net earnings came from investment income and increased market value of securities. It's what was left after deducting operating losses, Federal income taxes and policyholders' dividends.

That's not too bad. But it's not tremendous profit either. You could earn about as much from a savings account in a local bank.

And, of course, the increased market value of securities isn't actually cash on hand. It's only a paper figure. It could increase if the stock market goes up, or it could decrease if the stock market goes down — as it has for the past several months.

Anyway, what has happened to this $4.52 of earnings—or profits?

Well, about 29¢ of it went to pay dividends to stockholders of the stock companies. They're the people who put up the money—who risked their money—so the companies could get into the insurance business in the first place.

The rest of the earnings — or $4.23 out of $100 of income — was put into policyholders' surplus.

WHAT IS SURPLUS?

Surplus is an insurance company's policyholder protection fund. Surplus is money set aside — and required by law to be set aside — to assure payment of all legitimate claims and expenses. Surplus is used to pay claims and expenses when premium income falls short, as has been the case for Ohio insurance companies frequently in recent years.

The amount of surplus an insurance company has determines its capacity—that is, it determines the amount of business the company can safely handle. So insurance companies must continually strengthen their surplus funds as the demand for insurance coverage grows. And the number of cars on the highways is increasing at the rate of about 4% a year.

NOTE: All statistics shown are the combined figures of 18 companies that write about 90% of the auto insurance business handled by Ohio-based companies.

WHAT HAPPENS TO $100?

HERE'S WHERE IT COMES FROM—

$3,645,163,000	Earned Premiums from Policyholders	$ 94.33
144,644,000	Income from Investments	3.74
74,627,000	Increased Market Value of Securities	1.93
$3,864,434,000	Total Income from all Sources	$100.00

HERE'S WHERE IT GOES—

$2,523,179,000	Claims and Claims Adj. Expenses	$ 65.29
1,122,480,000	Underwriting Expenses	29.05
25,686,000	Policyholder Dividends	.66
17,249,000	Federal Income Tax	.45
1,195,000	Miscellaneous Expense	.03
$3,689,789,000		$ 95.48
11,317,000	Stockholder Dividends	.29
163,328,000	Earnings (added to policyholders' surplus)	4.23
$3,864,434,000		$100.00

These figures cover the five-year period 1964-68. The only part that can be considered profit is the payments to stockholders (29¢ out of $100) and the amount to policyholders' surplus, which is $4.23. This is retained for the protection of policyholders and to guarantee payment of claims.

CAN AUTO INSURANCE RATES BE REDUCED?

If auto insurance companies earned 4½% over the past five years, couldn't rates be kept where they are? Or better yet, couldn't rates be reduced a little?

Yes, theoretically. The companies could live on their investment earnings and their surplus. For a while.

For how long? Well, nobody knows, because nobody knows for sure how many accidents there will be next year, or the year after that. We do know that the trend is upward, and it costs a lot more to fix a wrecked car today than it used to.

But if we can't predict the future, we can say some things with certainty about the past. Let's take a look at the past few years:

Suppose — just suppose — that the rate increases of just the past three years had not been made. Suppose you had paid the same rates in 1968 that you paid in 1965.

If that had happened, Ohio based auto insurance companies would have lost more than $150 million in premium income — which would have put some of them out of business. Completely. And a lot of people wouldn't have auto insurance.

That's not theory. It's plain mathematical fact.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

A Bra Problem Solved

DEAR HELOISE: My daughter and I had trouble with our bras showing when we wore sleeveless dresses, but we came up with what we think is a very clever idea.

Heloise

We loop each end of the bra through its own armhold, causing a flat fold at the bottom of each armhole of the bra, narrowing the fabric under the arm pit.

Of course, we know some bras are cut low, but we seldom buy them.

MRS. E. V.

I'll kiss you. I was a "doubting Thomas," but you were right. And the amazing thing is that the fold lies so flat there isn't any extra bulk to show through.

It's letters from gals like you that really make my day.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When you go shopping and come home with a trunk load of sacks, many times you find the bags are ripped.

So I take my laundry basket or cart out to the car and pile it with my purchases.

This not only saves many trips, but shattered nerves when a bag breaks open and the contents spill out on the ground.

MRS. IVAN HOWARD

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I hit upon a wonderful discovery as I was knitting and finding it hard to keep track of the rows. I happened to think of my golfer's scorecaddie.

I just strapped it onto my wrist like a watch, and at the end of each row I could punch the button without even putting my knitting down.

MRS. L.D.H.

DEAR HELOISE: When freezing bread or buns, I always find frost inside the package when I remove them. How do you get rid of the frost or keep it from forming?

I have tried knocking it off after removing it from the wrapper, but it seems that the bread is not as moist. Is this moisture accumulated from the bread?

If so, how do I get the moisture back into the bread? Because we buy lots of bread and rolls at one time, I would appreciate anything you can do to help me.

MRS. S.A.B.

Honest to goodness . . . I don't know the answer to that one.

If anyone has a sneaking idea, do take time out to pick up that pencil and let us in on the secret. Just address your letters to me in care of this very paper you are reading now.

HELOISE

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I added another shelf in my pantry and used a tin of sauerkraut, creamed corn, apple juice and Irish Stew (all foods that my family are not very fond of) to hold it up. it worked beautifully and I had an extra shelf.

Later, I was rummaging in the pantry and my husband asked me what I was looking for I told him I thought I had a tin of red salmon on hand. And he said, "Are you sure you haven't got it holding up a shelf somewhere?"

MRS. F. WALTON.

DEAR FOLKS: If you are the kind of glue that comes in two tubes and must be mixed together before using, try this idea.

After removing them from the package, take a rubber band and put it around both tubes. This way you will never lose one of them when the time comes to use it again. They will always be together.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Dark motel rooms or strange bedrooms can upset small children.

So when we traveled, we always carried a night light along in the car.

Hancock's Board Okays Salaries

The Hancock County board of education Monday night approved a new teachers' salary scale in line with the West Virginia legislature's action calling for increases amounting to $1,000 per teacher.

The scale approved in Hancock includes:

4th class - certificate, from $5,075 with no experience to a maximum of $5.870; 3rd-class certificate, $5,375 to $6,559; 2nd-class certificate, $5,618 to $7,-150; A.B. degree, $7,133 to $10,-030 after 15 years experience; A.B. degree with 15 hours, $7,-391 to $10,288 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree, $7,649 to $10,742 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree with 15 hours, $7,908 to $11,000, after 15 years experience, and an A.M. with 30 hours, $8,167 to $11,632.

IN ORDER "to establish better communications and rapport," the board named two committees to meet from time to time with both the teachers and classified personnel.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of schools, will serve as an ex-officio members of each group.

Twin State Motors of Steubenville received the contract on a low bid of $4,440 per chassis (including power steering) and Superior Coach Sales of Powhatan Point received the contract for bodies (including trade-in allowance) on a low bid of $3,539.50 per body.

Other bids on the chassis, for a 66-passenger bus, were Snodgrass Sales and Service, Weirton, $4,720 and Cattrell Motor Co. of Weirton, $4,434.

Other bids on the bodies were Ateco Equipment Co. of Wheeling, $3,565; Myers Equipment Co. of Canfield, $3,658, and General Truck Sales Corp. of Charleston, $4,080.

Board members pointed out that an orthopedic bus was not recommended at present because there is a chance that it may be obtained through Special Education Title VI.

IN OTHER action, a low bid of $5,890 from the Trushel Construction Co. of Weirton was accepted for the erection of a concrete wall as part of a landscaping program at the Weirton Heights Eementary School.

The other bid was $6,550 from the James White Contruction Co. of Weirton.

The wall will be built and fill hauled to correct hilly and deeply - eroded terrain at the site.

In addition to the wall, the board will provide fencing. The city of Weirton has agreed to provide the fill and equipment to do the leveling board members said.

The Greco Plumbing and Heating Co. of Weirton, on its low bid of $940, was awarded a contract to install a new water line at Liberty School to correct a low - pressure problem.

The other bid was $1,050 from White Construction.

Permission was given for the Oak Glen High School band to participate in Memorial Day services May 30 sponsored by the Chester American Legion at Locust Hill Cemetery and for the Weir Junior High band to take part in the Strawberry Festival at Buckhannon June 6 and 7.

Officers Probe 2 Hit-Skip Cases

East Liverpool police are investigating two hit - skip traffic mishaps reported Monday afternoon and early today.

Linda K. Shields of 616 Broadview Circle told officers the left side and rear of her 1969 two-door sedan were damaged at 12:59 this morning as she drove off the Chester Bridge approach at E. 3RD St. Her auto was struck by an oncoming car which continued across the bridge without stopping, she said.

Mrs. Sarah C. Phillips of Canton St. told officers the rear bumper of her 1962 coupe was damaged by a hit-skip auto while parked on Broadway at Diamond Alley between 2:45 and 4:15 p.m. Monday.

Leslie Higgins Wins Honors In Twirling Field

More honors in baton twirling have been won by Leslie Anne Higgins, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Higgins of Glenmoor.

Miss Higgins, seventh-grader at St. Aloysius School, placed first in beginners' military strut in the Kibo and Cherry Hill contest at the Akron Armory Saturday.

The victory placed her in the advanced military strut category and made her eligible to compete last Sunday in the seventh annual William McKinley national baton Class "A" event at Leavitisburgh, where she placed third.

Miss Higgins recently received trophys for intermediate solo baton twirling during contests at Ashland, Ohio, where she finished fourth, and at Pleasant Hills, Pa., where she was second

Miss Higgins is a twirling student of Miss Jane Snow.

Accord Ends Toledo Grain Millers Strike

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A week-long strike that has halted grain shipments out of the Port of Toledo ended Monday with agreement between the Board of Trade and the Confederation of Grain Millers on a new 23-month contract.

Federal mediator Harry Webber announced agreement but did not dislose the details.

Teachers Salary Increase Bill Is Signed By Shafer

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill increasing teacher salary minimums to $6,000 is now law, but Gov. Shafer warned that money still must be found to pay for the measure.

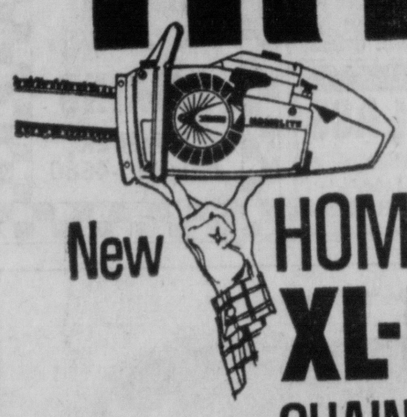

"I am not at all pleased that the General Assembly passed the bill before deciding where to get the money to finance the cost," Shafer told a special news conference Monday.

Shafer also warned local school boards that if the legislature fails to provide the revenue, they may be forced to raise local taxes.

The governor also announced at the news conference the signing of a bill retaining the state sales tax at 6 per cent.

That's how long it now takes for Ohio Bell Direct Distance Dialing equipment to connect you with Washington.

Which isn't long at all.

It used to take about 80 seconds to call through the operator, but now you can do it yourself in less than a third of the time.

This is just one of the many improvements Ohio Bell has made in telephone service since 1959. Service which keeps getting better and better.

Yet, since 1959, local telephone rates haven't gone up at all, and long distance rates have gone down several times.

This takes a lot of penny watching on our part. And a lot of the latest equipment. And some good business know-how. Keeping prices down kind of keeps us on our toes.

So now when you call Washington or Miami or Los Angeles in 25 seconds or less, it's even cheaper than in 1959.

Senators Win Fifth Straight As Bullpen Remains Tough

Tigers Fall 6-1

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whatever Ted Williams has been saying to his hitters, they have been repeating loudly over and over again the past five games, but how do you explain how Washington's relief pitchers have been sounding off?

Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, had hoped to impart some of his knowledge to the Senators' hitters and apparently has succeeded as they have spoken up by hammering 39 runs for five consecutive victories.

But Manager Williams must have some pretty good ideas, too, on how to get batters out because his bullpen has not allowed a run in the last 35 2-3 innings he has called on it.

The lessons worked well again Monday night as the Senators rolled up No. 5 by pasting Detroit 6-1 with Hank Allen driving in three runs and Dick Bosman posting four scoreless innings in relief of winner Camilo Pascual.

While the Senators were sounding off again, the Boston Red Sox finally were silenced when Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees stopped them on three hits for a 1-0 victory, the first time in 11 games the Sox haven't hit a homer.

Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0 as Jim Perry scattered seven hits in the only afternoon game in a schedule curtailed by rain. Baltimore's game at Cleveland and the California contest at Seattle were washed out at night.

The Senators, who had managed only 25 runs in 12 games before their victory streak, jumped on Earl Wilson for two runs in the first inning on Allen's run-scoring hit and a throwing error by Al Kaline. They waited until the eighth to break loose again when Allen singled in two more runs and hits by Ken McMullen and Paul Casanova brought home two more.

Meanwhile, Pascual had held the Tigers to Dick McAuliffe's lead-off homer in the first before leaving after five innings in the 43 degree weather. That's when Bosman took over and blanked Detroit the final four innings, giving him 8 2-3 shutout innings in the bullpen spree.

Dennis Higgins has nine scoreless innings of the streak that began April 19, Casey Cox 8 2-3, Dave Baldwin 4 1-3, Bob Humphreys and Jim Miles two each and Joe Coleman one.

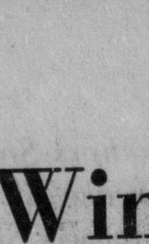

Twenty-three of those resounding 35 2-3 innings have come in the last five games, which have, lo and behold, lifted Washington's once shy violets of the American League over the .500 mark and ahead of the mighty Tigers into fourth place in the East Division, only 3½ games behind leading Baltimore.

The Red Sox had broken records with 26 homers in 10 consecutive games and 27 in 11 before running into Peterson, 3-2, who pitched the first complete game victory and the first shutout against them all season.

The run he needed came in tht sixth with one out when Bobby Murcer lined the third hit off rookie Ray Jarvis, 1-1, making his first major league start, and Roy White doubled him home. The victory boosted the Yankees into second place, ahead of Boston and 2½ lengths back of the Orioles.

Perry, starting only because rookie Tom Hall was delayed returning from military reserve duty in North Carolina, also coasted in after Killebrew's sacrifice fly in the first inning and Rich Reese's three-run homer in the fourth. The victory gave the Twins a one game lead over Oakland in the West Division.

Gary Carter of Fifth Ave., who appeared at East Liverpool this past season, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Duquesne.

Carter averaged 21 points a game and played for the City-Catholic stars in the Roundball Classic.

Don Wilson, 5-7 backcourt star from Penn Hills, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Pitt. Wilson averaged 20 points a game and played for the West Penn stars in the Classic.

GEORGE LYNN of Columbiana is playing lacrosse at Wittenberg. Lynn, a standout linebacker at Columbiana, played JV football at Wittenberg last fall.

ALONG WITH East Liverpool's Don Cochran, other area standout football players are expected to attend Youngstown U. as freshmen next season are Ken DiCross, Leetonia halfback, and Bob Ferranti, Boardman end.

DUQUESNE'S all-opponent basketball team for this past season was a pretty fair group. Pete Maravich of LSU and Spencer Haywood of Detroit, both All-Americans, were unanimous choices, while Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, Larry Cannon of LaSalle and Charlie Scott of North Carolina rounded out the first five.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Chuck Winters suffered a rib injury in the second period of the Pitt Blue-White football scrimmage Saturday. Up until that time, Winters, playing for the Blue, or second offensive team, had completed 3 of 5 passes with one interception.

THERE IS A rumor that the American Basketball Association Pipers, league champions while in Pittsburgh last year but a disappointment both artistically and financially in Minnesota this year, will return to Pittsburgh. The team is leaving Minnesota and was reported headed for New Jersey, but that move is apparently off, and the Pipers may return to the Civic Arena.

Orr, Esposito, Grant Get Awards

MONTREAL (AP) — Resplendent in an iridescent tan suit, Bobby Hull was serving as master of ceremonies at the National Hockey League's annual awards luncheon and was shooting barbs instead of pucks.

Glenn Hall and Jacques Plante had just stepped forward Monday to accept the Vezina Trophy which the St. Louis Blues' goalies had earned for the best defensive record in the league when Hull wheeled and fired on the assembled NHL general managers and coaches.

"How," said Hull, "you let two goalies like Glenn and Jacques land with the same club, I'll never know."

It was, obviously a mistake. Hull, more sympathetic with his Chicago bosses, played it straight when ex-teammate Phil Esposito stepped up to take the Hart Trophy as Most Valuable Player and Art Ross Trophy as scoring champ.

Two years ago the champion Black Hawks traded Esposito the sixth place Bruins. This season with Esposito scoring a record 126 points Chicago was sixth and Boston second.

Obviously, another mistake.

"You don't want to help the other guy," said Emile Francis, general manager of the New York Rangers, whose club finished third in the East Division.

"The clubs ahead of you don't want you to catch them and the ones behind you don't want you to get any better than you are it's tough to make a deal within your own division."

Nevertheless, Francis has been shopping, he's held repeated huddles with the Black Hawks. Dennis Hull is reportedly available. Chicago is after defense and goaltending help.

Montreal, currently concerned with knocking off St. Louis and grabbing a record 14th Stanley Cup, might be willing to do business after the playoffs are out of the way.

Defenseman J.C. Tremblay has fallen out of favor with the fans here and may be headed elsewhere.

"We'll play better," promised Scotty Bowman, coach of the Blues said, while the Blues and Canadiens prepared for game No. 2 in the best-of-7 final.

Montreal took the opener 3-1 on Sunday stretching its undefeated streak over two seasons to 15 games against the Blues.

Sure not to be mentioned in the trade talk were the individual trophy winners—Esposito; Boston's Bobby Orr, who won his second straight James Norris Trophy as the best defenseman; Minnesota's Danny Grant, Calder Trophy winner as rookie of the year; and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit, who took a Lady Byng Trophy for clean and effective play.

Abernathy's Relief Job Beats Phillies For Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Devlish old Leo Durocher figures Ted Abernathy's underhanded tricks are too good to be true.

"It's seldom you get out of jams like that," the Chicago skipper said Monday night after Abernathy, the ancient submariner of the Cubs' bullpen, escaped a bases-loaded, none-out bind in the 10th inning, saving a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia.

The 36-year-old relief specialist made Ron Santo's go-ahead single in the top of the 10th stand up by getting two Philadelphia pinch hitters to tap into force plays at the plate, then retiring a third on a roller to third baseman Santo.

"That was some kind of pitching," said Durocher, who admitted he'd expected the game would get away from Abernathy. "Three ground balls—that's what you have to have."

While Abernathy's underhand sinkerball was submerging the Phillies, a ball boy's ninth-inning blooper helped lift the Los Angeles Dodgers past San Diego 4-3.

Hank Aaron's 513th career homer paced Atlanta to a 12-1 romp over hapless Houston; St. Louis trimmed Pittsburgh 6-2 behind left-hander Steve Carlton and San Francisco edged Cincinnati 4-3 in other NL games. The New York Mets and Montreal Expos were idle.

Abernathy, a 36-year-old journeyman whose 84 appearances for the Cubs four years ago stands as a National League mark, rescued Ken Holtzman with one out and one on in the ninth, getting Rich Allen to ground into a double play.

But the reliever dug himself into a deeper hole in the 10th, when Deron Johnson's single, Don Money's safe bunt and catcher Randy Hundley's throwing error put runners on second and third with nobody out.

Abernathy walked Cookie Rojas intentionally, filling the bases, and then disposed of Johnny Briggs, Ron Stone and Rick Joseph.

Allen's third homer—the second hit off Holtzman—tied the game 1-1 in the seventh, but the Cubs regained the lead in the 10th on a two-base error by left fielder Rojas, a sacrifice and Santo's single.

The Dodgers trailed 3-2 in the ninth when Bill Russell delivered a pinch single. Parker, out of the starting line-up with a pulled muscle, then drilled a liner that dropped just inside the line in left. When the ball boy, thinking the ball was foul, picked it up, third base umpire Paul Pryor waved Russell home and awarded a triple to Parker.

Parker held third as Willie Davis grounded to second baseman Jose Aricia for the second out, but Boyer broke the tie by beating out a roller to short.

Nate Colbert's fourth homer in six games—a two-run blast in the fourth inning—had given the Padres a 3-1 lead. The Dodgers closed the gap in the eighth on successive two-out singles by Andy Kosco, Tom Haller and Bill Sudakis.

Mel Queen Released By Cincinnati

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The Cincinnati Reds, burdened by sundry pitching problems, released sore-armed Mel Queen outright Monday to their Indianapolis farm club and recalled John Noriega.

Queen, an outfielder converted into a pitcher, missed virtually all of 1968 with arm trouble and then turned up with a sore arm while warming up to start against San Diego Sunday.

In 1967, he posted a 14-8 record and a 2.76 earned run average. In his last appearance this year, he hurled six innings of two-hit ball.

"We are in the process of considering other moves and I think you know what they are," General Manager Robert Howsam said.

Howsam was referring to Gary Nolan and Gerry Arrigo who both are plagued by arm soreness. Arrigo, a 12-game winner last year, has yet to pitch this season.

'Personally, I don't feel there's that much wrong with my arm," Queen commented. I guess because I had arm trouble last year they feel they can't wait any longer for me."

Noriega, 25, had a 9-3 record last year with Asheville and pitched with Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League in 13 game with a 1-0 record this year. He joined the Reds Monday.

E. Liverpool, Beaver Local Postponed

The East Liverpool vs. Steubenville Central sectional baseball tournament game, slated for Steubenville's Pleasant Heights Field yesterday, was postponed due to rain and is set for today at the same site at 4 p.m.

Beaver Local was scheduled to play Struthers, a 3-2 winner over Salem in the Youngstown sectional, yesterday at Victory Field, but that game was likewise postponed and is scheduled to be played today.

Minnesota's Bill Brown Free Agent

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fullback Bill Brown of the Minnesota Vikings, called the "best fullback in the NFL" by his coach, apparently will become a professional football free agent Thursday.

Brown, who led the Central Division champion Vikings in rushing with 805 yards and touchdowns with 11 last season, played without a contract in 1968 and took a 10 per cent salary cut to play out his option.

As of Thursday, any professional team legally can negotiate a contract with the 5-foot-11, 230-pound Brown.

Sebring Blanks Lisbon Golfers 9-0

The loss was the fifth straight for the Blue Devils. Ed Brown paced the losers with a 48 and Bert French had a 44 to lead Sebring.

Courtney's Record Jump Leads Lisbon Track Win

Courtney, who had set the mark of 19-1 in an earlier meet at Greenford this season, did 20-2¼, breaking his old standard by more than a foot. His win in the event wrapped up the meet for the Blue Devils, now 4-3 in dual encounters, who led 62-56 going into the long jump, the final event.

Courtney also won the low hurdles. Bob Hammett doubled in the 100- and 220-yard dashes and Ken Pittenger in the shot and discus. Mike Kodrich won the mile. Courtney also ran on the winning 880 relay team, but Roger Bierdeman of the losers was high point man for the meet with 12.

Summary:

100 — Hammmett (L), Weaver)G), Pike (L) :11.6

Boston Slight Pick To Even Laker Series

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, tested pressure cooker playoff veterans, rule a slight favorite to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers and square their best-of-7 series for the National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The Celtics, bidding for their 11th NBA title in 13 years since player-Coach Bill Russell joined the team as a rookie, are determined to make their home court advantage stand up and even the series at two games apiece.

After blowing leads and dropping the first two games in Los Angeles, the Celtics, blew a 17-point lead in the third period, but bounced back to win 111-105 Sunday on the hot shooting of John Havlicek and Larry Siegfried.

No team has ever lost the first two games and come back to win the NBA championship. The Celtics, although opening up with a line-up of five players averaging 32 years of age, hope to come out running—and keep running against Wilt Chamberlain & Co.

"Running is the key to our game," says Havlicke, the Boston captain who has scored 114 points in three games. "We've got to keep it up."

The Lakers, who are seeking their first NBA title after winning the Western Division playoffs, had a 5-2 edge on Boston during the regular season. However, they are looking for a better defense to stop the Celtics.

"We've got to improve our defense," Los Angeles Coach Bill van Breda Kolff said. "That's the big thing. Other than that, after playing 100-plus games, there's no sense changing things around now."

Jerry West, the veteran sharp-shooter led the Lakers, Sunday with 24 points, compared with outputs of 53 and 41 in the first two games.

"We knew it wouldn't be a cakewalk here," West said in summing up the feelings of the Lakers. "We knew the Celtics wouldn't quit. They never have and never will. I'm looking forward to another tremendously tough game."

The fifth game is set for Thursday in Los Angeles.

Derby Trial May Produce More Entries

By BOB COOPER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The smallest, fastest and most competitive field in recent Kentucky Derby history may have swelled by one today while last year's Derby mixup continued in a swirl of judicial whirlpool.

Tommy Cosdon, trainer for Rae Jet, said a finish among the first four places in today's Derby Trial Stakes would earn the son of War Jeep a start in Saturday's $125,000-added classic.

"Sure those big stables may be afraid to try it, but we're just a bush league bunch. All we want is a shot," Cosdon, a former rock 'n roll singer said.

Eight horses were entered in the one-mile Trial, with only one or two expected to earn credentials to face the Big Four of this racing season in the 1¼-mile Derby.

Meantime, Peter Fuller confirmed he plans to continue his appeals of the purse redistribution that came after his Dancer's Image won last year's Derby, but later was accused of having an illegal medication in his system.

He said he felt his appeal of a Kentucky Racing Commission ruling on the Derby purse redistribution "will not weaken racing, but will strengthen it."

Dancer's Image was declared winner of the 1968 Derby, but the commission gave the $122,500 purse to second finishing Forward Pass. Fuller's lawyers have taken the case to the courts.

"This action wasn't appreciated in some of the higher echelons of racing," Fuller said, "but these trials and tribulations only sharpened the thrill of victory that we thought was well earned."

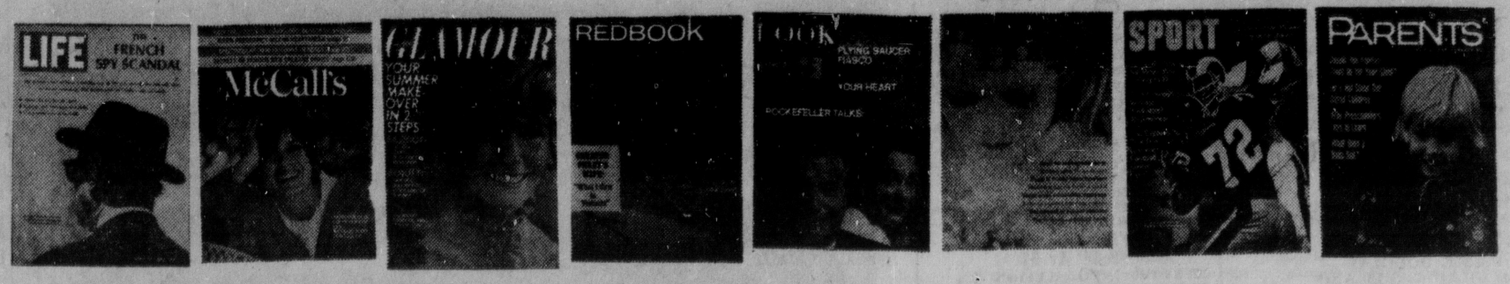

As for the Derby trial, a field headed by Cain Hoy Stable's entry of Ack Ack and Never Bow vied for a berth or two against what some trainers are calling the mightiest foursome assembled in racing in modern history.

Ready for the Derby—except for the final honing—are Frank McMahon's Majestic Prince, the Steven B. Wilson Estate's Top Knight, Claiborne Farm's Dike and Paul Mellon's Arts and Letters.

If Rae Jet goes in the Derby, the field probably will total eight or nine, still one of the smaller fields in the past haf cenury.

County Insurance Programs Updated By Commissioners

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners brought the county's insurance program up to date Monday afternoon in a meeting with agency representatives.

Present were Leland Helt of Greenamyer Agency in Leetonia, Paul Miller of Miller's Insurance in Wellsville and Cecil Rauch of the Rauch Agency in Lisbon.

The statement of values in 1968 was $1,960,700 for buildings and $479,950 for ceontents —a total of $2,400,650.

Monday, the agents recommended the valuations be increased by $133,000 and that the new Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children be added at $390,000. The latter figure does not include furnishings for the school. They will be added later.

With the additions, the new valuation of buildings and equipment is $2,963,650. The premium last year was $3,545.

The insurance is carried with the three agencies and the Easton Agency of East Liverpool.

W. W. Williams Co. of Cleveland received a contract Monday to furnisht the County Highway Department a front end loader with a fork for $29,450.

Commissioners said the bid was not the lowest received, but was accepted on the recommendation of County Engineer Bert A. Dawson, who said it met his requirements better than the others.

Other proposals were submitted by Allied Highway Equipment, Inc., North Canton, $28,231; Ohio Machinery, Cleveland, $34,555; Rish Equipment, Youngstown, $34,763; Marks Tractor Equipment, Youngstown, $33,604, and Patrick Equipment Co., Niles, which bid $24,366 including a trade-in. However, the county engineer had no equipment to trade.

King's Widow Will Support Charleston Demonstrations

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The widow of Martin Luther King Jr. was due in Charleston today to support demonstrations that have led to the arrest of more than 500 Negroes seeking union representation for striking hospital workers.

Mrs. Coretta King planned to address a rally tonight at a Negro church.

It was also thought she might visit the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, who has been in the county jail since Friday. He succeeded her assassinated husband as president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The demonstrations are in behalf of more than 400 Negro nonprofessional workers striking for higher pay and recognition of the Hospital and Nursing Home Employes Union, AFL-CIO, as their bargaining agent.

A walkout began March 20 at the state-supported Medical College Hospital and spread a week later to the Charleston County Hospital. The strikers are cooks, nurses aides, orderlies and licensed practical nurses.

Medical College Hospital says it is operating at normal capacity with replacement workers, volunteers, and nonstrikers. The county hospital says it is operating at half normal capacity, with admissions limited to about 60 per cent.

Monday afternoon, 128 persons were arrested, including 99 teen-agers when an attempt was made to march down a downtown street. Except for repeat offenders, the juveniles arrested in the demonstrations have been released in custody of their parents.

Children's Home Board Asks Bids

Bids are being accepted this week for a new barn and poultry house by the Hancock County Children's Home Board.

Sketches of the buildings were studied by the board at last week's meeting.

The board expressed thanks to the commissioners for their assistance with the bids and specifications.

The board approved a request by Harold Sweat, farm manager, for four more calves.

The meeting date has been changed to the last Friday of each month.

Jail Sentence Given Man In Morals Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today decreed a four-month term in County Jail for Vincent Diserio of 415 College St., who was convicted April 17 on a charge of indecent exposure and then sent to Woodside Receiving Hospital at Youngstown for a mental examination.

The court decreed the sentence after reading a report from the hospital which said the 52-yearpold World War II veteran does not suffer from any psychoneurotic disturbance, but has a "tendency to be an exhibitionist." Diserio "knows the difference between right and wrong and is responsible for his actions," the report said.

While Diserio is in jail, the court will seek to have him admitted to a Veterans Administration Hospital, Judge Chertoff said. He said he will seek the cooperation of the County Soldiers & Sailors Relief Commission in having the man admitted to a hospital.

Two women testified against Diserio in his hearing in mid-April. They said two small girls were in the vicinity at the time of the alleged incident.

Questioned by the court, Diserio said he spent four years in the armed forces in World War II. He said he had lived only briefly at the College St. address. He said he previously lived at Chester and in Weirton. He said he has been treated in VA hospitals on several occasions for "nervous disorders."

Two Injured At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Two Cannellton youths, both 19, were injured in a motorcycle mishap on E. Main St. this morning at 7:25, police reported.

William Nelson, the driver, and William Bratt were taken to the Beaver Falls Unit of United Hospitals. Nelson suffered a fractured shoulder and cuts on the body and Bratt cuts on the right knee and ankle.

Police said Nelson was headed west on E. Main St., cresting a hill. Nelson saw a car ahead, applied his brakes but the cycle slid, traveling 230 feet on wet pavement nd finally hitting a curb. Both were thrown off.

Reminder Issued For Payment Of Witholding Tax

City income taxes withheld from employes' wages for the first three months of 1969 must be remitted to the tax office at City Hall by employers by the close of business Wednesday, Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson reminded today.

Wilkinson pointed out that the payments cover withholding taxes for the first quarter, January through March. The ordinance allows a 30-day wait after the close of the quarter for the money to be turned over to the city.

The tax office closes at 4:30 p.m., but payments postmarked before midnight tomorrow will be accepted without penalty, Wilkinson said.

The law affects 550 employers. Compliance with the law has been good to date, but the bulk of the payments, representing $10,000 to $15,000, usually comes in the last two or three days before the deadline.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, April 29, the 119th day of 1969. There are 246 days left in the year.

On this date in 1945, American soldiers fighting in Germany liberated 32,000 Nazi victims at the concentration camp at Dachau.

In 1639, Newport, R.I., was founded.

In 1962, New Orleans fell to Union forces during the Civil War.

In 1894, a band of jobless men known as Jacob Coxey's Army swarmed into Washington to petition Congress for relief.

In 1946, 28 Japanese leaders were indicted in Tokyo as war criminals.

Ten years ago — The U.S. Senate confirmed Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Brazil after a bitter fight against her nomination, led by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore.

Five years ago — Princess Irene of Netherland and Prince Carlos Hugo of Bourbon-Parma, a pretencer to the Spanish throne, were married in Rome.

Junior Editors Quiz on HUNGER

QUESTION: Why does a person get hungry?

* * *

ANSWER: We all have to eat to get food into our bodies, where it can be used to create warmth and energy. It is the special job of the stomach to act as a storage area for food after it is swallowed and to pass it along in small amounts to the digestive system below. There it is chemically treated and distributed to the cells by the blood stream. The stomach is helped on with its work by contractions of its strong muscles, which serve to move the food along. Such contractions are called peristaltic waves. While the stomach contains food, the waves go on unnoticed. But the peristaltic waves are going on and getting Charlie's attention as sensations of hunger. These waves are extremely important. They have signalled Charlie that he must do something at once about the situation. Our picture shows what he does and how the situation is met, with his mother's help. Now he can forget his stomach — at least until the hunger waves get after him again, in from 3 to 5 hours.

(Ronnie Rains of Tyler, Texas, wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Pompidou Served Under Ex-President

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Georges Pompidou, who served Charles de Gaulle for six years as premier, today announced his candidacy for the presidency, his former chief abandoned Monday.

Pompidou, 57, said he was offering his country "the will to maintain a continuity and a necessary stability, and the hope of preparing the future."

Pompidou's announcement had been expected and he already is a favorite. He announced in January that he planned to run in the next presidential election, but it was assumed then it would not be held until De Gaulle's term expired in 1972.

"Pompidou for President" clubs are springing up around the country, and the former premier has won the endorsement of Social Affairs Minister Maurice Schumann, the UJP, a young Gaullist group, and an organization of left-wing Gaullists.

Alain Poher, whose presidency of the senate made him interim president of the nation, said in a brief radio-television speech he hoped the elections would take place with "scrupulous respect for the law."

Meeting parliamentary correspondents before the address, he said he was sorry Gen. De Gaulle had resigned, but, "gentlemen, France must go on.

Poher, who campaigned for the defeat of the reform bill on which De Gaulle staked his office, is being mentioned as a possible Centrist candidate to oppose Pompidou. However, the provisional president declined to discuss his plans.

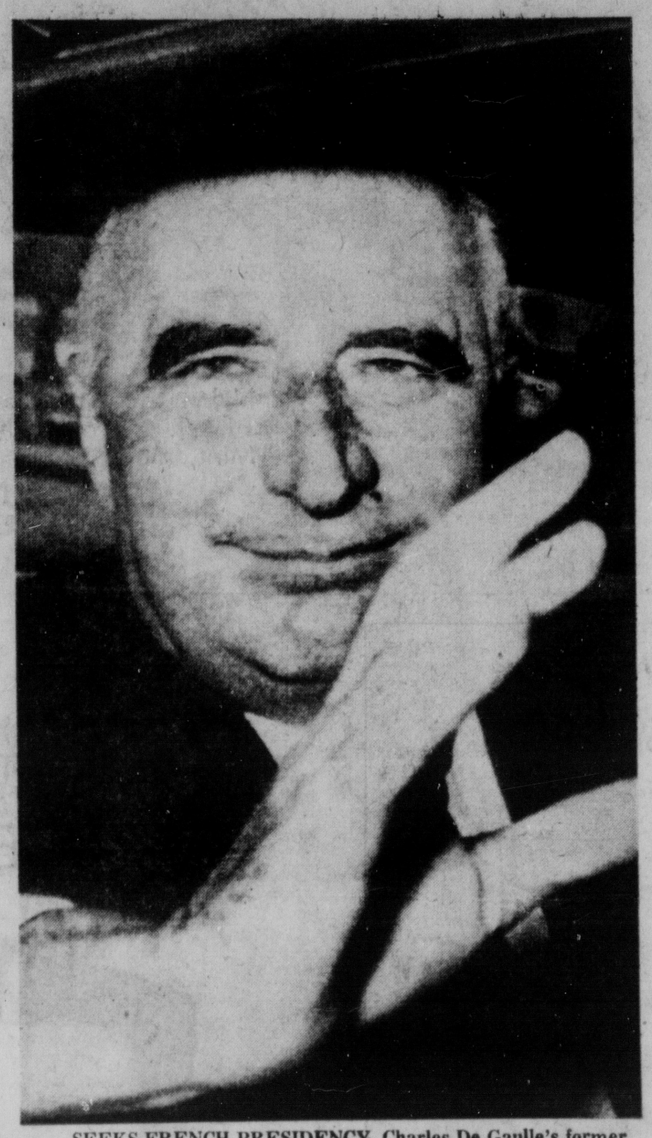

The election must be held between May 18 and June 2, within 20 to 35 days after De Gaulle's resignation. Most speculation settled on June 1 as the date for the first round. Poher said a date probably would be set next week.

Major parties and factions represented in the National Assembly were meeting to prepare for the election. The Socialist partys leadership was to meet this afternoon, and the Communists met to decide what to do about Socialist disinterest in forming a leftist coalition.

Veteran Socialist leader Guy Mollet indicated he was more interested in a union with Centrist forces and said he would support Poher if the interim

Pen Guards Strike; Troops Take Posts

Pay Dispute Stirs Move In Walkout

State Penitentiary, Reformatory At Mansfield Affected

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Guards struck at two state penal institutions today and were replaced where necessary by Ohio National Guardsmen.

Only 54 of 175 to 200 guards and supervisors reported at the state penitentiary in Columbus. A unit of 100 guardsmen augmented the guard force there.

About 80 guards reported at Mansfield Reformatory where 130 would normally be on duty. A unit of guardsmen from Akron was sent to Mansfield to stand by in case it was needed.

Adjt. Gen. S. T. DelCorso said no national guardsmen were sent into the Mansfield reformatory immediately.

Maury Koblentz, chief of the Ohio Division of Correction, said guard situations were normal at penal institutions at Lebanon, London, Marysville, Marion and Chillicothe.

Spokesmen for the striking guards at Ohio Penitentiary said they are seeking a $1,500 annual across-the-board pay raise. Koblentz said present wages start at $4,900 annually at all institutions except at the penitentiary where the starting salary is $5,240 annually.

He noted a bill pending in the legislature would increase the starting salaries at all institutions to $5,630, with a possible hazard pay benefit for guards at the penitentiary.

Guard spokesmen said the pay raise now under consideration in the legislature would only provide $150 more a year and "is inadequate." Guards also are asking for full hospitalization.

Koblentz indicated there would be no effort to implement Ohio's Ferguson Act which bars strikes be public employes.

"We expect to explore all legal activities," he said. "We will not make any threats but we do have to run the institutions."

Lt. Col. James Abraham commanded 110 armed guardsmen who marched through the penitentiary truck entrance at 6 a.m. He said 330 members of the 1st Battalion, 166th Infantry, were called up to rotate on eight hour shifts at the prison.

Lowell G. Ridenour, deputy warden at the penitentiary near downtown Columbus, said about half of the overnight force of 80 men volunteered to remain on duty.

"We accepted their offer," he added.

Ridenour said he had not de-

Drop 1,000 Tons Of Explosives

New B52 Bombing Attacks Aim At Reds Near Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has launched another B52 bombing campaign to harass North Vietnamese troops in the jungles north of Saigon, Military spokesmen reported today.

In a 24-hour period Monday and today, 36 Stratofortresses dropped more than 1,000 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese bases in the enemy's War Zones C and D. The strikes ranged from 71 miles northwest of Saigon to 55 miles northeast of the capital. Some were within 1½ miles of the Cambodian border.

Spokesmen said the bombing concentration in War Zone C is the heaviest of the war, with nearly 200 bombing raids flown along the Cambodian border in the past week.

The bulk of four North Vietnamese divisions is said to be concentrated in these two zones.

For the past four years, U.S. troops have battled enemy soldiers in the 2,000 uninhabited square miles of War Zone C, but all the fighting apparently has resolved nothing.

Two North Vietnamese divisions operating there have always been able to replace their losses from bases across the Cambodian border, using Zone C as a staging area for attacks into populated areas and allied bases to the southeast.

Sources said some captured documents mention another enemy offensive in the summer-autumn months, but intelligence officers have been unable to determine any firm trend. The aim of the stepped up B52 raids is to prevent the North Vietnamese troops from getting organized.

The Communists command's spring offensive, now in its 10th week, has tapered off sharply to about a dozen rocket and mortar attacks each night and only scattered ground assaults. Many of these occur in the 3rd Military Corps area, the most critical in South Vietnam because it includes the seat of government, Saigon.

Chief aim of these attacks is to inflict American casualties and undermine the influence of the Saigon government.

U.S. analysts feel the enemy is trying to make his presence felt in the 3rd Corps without any large commitment at present. The Communist command has placed one regiment from each of its four divisions in forward combat areas while holding the two other regiments from each division to the rear.

Tired Youths Steal Plane

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two youths apparently were tired of walking so they took a plan ride.

The 15-year-old boys drove a stolen car 25 miles to the Washington County Airport and flew off in a single-engine Piper Cherokee. They headed the aircraft towards Pittsburgh and buzzed several homes before returning to the airport.

Police arrested the pair in Pittsburgh Monday and charged them with stealing the plane. Police said the boys also took a car at the airport to return home.

Achievement Of 2 Objectives

Ship Pullout Off Korea Resulted In Goals Gained

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officers say quick achievement of two major objectives enabled President Nixon to order withdrawal of more than two-thirds of the 29-ship armada deployed off Korea only last week to protect U.S. reconnaissance flights.

One objective, military experts said, was resumption of Navy EC121 intelligence flights in the area without tempting North Korea with another easy, undefended target like the plane shot down April 15.

The other objective was to demonstrate to North Korean leaders that even though the United States is fighting a war in Vietnam it still can muster considerable military power elsewhere to defend American interests.

Whether military precautions or power politics was the bigger factor in Nixon's decision to rush a big fleet to Korea is a matter of speculation.

But the Pentagon's announcement Monday that 21 of the original 29 vessels in Task Force 71 had left the Korean area suggested the "show of force" aspect was uppermost in the President's mind.

"He made his point," one Navy admiral said. "Now we're gradually scaling down while still protecting our reconnaissance flights."

Bolt Causes Interruption In Phone Net

Long - distance telephone and teletype circuits linking the East Liverpool area to the north and west were disrupted late Monday afternoon when lightning struck an underground cable five miles west of Wellsville.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said most lines were repaired by 12:15 a.m. today, and all were back in service by 6:30 a. m.

The bolt hit the toll cable which lies three to four feet below ground level, Robert Sauer, commercial manager for the utility, said.

More than four feet of the cable were virtually welded together and the insulation burned off by the bolt. A farmer provided a tractor for repair crews to get across plowed fields to the site.

The interruption affected circuits to Canton, Youngstown, Salem and other communities. The Review's teletype link with Waterford Park race track and other points was out of order.

Sauer said telephone calls were placed on an emergency basis for some time, being routed through Youngstown.

Aims At Conglomerates

U.S. Challenges ITT's Merger Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration trust-busters have made their second move in two weeks to short circuit the trend toward conglomerate mergers by filing suit against the giant International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

ITT was challenged Monday in Chicago's U.S. District Court on acquisition three days earlier of Canteen Corp., a national food and vending company with 1967 revenue of $322 million.

The Justice Department complaint charged the acquisition might trigger other mergers, a tendency government antitrust chief Richard W. McLaren says he means to stop.

ITT, the country's 12th largest business, thus joined Ling-Temco-Vaught Inc., the 14th largest, as a defendant in separate government lawsuits to slow the rate of economic concentration.

Justice filed suit two weeks ago to stop LTV's purchase of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

In addition to futher entering economic power in a company whose 1967 sales were $3.6 billion, the government suit charged, the ITT-Canteen merger would strengthen ITT's power to favor its customers with purchases, a practice called reciprocity.

In New York, a spokesman for ITT denied that allegation: "Under each of the companies' own policies of long standing, neither company has in fact engaged in reciprocity. We are confident, therefore, that the courts will rule that this suit is baseless in fact and law."

More than a year ago, on Jan. 1, 1968, ITT canceled plans to merge with American Broadcasting Co. because of long delays caused by Justice Department claims that ITT international interests might influence ABC news operations.

The new suit said ITT has 109,000 employes in its plants

Phillis Gets 2-Year Contract

Native Of Salem Selected To Head County's Schools

LISBON — A native of Salem who began his career in education 11 years ago in southern Ohio will come home this summer as superintendent of the Columbiana County school system.

The county board of education Monday night gave a two-year contract to William L. Phillis, 31, of Minford RD 2 at $15,000 a year plus a car allowance of $600 annually. He will assume his new duties Aug. 1.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Phillis of Depot Rd., Salem RD 3, Phillis is superintendent of Minford Local Schools in Scioto County near Portsmouth.

He was graduated from Salem High School in 1954 and received his bachelor and master degrees in agricultural education from Ohio State University in 1958 and 1961, respectively. He is studying for his doctorate.

Gov. Rhodes Firm Against Life Charges

Welcomes Probe After Democrats' Investigation Call

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes is standing pat on his formal statement denying allegations by Life magazine that has manipulated public funds while in public office.

He has made it clear that he won't discuss the matter further.

And, as he said in his statement, he defies anyone to prove him guilty of any wrongdoing.

Asked Monday night to comment about a Democratic call for a federal investigation of the charges, Rhodes said:

O'Grady asked Nixon to direct the Justice Department, under the "personal direction of Atty. Gen. John Mitchell, to make a full and comprehensive investigation of the charges raised against Gov. Rhodes."

Saying it is not a partisan issue, O'Grady told Nixon the people of Ohio "have the right to the full and complete information surrounding these charges against their governor."

Meanwhile, another Democrat came to Rhodes' defense,

Latest Round In Fight Lost By Smoleski

The West Virginia Supreme Court at Charleston on Monday:

Refused to consider a petition in which Democrat Smoleski asked that the office be declared vacant and that Republican Ralph J. Patrick Jr. be ordered to give up the post.

Refused a hearing for 16 who sought reinstatement in the deputy sheriff jobs they held until a recount changed the November election outcome and installed Patrick as sheriff instead of Smoleski.

Both Smoleski and Patrick are from Weirton.

Caldwell Enters 'Not Guilty' Plea

William Caldwell, 25, of 506 Sugar St. pleaded not guilty Monday in Juvenile Court at Lisbon to an accusation he showed lewd pictures and obscene films to a 17-year-old boy.

Judge Louis Tobin set the preliminary hearing for 9 a.m. May 27. Caldwell put up a $1,000 appearance bond.

Using a warrant issued in Common Pleas Court, police searched the dwelling and confiscated a quantity of films, magazines and paperback books for use in the case against him.

Criminal Trials Slated To Begin Monday For 18

LISBON — Criminal trials will begin Monday in Common Pleas court for Grand Jury defendants who pleaded not guilty at arraignment Monday before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

In addition to the 10 previously named defendants who pleaded not guilty in 11 cases before the morning recess yesterday, eight others entered similar pleas before and after lunch. They were:

John Wasson, 30, Akron, two Jan. 25 burglaries at Jarrett's Feed Supply Co. and Art Hole's Auto Co., both in East Rochester.

Rachel J. Welker, Unity Rd., East Palestine RD 1, larceny by trick.

Robert E. Ammon, 25, East Palestine, burglary March 20 at Jim's Grill in East Palestine.

Eight defendants pleaded guilty as charged after the recess and asked the court for probation. Judge Buzzard ordered pre - sentence investigations and reports for:

Virgil Paul Hutchison, 44 McCormick Rd., Salineville RD 1, and David A. Cheuvront, 23, of 727 Avondale St., East Liverpool, both charged with burglary Feb. 28 at Denzil Conger property on McCormick Run Rd. in Madison Township.

The arraignment of two defendants was continued. Two others are currently serving sentences in state institutions. Three others named in secret indictments have not been located.

Bill To Cut Size Of Pa. Senate, House Offered

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to cut the size of the state Senate by 20 per cent and the House of Representatives by 40 per cent was introduced in the Senate Monday.

The proposal requires a state constitutional amendment, and must be approved by two sessions of the General Assembly and the voters before it could become effective.

The state Constitutional Convention had an opportunity to reduce the size of the legislature in 1968 but failed to do so.

Boy Bitten By Spider Still 'Very Critical'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Todd Quester, 5, remained in "very critical" condition this morning at Babies and Childrens Hospital, where he is being treated for a spider bite. Todd, of Amherst, was believed to have been bitten by a brown recluse spider while playing April 18.

His condition worsened over the weekend despite administration of a serum flown to Cleveland from Brazil last Thursday. He stopped breathing Saturday night and was put in a respirator. His parents and doctors keep a 24 - hour vigil at his bedside.

Lisbon Sets Pay Boost For Street Head, Crew

LISBON — Council Monday night granted pay raises to the street commissioner and street crew, effective Thursday.

Commissioner Thirl Flugan will receive $475, a $25-per a month increase, while crewmen will be paid $2.25 per hour, up 25 cents per hour.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike announced that the Rotary Club will clean the community swimming pool bathhouse this evening.

The Kiwanis Club will paint the buildings at the pool, he said, and the Key Club of David Anderson High School will paint the pool itself.

Council voted to authorize repairs and expenses to get the pool in condition for the summer season.

The North Beaver street Church of Christ was given permission to break the curbing for two new entrances to its parking lot. Donald I. Hill appeared on behalf of the congregation. He said the portions of the existing entrances no longer needed will be curbed and filled in when the new drives are made.

Hill said the changes are necessary because of a proposed addition to the church.

Under suspension of rules, Council passed on three readings an ordinance prohibiting peeling of tires and "cracking exhaust noises." The new law will become effective in 30 days and carries a penalty of a fine of $25 to $200 and up to three days in jail.

First reading was given an ordinance authorized two weeks ago to prohibit the extension of water and sewer lines beyond the village limits.

Council rejected a park commission suggestion that 25-cent-per-hour meter be installed at the tennis courts to help pay for their maintenance.

Councilman Willis Coleman said the courts are in poor condition and should be resurfaced. An attempt will be made to obtain financial help from service clubs and individuals.

Sampson Quits As Budget Chief

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislative leaders were mixed today in their reaction to the resignation of Budget Seretary Arthur F. Sampson in the midst of Gov. Shafer's battle for his record $2.52 billion budget.

Sampson, the chief architect of the record spending proopsal and its accompanying state personal income tax has resigned effective June 1 to take a federal post, Shafer announced Monday.

By that time, the governor said, the "battle of the budget" should be about over.

House Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, disagreed, however, and added, "It was inconsiderate of Mr. Sampson to have pulled up stakes and departed at this time."

Fineman said the budget "ballgame is just getting started" and indicated the loss of Shafer's "closest fiscal advisor" is bound to hurt."

Sampson will serve under General Services Administration director Robert Kunzig as purchasing executive at $36,000 a year. He earned $25,000 a year here, serving in the dual cabinet positions of budget secretary and secretary of administration.

New Phase Of Campus Revolt

The full impact of the introduction of arms into the ongoing campus is yet to be determined. yet to be determined.

What happened at Cornell University will find application at other troubled institutions across the land in one way or another.

A band of Negro students occupied a building and took with them a good-sized arsenal. Their demands for amnesty were met to end the armed occupation of the campus building.

THE INCIDENT brought varied reactions.

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, a Negro psychologist and member of the New York Board of Regents, said the outrageous action stimulates the same feelings of revulsion and sadness experienced when the Birmingham police used cattle prods on civil rights demonstrators a few years ago.

The psychologist said: "These spectacles must be viewed as serious symptoms of deep disturbances which threaten the foundation of our society."

Examining the current wave of campus disturbances, he was sharply critical of protesters —white and black—whose tactics interfered with the freedom and rights of others.

Dr. Clark warned against regarding campus confrontation promoters as "mere random revolutionaries seeking any cause or seeking disruption for its own sake."

HE DECLARED that violent tactics are wrong but cautioned that cause of unrest "must be remedied by rational processes if our democratic society is to survive."

Author Clinton Rossiter, who also is a Cornell professor, said a university "is a place of controlled controversy and rational discourse . . . there is nothing rational about a gun."

A measure to outlaw firearms on college campuses drew widespread support among New York legislators.

Sen. Edward J. Speno, a Republican and a Cornell alumnus, said: "The threat of armed coercion has no place in American education. Let us not condemn our youth, but let our youth know we condemn what they have done."

"I can understand how people from the ghettos, the Afros, are lost up here. Even I had trouble adjusting when I first got to Cornell. The academic environment, the white society—I'm sure a lot of them never came into contact with this before they got here. It's all right to demonstrate, but not to seize buildings or carry guns."

A MINORITY of militant Cornell faculty members vowed to assist the students in seizing another building if the demands to nullify disciplinary action against five Negro students were not met.

Professor Rossiter, who had previously resisted student coercion, said he had been "forced by conscience and by the rational persuasion of students and faculty" to change his mind.

A minority of senior professors dissented and called the faculty action "abject capitulation" and "surrender to intimidation."

The Cornell faculty bought some time but what else did it buy? How long will it be before another disgruntled group of students—white or black—fall back on the tactic of threatening the use of arms?

SEEING HOW WELL armed occupation worked at Cornell, how long will it take for radical activists to adopt the method on other campuses?

It is our fervent hope that college and university leaders throughout the country will be able to head off armed conflict but the Cornell precedents of capitulation and impunity will make the job difficult.

It will be a miracle if all our citadels of intellectualism avert the spilling of blood.

OEO Has A New Chief

Donald Rumsfeld, the Illinois congressman who criticized the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) and voted against funds for its operation, today is singing a different tune about government antipoverty programs.

The difference being, of course, that he has just been named by President Nixon as director of the program.

MR. RUMSFELD, a campaigner for Mr. Nixon, now sees the OEO as "a very special mechanism . . . an incubator for ideas" which is charged with producing "precise and responsive solutions to problems" of the poor.

Mr. Rumsfeld's statement, released after announcement of his appointment as successor to Sargent Shriver, who resigned a year ago, reflected that his thinking is in line with the administration.

He said: "We have learned in some instances that our efforts have been less successful than we had hoped. We have seen that programs must be improved—for the sake of those they serve."

Mr. Nixon recently pulled the Job Corps and Head Start project from the jurisdiction of the OEO which he sees as "an initiating agency" which devises new programs to help the poor and serving as an "incubator for these programs during their initial experimental phase."

Mr. Nixon praised Mr. Rumsfeld for giving up his "safe" congressional seat to assume an "immensely important" but "controversial" assignment.

The new director expressed the thought that the new job carries a formidable challenge and he expects it to be "exciting" and possibly "discouraging."

The 36-year-old Princeton graduate summed up his projection of what the job means in these words:

"We must make progress in the painstaking process of aiding individuals to fulfill their potential, the heartening and sometimes heartbreaking task of gaining new knowledge. The commitment is to find out what works and what does not; and more, it is to put that knowledge to work, to implement it."

Which side of the fence you are on surely does make a difference in the way you look at a problem doesn't it?

IT IS SOMETHING akin to listening to a discussion of poverty by a poor man and a wealthy man—it often sounds as if they are talking about different topics.

Mr. Rumsfeld's position is unique—for not many people get a chance to bring their ideas to bear directly in an area where they have been extremely critical.

He is to be wished well in his endeavor for the solving of poverty programs is vital to the nation.

The Camera Protest

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There is some question as to what role the communications media are playing in student unrest. Most of us like to think we're just reporting the events on college campuses, but there is a gnawing suspicion that our role may be one of participant rather than observer. Have you ever wondered what might happen if the press and TV didn't show up at a student demonstration?

Art Buchwald

"Who was supposed to alert the TV stations?"

"I DID ALERT THEM. I said we were going to lock ourselves in at noon. They said they were covering the flower show at the Coliseum and they didn't have any cameras available."

"That's a hell of a note. It's just like the bourgeois, racist, capitalistic TV media to ignore the revolution. What do we do now?"

"Let's take the building anyway."

"What good will it do? There are no press photographers or newspapermen here either."

"Where are they?"

"I called up the papers and told them what we were going to do and they said they were too busy to cover another student takeover of a building. They said it wasn't news any more."

"Did you tell them we were going to tar and feather the dean of the law school?"

"Yeah, and they said to send them a press release on it."

"WHERE'S THE REPORTER from the school newspaper?"

"The school newspaper said they didn't have any student to spare for our demonstration, but they'd get a fill-in later from one of us."

"Boy, this isn't much fun. Hey, here comes a guy with a camera. Up against the wall! Up against the wall!. The university is a fascist cesspool."

Who are you shooting the film for, man?"

"My cinema class. Would you mind doing that again?"

"Get our of here."

"Somebody's got to come. What about the radio stations?"

"No dice. They said we could call in on their telephone talk show if we wanted to, but they're not sending anyone over."

"There's got to be some law that the press has to cover a student riot."

"If I had known nobody was going to be here, I wouldn't have missed my lunch hour."

"I want to read my speech telling why we are taking over the law building."

"Who cares? You wrote it for the press. As long as they're not showing up, spare us."

"I say we should takeover the law building anyway."

"What good will it do? Nobody will know we did it."

"It could keep us in practice."

"Why are you combing your hair?"

"Well, if nobody's going to take my picture, I might as well go to English class."

"WAIT, DON'T GO. Let's make new demands to the administration."

"Such as?"

"It's the administration's responsibility to see that our student demonstrations are covered by the press and TV media, and if they don't provide adequate coverage the university has three hours to live."

"Let's hurry. I promised my parents I'd be on the Cronkite show tonight."

Let's Hope It's Loaded

VICTOR RIESEL

New Anti-Mafia Strategy

WASHINGTON — On the desk alongside my typewriter are photostats of stock certificates issued to the late Cosa Nostra czar, Vito Genovese, by prominent and influential waterfront company. Don Vito did not have to infiltrate that business. He walked right in the front door.

Victor Riesel

And when he went to a well-earned prison cell, he merely transferred the stock to his brother Mike. But the influence of the boss of bosses hardly was gossamer. He got those company shares on May 13, 1955 — and he was persona extremely grata in company circles until death parted them.

The ever-embattled New York Waterfront Commission did the best it could. Recently in a quixotic mood, commission counselors even presented this evidence of Mafia influence in the vast New York harbor to the New York and New Jersey legislatures. The "lawmakers" couldn't care less.

As for the U.S. attorneys in the area, there just has not been enough manpower to pursue common criminals and defrauders as well as tackle the seven or eight major and minor Cosa Nostra families in the region — and dig into all business operations of dons, cappo regimes and button men (troops).

NEITHER HAS THERE been continuity Fighting the Mafia has been cyclical. The federals would move in, the cameras would zero in, the newsmen would pack in. There'd be an indictment or two, moral and juridicial and everybody would go away.

But now something new has been added — it seems. President Nixon's decision to set up 20 permanent federal anticrime field offices will supply that continuity, end the cycles, establish the struggle against organized crime and racketeering as a permanent institution.

If successful, these first 20 federal metropolitan antiracketeering centers will wipe out the Mafia as we have known it since the days it ran whiskey and murdered its way into the labor movement.

Once the field offices are operative. La Cosa Nostra (LCN, according to the FBI's code book; chiefs no longer will be able to winter it at cool watering places while the heat is on.

Despite undulating waves of investigations at five-year intervals since Tom Dewey went after Murder, Inc. and its blood brothers in the '30s, the crime syndicates are more powerful, wealthier and vastly more politically influential than ever before.

THIS ISN'T CYNICISM. This is fact. Just watch some congressmen line up on the appropriations and legislation requested by the President. They'll give him a hard time, though he has said — with low-voiced understatement:

"Not a single one of the 24 Cosa Nostra families has been destroyed. They are more firmly entrenched and more secure than ever before."

Mr. Nixon, on the advice of John Mitchell's Justice Department, plans to expand the antiracketeering strike force technique now used in eight cities. These will be turned into permanent units. Then, in coming months, four more headquarters will be opened — Kansas City, and New Orleans are expected to be the first. The other 12 headquarters will spread eastward from the West Coast, according to one Justice Dept. source. Eventually there will be units in such widely separated cities as Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Tampa.

They'll be well staffed compared with the current strike forces, made up of five attorneys and seven or eight investigators. At first they'll concentrate on the metropolitan center in which they set up shop. Some will move swiftly — as is the Newark strike force, now about to ask a grand jury for several indictments. Some will take a year, for without continuity, without any files, without many contacts, they will have to start clean.

THEN, IN A few years, as they form a grid across country, they'll be turned into regional offices. They'll fan out of the big cities and across each state. They'll funnel the information back to the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section, which may soon be upgraded to a full Justice Dept. division. Facts will be computerized. With an additional 415 FBI agents in the field, bringing the total to 6,800 (out of an FBI staff of 17,000), the computer's memory box hardly will be vacuous.

Furthermore, there will be no wasteful competition between U.S. attorneys or between the "locals" and the federals. There will be no battling for witnesses or cases. There will be memoranda of agreement on cooperation, jurisdiction, manpower and money. And about time, too.

There will be the pooling, for example, of wiretap information. In the past this has linked the mob with at least two members of the Congress — and it should be remembered that the authorities tap racketeers, not congressmen. It was the tap on the underworld which turned up the voices of those two members.

It will be more difficult for the underworld to communicate with their political protectors. It will be tougher to hold crime summit sessions, even out on a yacht, as the mob has done recently.

The 20 field offices will mean constant pressure, building of files, familiarity with the Cosa-Nostra operations on a street by street basis, business by business, local by local basis.

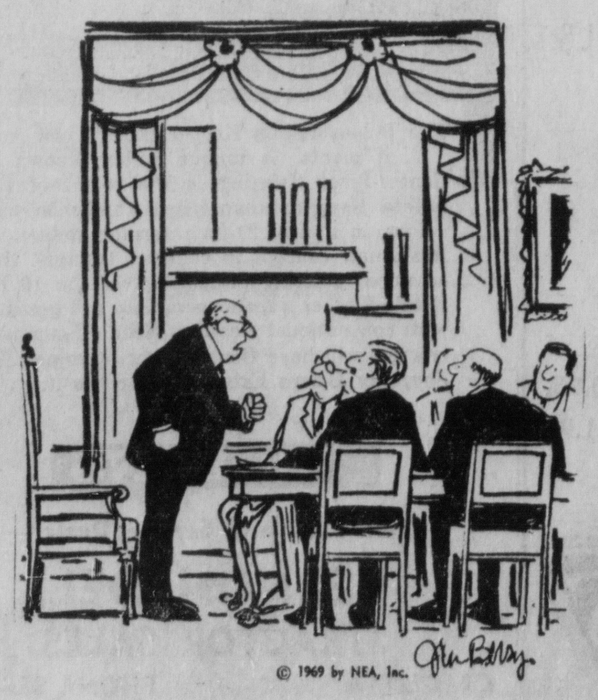

That is, if Congress comes up with the money — $61 million. It may not.

Odd Facts

The number of husbands who desert their homes, according to one recent estimate, is just about 14 times the number of wives who walk out on their families.

Government's Structure Hit

WASHINGTON — The big story in the national capital is not how President Nixon has fared in his first 100 days in office. It is rather, the tragic failure of that part of the American system of government which permits a majority from one political party to control both houses of Congress while a chief executive is elected from another party.

This means standstill government as the opposition party members not only snipe at the administration on legislative proposals for domestic affairs but actually interfere with the conduct of foreign affairs by emphasizing to the world a mood of dissension if not irresponsibility. A pertinent question is: "What has Congress done in the last 100 days?"

THE AMERICAN SYSTEM is weak because the people do not have to vote for a party but may select members of Congress from one party and the president from the opposition party.

With all the suggestions for constitutional amendments being made in Congress nowadays — mostly about direct or popular election of presidents — not a single proposal has been offered which would give the American people a responsible system of government. This could be readily attained if the president and his cabinet were always an integral part of a majority organization in the Senate and House of Representatives. An analogous combination of leaders and prospective cabinet officers could be formed by the minority party.

The United States today is confronted with obstacles within Congress itself which impair the operation of a successful foreign policy. Thus, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a Democrat, acts and speaks on international questions as if he thought he had the powers of a president or a secretary of state. Again and again in the past a Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has done the same thing. A Republican senator in that post in 1919 blocked American entrance into the League of Nations which had been advocated by a Democratic president at the Paris peace conference after the close of World War I.

The amount of damage done to both national and international programs by the members of the opposition party in Congress in the last 100 days is considerable, especially in failing to support the government during maritime.

Long delays in enacting major policies of a domestic nature may be expected. In the end, the administration will find it necessary to modify its proposals considerably in order to win the necessary majority in both houses.

Whether it's a tax-reform bill, or a system for distributing public funds by an effective method of sharing with the states, or the enactment of a stern policy to deal with the riots and disturbances — plainly being instigated by groups in our midst with some foreign influence behind them, and hence subject to federal surveillance and prosecution — there is little progress being made on the legislative side.

Although the Democratic party has a majority in both houses of Congress, it has not presented in the last 100 days a program of its own in either house. Yet the Democrats control the chairmanships of all committees in the Senate and the House.

WHAT IS PRIMARILY lacking is a system of party discipline. President Johnson had a majority of his party in both houses for the last six years, but he, too, was faced with revolts. While a coalition of certain Republicans with Democrats produced for him a majority vote on some important pieces of legislation, this merely accentuated the lack of a system of party responsibility.

The American people in the 1970 election will vote to fill all the seats in the House of Representatives but only one third of the Senate. This is a lop-sided arrangement which makes it possible for the Senate to become Republican next time while the house stays Democratic. The people would be better served if elections were held every four years in which the entire membership of both houses had to go before the people along with the presidential nominees. This would at least be a start toward responsible government.

Science Post Turned Down

Nixon Reverses Position But Long Rejects Offer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, in a major reversal of position, has offered an important administration appointment to a man originally vetoed by the White House for opposing the Safeguard missile defense system

But the man involved, scientist Franklin A. Long, says no thanks.

Following criticism from congressmen and scientists for letting politics override qualifications in selecting the new director of the National Science Foundation, Nixon Monday said the job would be picked on merit only.

The President also revealed to the members of the National Science Board and the National Academy of Sciences that after first approving Long's rejection he had asked the Cornell University vice president to take the job.

But presidential science adviser Lee A. DuBridge, who originally recommended Long for the job, said Monday Long was no longer interested because he found "the political situation distasteful to him and he preferred not to have it reopened."

After DuBridge recommended Long several weeks ago, White House staff members protested that he had publicly opposed Nixon's missile defense proposals and should not get an administration appointment.

Nixon backed up his staff at his April 18 news conference, confirming that Long's opposition to the proposed Safeguard project "would be misunderstood."

Asked why the President changed his mind, DuBridge said Nixon had "looked at it more carefully."

In his meeting with the scientists, Nixon asked for suggestions for the NSF spot and promised that he would pick the new director from one of the names submitted, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Nixon also said he would support the independence of the foundation and assured them of his interest in science and in international scientific cooperation, Ziegler added.

DuBridge was asked how the fresh Nixon stance would affect the scientific community. "I'm sure it will be tremendously pleased and encouraged," he answered.

Ziegler refused to discuss the politican implications of Nixon's position change, which could be considerable.

Two important Republican congressional figures—Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. James G. Fulton of Pennsylvania—had opposed Long's appointment and took credit for his original rejection.

4 Escapees Returned To Elkins Jail

West Virginia state police said the four, who escaped Sunday night while one held a knife to the jailer's wife's throat, were apprehended Monday. They are being held on federal charges relating to interstate transportation of stolen automobiles.

Police said Fred L. Bennett, 19, of Clarksburg was picked up at a friend's house in Clarksburg and John P. Emerson, 24, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, was captured on a rural Randolph County road at Lower Cheat Mountain.

Robert Knight, 21, of Newell and John Pierce, 33, of Burnside, Pa., were apprehended in the same area where Emerson was caught.

Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Spec. 5 David M. Lacey of Mantua, Ohio, has been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

Magnesium is unique in that it weighs more after it has been burned, its ashes weighing more than the metal itself.

Tough To Keep Politics Out Of ABM, Critic Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leading Republican critic of President Nixon's Safeguard program says it is becoming harder and harder to keep politics out of the dispute over the missile defense system.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky made his observation in advance of today's appearance by Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard on behalf of the Safeguard before a closed session of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Cooper said he deplores the injection of politics into the coming Senate battle over whether to authorize a Safeguard go ahead.

"I'm afraid you can't keep politics out of it," Cooper said in an interview.

The Kentucky senator said he had been brought under no pressure by the Republican administration because he is not supporting the President.

"They couldn't have been nicer to me," he commented.

Previously Sen. Milton R. Young, secretary of the Senate Republican Conference, had complained about what he called partisan political attacks against him in North Dakota on the Safeguard issue.

In a statement to his constituents, Young also denied allegations that he is supporting the system because of plans to spend $150 million in North Dakota for one of the two Safeguard sites in Nixon's modified program.

Packard was invited to make the administration's case before the Republican policy group by Chairman Gordon Allott, a Safeguard backer. The Colorado senator left it up to Cooper and other opponents to name an opposition speaker for a similar session next week.

Youth Is Sentenced In County Burglaries

LISBON — Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court sentenced William J. Mort, 20, of Youngstown to the Ohio State Reformatory Monday for two burglaries.

The court terminated the defendant's probation granted Jan. 24, 1968, after finding he violated two conditions of his release on good behavior.

Mort had pleaded guilty to break-ins March 22, 1967, at Jan's Restaurant on route 7 and Carter's Market, New Waterford RD 1.

Judge Sharp sentenced Mort to 1 to 15 years on each count, but said the sentences may be served at the same time.

Be Careful, Your Vote on the School Levies Could Cost the City School System $1,353,628 in State Funds.

(53.7% of the total operating Budget.)

It's up to you. If the 12-Mill Renewal Levies fail to pass, the school system will lose $1,353,628 in state funds. Over half the operating budget. And this is money already paid out of your pocket, which will not be returned by the state unless the levies are renewed.

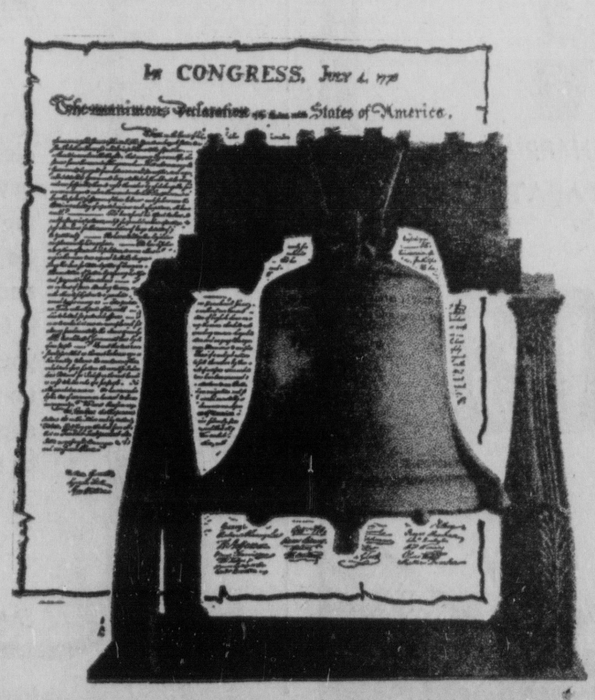

The Renewal Levies do not represent an increase in taxes.

The question you will vote on May 6, is whether or not to continue the school levies as they stand now.

By renewing this millage we will continue to receive State Foundotion Funds. We cannot operate without the 12 mills renewal and the State Foundation Funds, which together total almost three-fourts of our operating budget. The loss of these levies would put us in a very precarious position.

Look at it this way:

If you had the one and only deciding vote, could you vote against our youth?

Edison Local Sets Ballot On 2 Buildings, Repairs

Construction of two new elementary schools in Edison Local School district along with remodeling, repairing and updating other facilities are proposed in a $4,246,000 bond issue on which the voters will ballot May 6.

Serious overcrowding and lack of proper facilities have been cited by Supt. C. P. Henderson as problems of the recently - consolidated district which should be solved.

"All schools, with one exception, are overcrowded at the present time which makes it impossible to have the proper kind of an educational program which is so necessary today," he said.

"Several buildings are in need of repair, some were never entirely completed, others need new heating and ventilating systems, as present systems are worn out, while the lighting in some is very inadquate. Repairs of less major importance are needed in many buildings.

"The program was recommended by the school's architect and a representative of an engineering and planning firm after a very close examination and inspection of present buildings.

"EDISON LOCAL is a fast-growing district. The school population has increased by 1,200 pupils within the last 10 years. The greatest increase has been within the last three years, which has been due in part to people moving from the urban area to the rural areas. This movement has been due partially to the installation of water lines, and with the further extension of proposed water lines the school population will increase more than ever.

"At present there are 265 students in classrooms other than regular school classrooms. Students are housed in four church buildings and some are in portable buildings. This situation will become more acute with the start of another school year, and will continue to do so, until more buildings are provided. It is impossible to carry on a proper educational program under such conditions.

"The enrollment in each high school next year will be increased by approximately 40 to 50 students, which is going to create further problems in an already critical situation.

"There is not one empty classroom in the school district. At the present time there is no room for special education classes. The county psychologist has determined there are 180 pupils in the district that should be in special education classes. These are not mentally rtarded children, but they are classified as slow learners.

"AT PRESENT there is no room or facilities for music, art or adequate library facilities. In some buildings library books and reference materials are kept in storage rooms and issued to children, who must either take them home or to their classroom to be used, which is a very unsatisfactory situation.

"The Board of Education proposes, in addition to the remodeling and repairing program, to construct two new elementary schools known as "middle schools". These new schools would provide for grades 5 to 8. There are enough students in the district at the present time to justify the construction of the new buildings if properly distributed. Classrooms would not be overcrowded and all students would be housed in regular school buildings, and all students would again feel they are a part of a school. All present buildings would continue to be used as they are at present. This type of organization (middle schools) is in accordance with modern day trends in education and in line with the thinking of our best educators and the results of recent research.

"The buildings would be so designed as to stress flexibility, programmed instruction, flexible scheduling, team teaching and other innovations common to a progressive school today.

"Construction of these buildings will make it possible to improve, broaden and strengthen the curriculum through all grades. In the middle grades the following would be added: elementary guidance, music, art, physical education, homeeconomics, industrial arts, typing, foreign language (equal to one year of high school by the time a student reaches high school) special education at all levels.

"ONE NEW building would be located somewhere in the Knoxville - Pleasant Hill area, and the other one in the East Springfield-Richmond area.

Extensive repairs and remodeling would be made to the Knoxville, Pleasant Hill and Richmond elementary schools. New sewage systems must be installed at two of the schools. Remodeling of the music, home economics departments and library at Jefferson Union High School. A new automatic heating system would replace the worn-out coal-fired system at East Springfield elementary school.

"If there is a delay in the passage of this bond issue, the cost will be higher. Completion of this program will fulfill the reason for consolidation of the original school districts that make up the Edison Local School District," Henderson concluded.

Track And Field Meet Set For Hancock Youngsters

The first annual track and field meet for fourth, fifth and sixth-grade youngsters in Hancock County schools will be held Saturday, May 17, at the Weir High stadium in Weirton, beginning at 10 a.m.

THE EVENTS will include dashes, broad jump, high jump, softball throw and relays.

The youngsters will be placed in four classifications for the competition according to grade, age, height and weight, John Kuzio, supervisor of the program, said.

Preliminaries are to be conducted at each school, with all first-place winners, boys and girls, from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades competing in the finals at the Weir High stadium.

Kuzio said he expects some 250 to 350 boys and girls to participate.

Each youngster will receive a certificate for taking part and badges or ribbons will be given the first five places in each event.

THE RULES and regulations follow:

1.—Each student will be placed in one of four classifications according to grade of school, age, height and weight.

2.—Each student is to participate in at least one event and no more than three events, which does not include the relay.

3.—Each school will be allowed to enter one girls' and one boys' relay team.

4.—Both a boy and girl winner will be selected in each event.

5.—All 25- and 50-yard dashes will be timed.

6.—Each youngster will be given two trials, with the best being recorded in the following events: softball throw, standing broad jump and running broad jump.

"We are hopeful that many parents will turn out to watch their youngster compete in this program. We are also hopeful that they will volunteer to help in running the program during the day," Kuzio said.

Those desiring to volunteer are to contact Kuzio at the Pupil's Servies Office in Weirton.

Driver Escapes Injury In Plunge

A Wellsville driver escaped injury early this morning when his car plunged down a steep embankment on Route 267, just south of Route 30.

The car was only slightly damaged, the patrol said. The accident occurred at 5:35.

City Will Push Requests For Project Help

A delegation of city, county and state officials will confer at New Philadelphia Friday with Ohio Highway Department representatives to push East Liverpool's request for state funds with which to undertake three major local highway projects.

East Liverpool started action in mid - April to obtain a share of the funds from a statewide bond issue approved by voters last November to help with improvement of Maine Blvd. and Shadyside Ave. and the city's share of the cost of extending the Freeway east into East End.

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey will represent the city government in the meeting at 10 Friday morning. Commissioners James Boyd, Charles Gause and Max Gard, and possibly Engineer Bert A. Dawson Jr., will speak for the county.

State Rep. Clarence (Dutch) Wetzel of near Lisbon and State Sen. Douglass Applegate of Steubenville also are expected to attend. Willshaw said the city is seeking to arrange the appearance of a representative of the Liverpool Township trsutees, as the proposed Shadyside Ave. improvement would affect both the city and the township.

The mayor and director and Engineer George Bloomgren conferred at Columbus April 17-18 with Wetzel and Applegate, discussing the possibility of obtaining state bond issue funds to assist with the three projects.

No One Injured In Area Mishaps

No one was injured in two automobile mishaps investigated by Wellsville police.

Police Chief John Hephner reported a two-car collision resulted when Leyman Pearson of 1321 Main St. swerved to avoid hitting a parked vehicle, and his car struck an auto operated by Iris L. Carpenter of Irondale RD 1.

A car operated by Timothy L. Madison of Salineville hit a parked auto on 15th St. The parked vehicle was owned by Charles Wright of 210 15th St. and was in front of his home.

Bomb-By-Mail Trial Due For Jury Today

CLEVELAND Ohio, (AP) — The bomb-by-mail trial of Orville E. Stifel II, a former Cincinnati laboratory technician, was expected to reach the jury in U.S. District Court late today.

Taking the stand in his own defense Monday, Stifel, 22, denied that he mailed the bomb that killed Daniel J. Ronec, 23, last July 8.

ANN LANDERS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I did a slow burn when that guy wrote to complain that his wife acts like she's doing him a favor once every two weeks. A timetable like that would have been heaven to me.

I married Aggie when I was 26. She was 22. What I thought was high principles turned out to be a pathological hatred for sex. From the night we married until I left her, 17 years later, Aggie wore underwear and ankle sox under her nightgown.

She also had this thing about lubricating her skin so it wouldn't wrinkle. At bedtime she put so much grease on, she looked like she was fixing to swim the English Channel.

And then of course there were the headaches and backaches and colds. She managed to get six colds a year, each one lasting a month.

I'm now married to a wonderful gal who knows that sex can be a bond that ties a man and woman together. My only mistake was waiting 17 years to lead a normal life. You print lots of letters from women who think their husbands are sex manics. Please print this one and help even the score. — ALIVE AND WELL IN DEYATUR.

Dear Alive: The score never will be even, but your letter helps balance it a bit. Thanks for writing.

The I.D. D.T.'s

Dear Ann: Why do people get belligerent and act insulted when they want to cash a check and are asked to produce identification? Don't they realize employes have to keep records? It isn't enough that a person has an honest face.

I work in a large store and I try to be as polite and considerate to our customers as possible. Yesterday when I asked for identification, she snapped, "Are you trying to say I'm a swindler"?

A half hour later a man threw his credit cards and driver's license in my face and yelled, "Some fresh punks just have to show their authority!"

I'm sure I'm not the only sales person who has this problem, so please print my letter. I'd like to tape it to the cash register and I'll guarantee you, so will hundreds of other employes. — ABUSED.

Dear Ab: Here's your letter and I hope it helps promote better understanding on the part of the customers.

Language Barrier

Dear Ann: Our 19-year-old daughter is a sophomore at a well known school in the East. Judy always has been considered one of the better brought up young ladies in this town. But her language since she has been away at school is appalling.

She uses some very dirty words in ordinary everyday conversation. Her father, half kidding, said, "When you were younger I used to wash your mouth out with soap and I might have to do it again."

Judy's answer was, "I tell it like it is. Words are only sounds. Get with it."

What should a parent say in response? — SPEECHLESS.

Dear Speech: A parent should say, "If you want to stay in this house you'd better use decent language to tell it like it is. We don't go for gutter talk around here and YOU'D better get with it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her incare of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Thief Obtains $30 In Wallet

A Substation area woman told police her wallet containing $30 to $40 was stolen Monday night in the New York Restaurant in the Diamond.

Mrs. Betty Grimm of Dome St. told officers she placed the wallet beside the telephone while making a call. Returning to a booth to get her coat, she remembered she did not have her wallet, but when she went to retrieve it, the wallet was gone, she said.

The incident was timed about 6:10. The money was mostly in change. The wallet also contained various keys, she said.

Two vandalism cases also were reported to police Monday.

Archie Pinkerton of 1066 Huston Ave. told officers yesterday afternoon a "director element" which is part of the antenna for his citizens band radio was damaged by a bullet within the preceding four days.

David Huffman of 1023 Edgewood Ave. reported the power radio antenna of his auto was bent and the right rear fender was scratched while the vehicle was parked near his home between 11 p. m. Saturday and 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Man Fined And Jailed In Hearing At Lisbon

LISBON — Roy Jeffery of 251 W. Washington St. chose an immediate hearing before Mayor Clyde B. Pike Monday night after being taken into custody during a domestic disturbance at home.

He pleaded guilty to an assault and battery complaint filed by his wife Ardith and to a charge of fighting with Patrolman Edward C. Dray, who placed him under arrest.

Mayor Pike fined Jeffery $100 and costs and sentenced him to three days in jail on the first count and $50 and costs on the second.

Then the mayor imposed a $50 disorderly conduct fine suspended Jan. 1 on condition the defendant be of good behavior.

Probe Of 'Loopholes' In Pa. Business Tax Laws Urged

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House had under consideration today a pair of resolutions proposing legislative investigations of so-called "loopholes" in Pennsylvania business tax laws.

One proposal, sponsored by Rep. John Hope Anderson, R-York, would authorize a joint investigation by the House and Senate and would require approval by both chambers.

The other, offered by Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, would enable the House to conduct the probe on its own in the event the Senate failed to act on the Anderson resolution.

Fineman said he would prefer a joint inquiry in a spirit of bipartisanship, noting that the Senate is controlled by Republicans and the House by Democrats.

"I don't want this investigation to get bogged down in politics," the House speaker said. Fineman added, however, that the House would proceed on its own, if necessary.

more more more

The House dominated action on the General Assembly Monday with the passage of several bills, including a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

Action was light in the Senate, but four senators from the Republican side introduced an amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

The key measure approved by the House would require the state to represent the consumer's interests at official proceedings such as utility and insurance rate hearings.

The vote was 103-92 with all the opposition coming from the GOP. Republicans maintained that consumer interests already were served by the state agencies that regulate rates.

Democrats argued otherwise and convinced two Republicans to vote in the affirmative. The two were Reps. Marvin E. Miller, Lancaster, and Francis Worley, Adams.

The House voted 149-46 in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would enable a verdict in a civil trial to be rendered by 10 of 12 jurors.

President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming, R-Allegheny, was among the four senators who proposed the amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

Under the proposal, the Senate would be cut from 50 to 40 members and the House from 203 to 120. Similar legislation in the past has failed.

Former Resident To Have Role In California Opera

Mrs. Jeanne Henderson Withroe of Ontario, Calif., formerly of Glenmoor, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Henderson of Sub Station Rd., will appear in the opera "Carmen" Saturday at the Gardiner Spring Auditorium in Ontario. She will portray "Micaela."

Mrs. Withroe studied voice and was active as a soloist in various church and community affairs in East Liverpool and Wellsville. She has sung major roles in oratorios as well as trios and duets.

The Withroes, with their daughter and son, moved to California in 1964.

The 1970 U. S. census will be taken principally by mail. In March of next year, letter carriers will deliver census forms to all households. In major metropolitan areas, with 60 per cent of the total population, households will be asked to fill out and return these forms by mail on April 1. Census workers will visit only households failing to return forms or failing to answer all questions. Elsewhere in the nation, census workers will visit every household to pick up the questionnaires.

Education Unit Hits More Regents Power

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Higher Education Conference Committee, a group of five organizations concerned with higher education, voiced opposition Monday to giving the Board of Regents more control over state universities.

The position paper apparently was in response to proposed legislation before the legislature which would give the board more power over state-supported universities. The committee suggested that at least one faculty member and a student be inluded on the board.

Hershey Warns Protesters Who Dispose Of Draft Cards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service chief Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says antiwar protesters who throw away their draft cards will continue to lose their deferments and be reclassified for immediate induction until the courts order the procedure stopped.

Putting such protesters first in line for the draft "has nothing to do with punishment," the blunt, 75-year-old Hershey said in an interview. "I get riled up when they talk to me about serving your country being punishment."

Hershey spoke after the Supreme Court Monday agreed to hear arguments next fall by two antiwar protestors who charge their reclassification was unconstitutional.

One of the protesters, 22-year-old David Earl Gutknecht of Gaylord, Minn., is appealing a four-year prison sentence for refusing induction after he was reclassified for leaving his draft card on federal building steps during an antiwar demonstration in Minneapolis.

The other, 21-year-old Timothy J. Breen of Westport, Conn., sued against being drafted after he was reclassified for giving his draft card to a Boston clergyman to protest the war.

Both gave up their draft cards within weeks of Hershey's October 1967 memorandum authorizing draft boards to take away draft deferments for such "illegal activities" and declare the violators delinquents, which sends their names to the top of the draft list.

American Civil Liberty Union attorneys for the two protesters say 537 students were stripped of deferments and put on 1-A delinquent status in 1968.

Legal Director Melvin L. Wulf said in New York the ACLU hopes the Gutknecht case "will be the central test of the power of Gen. Hershey to reclassify men as punishment for protesting the war in Vietnam."

Hershey's general counsel, Col. David D. Omer, said he welcomes the Supreme Court decision to hear the two cases and is confident the court will uphold the reclassification policy.

Failure of a potential draftee to carry his draft card is a specific violation of the Military Selective Service Act. The issue before the court is whether a man can lose his deferment and be reclassified to high draft status for the violation.

Hershey's position is that draft deferments for college or any other reason are a "privilege" and they are granted only when it is in the national interest

"Breaking a law is never in the national interest," he said, "and if they (young men) break a law, it's not in ths national interest to defer them."

Violation of the draft card possession law also makes them liable for top-of-the-list delinquent status rather than simple reclassification to 1-A, he contends.

JANET LINDNER

Janet Lindner, Dennis Cataldo Set Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lindner of 200 Water St., Salineville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janet Lindner, to Dennis Cataldo, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cataldo of 709 Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Seaman Albert V. Luckino Phyllis Beth Dillon Weds

Miss Phyllis Beth Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dillon of 870 State St., became the bride of Seaman Albert Vitoangelo Luckino, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Luckino of 506 12th St., Wellsville, April 19 at 10 a.m. in the Wellsville Riverside United Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. James D. Sanko officiating for the double - ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a slipper-length gown of hand-clipped, scalloped Chantilly lace designed with an Empire bodice and highlighted with crystals and sequins. Lace scallops encircled the neckline, Spanish-style sleeves and bordered the hemline. The skirt was fashioned in a redingote effect with chapel train.

HER VEIL of English illusion was attached to a headpiece of lace petals designed in star effect and edged with seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations, baby breath and fernery tied with satin streamers interspersed with lily-of-the-valley. In observing the traditions, she borrowed the sixpence from a sister-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Dillon.

Miss Sheila Lamp, maid of honor, was attired in a full-length gown of green chiffon styled along Empire lines. Her headpiece was a circlette of white net adorned with yellow carnations and fernery.

MRS. ALBERT LUCKINO

A RECEPTION followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents, where the buffet table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with yellow maline. The three - tier cake was separated with inverted champagne glasses placed over yellow rosebuds. Wedding bands and doves served as the ornament.

The bride attends East Liverpool High School. Her husband was graduated in 1968 from Wellsville High School and is attending the hospital corps man school at Great Lakes, Ill.

75th Anniversary Marked By Eastern Star Chapter

The 75th anniversary of Crystal Chapter 18, Order of Eastern Star, was observed with a grand inspection Friday night at the Masonic Temple. Some 230 attended.

Mrs. Irene Thornbury of Washington Court House, worthy grand matron, was inspecting officer. She was presented an honorary membership certificate arranged on a lace crown by Mrs. Phyllis Eaton.

Mrs. Mary Matheny, worthy matron, and her husband, Elmer Matheny, worthy patron, presided.

The theme for the year, "Faith," was symbolized in decorations in the East, which was draped with a blue satin cloth and featured a glittering 75th emblem and a white cross entwined with flowers. A large replica of an uncut diamond was suspended over a basket of flowers at the West draped in pink satin.

White Bibles were presented by Matheny to the four candidates who were initiated. Mrs. Matheny read a poem, 'Star of Hope," composed by Mrs. Eva Beaver. Mrs. Marilyn Wagner sang.

Grand officers introduced were Mrs. Eunice Huston of Wellsville, who serves as Ruth; Mrs. Pauleen Wolfgang of East Palestine, deputy matron; Mrs. Evelyn Moesle of Massillon, representative to California; Mrs. Dorothy Jordan of Sebring, representative to Massachusetts; Mrs. Rowena Dusthiner of Danville, warder, and Mrs. Jessie Nagus of Sebring, past grand matron.

District 13 officers present were Mrs. Virginia Buckley, president, and Bruce Pelley, treasure. Also welcomed were 16 district worthy matrons and 12 worthy patrons along with 20 local past matrons and six past patrons.

Other chapters represented were Chester, Homeworth, Salem, Steubenville, Negley, Alliance, Orville, Hanoverton, Wellsville, Minerva, Canton, Louiisville, Augusta, Lisbon, Salineville and Columbiana.

REFRESHMENTS were served in the diningroom by the Past Matrons Association, with Mrs. Freida Adkins chairman. The decorating committee included Mrs. Eaton, chairman, Mrs. Nellie Birch and Mrs. Frances Bussard.

Five tables forming star points were centered with a round table covered with a white satin cloth. Letters of the theme "faith" were placed along the edge, along with vigil lights. Decorations included five gold-covered boxes upon which were placed fans in the chapter's colors. The other tables were centered with fans, spring flowers and lighted tapers. Favors were fans featuring the anniversary emblem.

The next session will be May 14, with more candidates to be initiated.

Q. — How can I improvise a delicious syrup for pancakes when I find I am out of the real thing?

A. — Try adding a little water and a dab of butter to some fruit jelly, and heat. It's finger-licking good!

Q.—How can I dry matches that refuse to strike because of dampness?

Q.—How can I treat scratches on furniture?

Officials and diplomats at the Brussels headquarters of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization foresaw only a slow change in French relations with the Atlantic alliance and expected any dramatic developments.

De Gaulle pulled France out of most integrated NATO defense arrangements but maintained the nation's membership in the alliance.

France also continued its boycott of the permanent council of the Western European Union and stayed away from the councils regular meeting in London Monday. France has boycotted the biweekly meetings of the council since February, when the British enlarged the scope of the council's discussions. De Gaulle considered this an attempt to get around his veto of Britains membership in the Common Market.

Critics Of Fluoridation Claim Poisoning Danger

By DIANA STOVER
Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fluoridation of public drinking water can, according to those against it, lead to poisoning of the user and Mongolism in their offspring.

Dr. Jonathan Foreman of Columbus, in testimony Monday night before the Ohio Senate Education, Health and Welfare Committee, said persons who drink fluoridated water may suffer chromosome damage, which in some cases would later result in Mongolism among their children.

Dr. Forman, the chairman of the National Medical and Dental Committee to Evaluate Fluoridation and president of the Ohio State Alliance against Fluoridation, testified against a bill to require statewide fluoridation of water supplies serving 5,000 or more persons.

Dr. Forman, however, declined to endorse the testimony of four other persons who appeared before the committee.

"What they know and don't know I wouldn't want to comment on," he told the committee.

Thomas McIlvain of Wyoming, Ohio, which has fluoridated water, told the committee he suffered fluoride poisoning from drinking the water and almost died from it.

"The doctors asked me if I had been exposed to rat poisoning," he said, saying they were at a loss to determine his illness.

At this point, the committee's chairman, Sen. Oakley C. Collins, R - 18 Ironton, suggested the McIlvain's testimony "was taking up a lot of time and getting us nowhere.

Collins sponsored the fluoridation bill.

Edith Bowman, representing the Citizens Committee against Fluoridation of Cincinnati, said "fluoridation is treating your body without your consent."

In other action, the committee recommended for passage a bill requiring all day care centers in the state to be licensed by Jan. 1, 1970.

To be licensed, a center would have to have at least 35 square feet of indoor space for each child and 60 square feet of outdoor space. Infants would have to be cared for in rooms separate from older children.

The bill sets maximum numbers of children for each staff member.

Administrators would be required to have at least a high school education and by Dec. 17, 1971, must have completed at least two years of training or have at least two years experience working with children and their parents.

In earlier legislative action Monday, the Senate received a resolution calling for Collins' committee to investigate conditions within the Ohio Penitentiary.

The resolution's main sponsor and committee member, Sen. Marigene Valiquette, D - 11 Toledo, said from "preliminary soundings out" with the Republican leadership, she felt her proposal has a good chance of being heard by the committee.

She said unless Ohio's penal system is overhauled there will be "further riots" at the century old prison.

In te House, a bill to permit jail or workhouse inmates to hold outside employment was adopted 81-8 after a vigorous debate.

The bill was a victory for Jim Thorpe, R-90 Alliance, who has sponsored a similar bill without success for the past five years.

The bill permits courts within a county to adopt a work-release program for prisoners if they want. Prisoners who qualify would pay their own board.

The House also sent back to the Judiciary Committee a bill calling for councilmen in non-charger cities to be elected to four year terms, instead of the two year terms they now serve.

The first one would extend the deadline for trials in small claims court from 20 to 30 days. The second would designate Ohio 72 beginning in Springfield as the "Simon Kenton Trace Highway."

Employe Named By Water Board At Salineville

Madison will serve as a meter reader and general repairman for the water department at a salary of $145 a month. He will start Monday.

The board authorized estimates of water bills in the West End section for one period. Joe Weston, meter reader and assistant superintendent, resigned effective March 31, and the meters were not read.

It was announced scheduled installation of fire hydrants to replace four old ones have been delayed. Rain prevented the project last Wednesday.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. G. W. Chambers

Mrs. Gladys Chambers, 72, of 1057 St. George St., wife of G. Willard Chambers, died this morning at 4:05 at City Hospital after a long illness.

A native of Steubenville, Mrs. Chambers was born May 23, 1896, a daughter of the late George Hull and Neva Giles Hull. She had resided in this area virtually her lifetime. She was a member of the Second United Presbyterian Church.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. James (Roberta) Walker of East Liverpool; three sons, George W. Chambers of Clearwater, Fla., Donald F. Chambers of East Liverpool and Frank B. Chambers of St. Petersburg, Fla.; two brothers, Frank Hull and Donald Hull, both of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Neva Rencuf of Daytona Beach, Fla., eight grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Harold Sherman, who is pastor of the Second and Grace churches. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and night.

Edwin H. Mattern Jr.

Edwin Harold Mattern Jr., 22, of the Lisbon - East Fairfield Rd., Lisbon, a native of East Liverpool, died Monday at 6:10 a.m. at the veterans Hospital in Cleveland after being ill since last Dec. 4.

He was born June 1, 1946, a son of Edwin H. Mattern and Letty Lang Mattern, who survive at home. He was employed in the open hearth of the Midland Crucible Division of Colt Industries, working last in September 1968.

He attended schools in East Liverpool until his senior year, when he transferred to David Anderson High School at Lisbon, graduating in 1964. He served in the Army from Oct. 14, 1965, to July 19, 1967, including 14 months in Vietnam. He attended the Churchill Christian Church at Lisbon and was a member of Steelworkers Local 1212.

Besides his parents, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Loretta Blackburn Mattern; a daughter, Michelle Lee Mattern, and a brother, John A. Mattern, all at home; three sisters, Mrs. Terry (Scherry) Sine of Toronto, Mrs. Robert (Cynthia) Moser of Guilford Lake and Mrs. Paul (Phyllis) French of Lisbon; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Docia Mattern of East Liverpool, and his maternal grandfather, A. C. Lang of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Frederick Lauder. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and night.

Denise Friess

Denise Ann Friess, infant daughter of Ronald L. Friess and Linda Fitzsimmons Friess of Princeton Ave., Glenmoor, died this morning at 1:15 at City Hospital, where she was born at 12:15.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister, Deborah Sue Friess, at home; a stepbrother, Randall Friess of Wellsville; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Friess of Valley Trailer Court; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roger Fitzsimmons of Clarkson, and maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Bretch of East Liverpool.

The Dawson Funeral Home is arranging services.

Mrs. Anna Moore

Mrs. Anna Mae Moore, 89, of New Manchester, widow of James Harry Moore, died Monday afternoon at the East Liverpool Extended Care Center after a long illness.

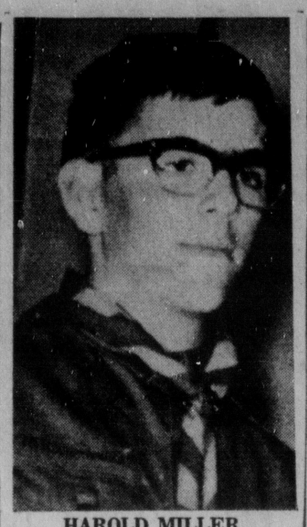

A native of Beaver County, Mrs. Moore was born July 20, 1879, a daughter of the late Franklin Pierce Hutton and Harriet Amanda Smith Hutton.

She was a member of the Fairview Presbyterian Church. She was married April 3, 1901, and her husband, a native of the New Manchester area, died June 26, 1943. After his death, Mrs. Moore made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Gail (Norma) McHaffle, and a grandson James Moore.

She also is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Ruth) Allison of New Manchester; two sisters, Mrs. Edith Wycoff of Chester and Mrs. Grace Mountford of East Liverpool, six grandchildren and 11 great - grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Turley Funeral Home in New Cumberland by the Rev. Donald Bell of the Chester Westminster United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in the Methodist Cemetery at New Manchester.

Friends may call at the funeral home any time.

HAROLD MILLER
Honored In Ceremonies.

God And Country Award Received By Area Scout

Harold Miller, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Alderlick Rd., Wellsville RD 1, was presented the God and Country Award at the West Point Nazarene Church Sunday.

The Rev. L. D. Smith introduced Scoutmaster William Betteridge Sr., who presented Harold to the pastor for the awarding of the emblem. The pastor reviewed the significance of the scouting program.

Taking part in the ceremonies with Harold, who is a first-class Scout and the Hawk Patrol leader of Troop 59, were his parents and other members of the troop.

Randy Seckman gave the Scout's promise. Ushers were Billy Conrad and Gregg Betteridge.

craft carriers, as an indication of the risk Nixon attached to resumption of the EC121 flight.

"North Korea is a belligerent," he commented. "We didn't know what to expect. So we didn't go up there with a little stick; we took a big stick."

After "proving his point," the President had to consider the cost of keeping a sizeable Navy force in the area over any extended period—not only in terms of dollars but also in terms of assignments the Navy had elsehwere.

One carrier, for example, had been pulled from Vietnam waters to join the task force, cutting Navy bombing capability in the war zone by one-third.

Nixon also may have considered the possibility that a prolonged presence of many U.S. warships near Korea would have been construed as provocative.

"By pulling out most of the ships, Nixon showed he wasn't out looking for trouble," a civilian analyst said.

The Navy still has a considerable presence off Korea—the carrier Enterprise with more than 90 planes and seven destroyers.

While two carriers have left, Pentagon sources report that an additional squadron of F4 Phantom fighters—about 24 planes—has been sent to South Korea to beef up American air strength there.

Police Unit Sets Picnic Plans At Wellsville Hall

Plans for the annual Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police picnic were discussed at a meeting Monday at the lodge hall.

The event will be held at James Lake along Route 45. The date will be selected at the next meeting May 26.

Police Chief John Hephner, president, was in charge. Verification of debts for payment was aired.

Plans were discussed for electing a delegate to the state FOPA conference July 20-22.

An application for membership from Jess Warren Gill of Route 30 was approved.

Area Man Jailed For 3 Violations

A Wellsville man is serving an 8-day jail term on charges of resisting arrest, intoxication and escaping custody.

Donald Brewer of Commerce St. was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to jail by Mayor William Daugherty after he was taken into custody Saturday near 9th St.

Three motorists were fined a total of $70 and costs for failure to pay parking ticket penalties. They were Walter Carroll of 1728 Lincoln Ave., $22; Wilbur Jarvis of Commerce St., $36, and William Murry of 12th St., $32.

William B. Miller of 227 Center St., East Liverpool, forfeited a $20 bond for traveling the wrong way on a 1-way street.

Police Chief John Hephner has issued a warning to motorists who are operating cars with invalid licenses or to owners of parked inoperable autos. He said such owners will be prosecuted, and the autos towed away.

Phillis

Donald Rupert of New Waterford, county board president, said Phillis was one of 19 applicants for the position. He will succeed James L. McBride of Lisbon, county superintendent since 1950 and an educator 42 years. Mr. and Mrs. McBride, librarian at Beaver Local High School, plan to move in June to Alliance, where their daughter Jayne attends Mt. Union College.

Phillis is a member of the Ohio Education Association, the Ohio Association of School Administrators and the National Education Association, the President's Advisory Council of the Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, W. Va., and the Advisory Council of the Midwestern Children's Home near Cincinnati; secretary of the southeastern Ohio Unified Purchasing Committee, and treasurer of Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp near Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillis, the former Betty Lou Reeder of Columbus, are members of the Church of Christ. They have two daughters, Kimberly, 11, and Tamera, 8.

The new superintendent's sister, Miss Wanda Phillis, is a caseworker for the County Welfare Department. He has four brothers — George, James and Samuel, all of Salem RD 3, and Lowell of Yale.

The county board interviewed Phillis here last Thursday night. Rupert talked with him by phone last night and invited him to a combined meeting of the county board and four local boards in June. United, Fairfield - Waterford, Beaver and Southern Local boards make up the county system.

McBride read to the board a letter from William Oliver of Steubenville, a field consultant for OEA, who requested "a meeting with you and the county board of education" concerning the salary increase granted Lorin Ruff, elementary supervisor for the county school system.

In granting raises for the county office staff last December, the board increased Ruff's salary $700 per year, $300 less than the increases given the school psychologist and high school supervisor.

The board directed McBride to invite Oliver to the next regular meeting May 19.

McBride was given permission to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio School Superintendents Association in June at Lincoln Lodge, Columbus.

ITT acquisitions in 1968 alone included Continental Baking Co., the nation's largest; Sheraton Corp., one of the two largest hotel chains; Levitt Sons Inc., a major homebuilding firm; Avis Inc., No. 2 in car rentals; and Rayonier, a leading producer of chemical cellulose.

ITT appears to be the kind of corporate supergiant that Asst. Atty. Gen. McLaren referred to last month when he announce plans to move against conglomerates. saying such articles touch off "witch hunts" on the basis of rumors.

State Rep. Patrick A. Sweeney of Cleveland said the magazine article "is filled with innuendoes and I do not believe this type of reporting is good regardless of what party the accused is a member of."

"They impung the character of our chief executive and they do it with no facts," Sweeney said.

Sweeney is one of the chief backers of a code of ethics for all branches of state government. He said the magazine article is "either going to kill a conflict of interest bill or enhance its chances of passage."

Sweeney said if the bill, currently pending in the House, existed now it would have given the magazine a chance to separate rumor from fact before proceeding with the "damaging" article.

Prosecution To Rest In Evans Trial Today

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The prosecution was expected to rest its case today, one month and six days after the start of the first-degree murder trial of Black Nationalist leader Fred "Ahmed" Evans.

Evans, 37, is charged with three sniper slayings during a gunbattle with police last July.

New Officers Selected For Chester PTA

Mrs. Lynda Reynolds was elected president of the Chester Intermediate and Junior High Parent - Teacher Association for the 1969-70 school term Monday night at the school.

Others named are: Mrs. Jean Whittington, vice president; Mrs. Sandra West, secretary, and Mrs. Ilene Arner, treasurer.

The meeting opened with a poem by Mrs. Fern Flowers. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. B. Rose of the Chester Church of the Nazarene.

Mrs. Sara Lou Miller introduced Mrs. Verna Robinson of the Hancock County Child Welfare Daprtment, who reviewed services rendered. A question-and-answer period followed.

Mrs. Margaret Watson, vice president, conducted business in the absence of the president, Mrs. Whittington.

It was announced the intermediate students will participate in the Hancock County Field Day May 17 at Weir Junior High School.

Mrs. Beverly Aaron was appointed chairman for the ninth-grade party June 7 at the school.

Mrs. Watson asked for volunteers for a Block Mothers Committee in Chester. Those interested are to contact Mrs. Whittington.

The meeting was ajourned by Mrs. Watson.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mabel Lowers and her committee.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of Hancock schools, will be guest speaker at the May 19 meeting.

Award Given Key Club At Beaver Local

The Beaver Loocal Key Club was the recipient of the Governor's Award for outstanding service over the past year during the 20th annual Ohio District Key Club convention in Cleveland over the weekend. Nine members attended.

The award was presented by Gov. Rod Wynkoop of Findlay and was accepted by Keith Steiner, president, on behalf of the club.

The local organization was rated fifth in the almost 200 clubs of the Ohio District on the basis of "over-all service to school and community."

Steiner, who has stepped down from his one - year term as secretary of the Ohio District, also was recognized for his service.

The convention, at the Pick-Carter Hotel, attracted about 900 Key Club members and Kiwanis advisers. The theme was "Influence Through Example."

Dixie College Building Held By Students

By The Associated Press

About 30 students, some armed with guns and knives, held the administration building of predominantly Negro Voorhees College in South Carolina today but school officials said they would take no hasty action.

About 25 Negro students ended a sit-in at the administrative offices of St. Louis University, when officials met most of their demands.

At Harvard University students participating in a referendum voted 3,222 to 945 not to resume a strike of classes.

The New York State Assembly meeting in Albany, passed and sent to the senate a bill to ban guns from college campuses. The bill, backed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, would allow seven-year jail terms for armed students convicted of unlawfully occupying buildings on New York State college campuses.

Ultra-Leftist Students Battle Tokyo Police

TOKYO (AP) — Five thousand ultra-leftist students celebrated the 17th anniversary of the end of the U.S. occupation Monday by battling police with rocks, wooden staves, lead pipes and Molotov cocktails. They were greeted by tear gas, and 967 landed in jail.

It was the most serious of 252 demonstrations throughout Japan demanding the return of Okinawa and abolition of the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty.

Model Cities Program To Be Revamped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is revising the controversial model cities program with the hope of eliminating confusion over who is in charge at the local level—the citizen or City Hall.

Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney indicated at a news conference Monday that this was a principal aim of seven revisions to the program that Lyndon Johnson reportedly believed as he left office was the best instrument in the war on poverty.

"Final authority for the city must be the local officials," Romney said.

"If the citizens do not think the officials are wise, they can get rid of them" presumably through the electoral process, Romney said.

Created by Congress in 1966, model cities has cost the taxpayer $23 million in three years with not one program for the 150 cities involved yet out of the planning stage.

The model cities' concept is an integrated approach to solving the problems of the urban poor with across the board improvements in housing, schools and recreation.

Critics argue the program is vague and that spending could get out of hand. Some opponent also forecast the program will turn into a "domestic Pentagon," gobbling up huge expenditures without noticeable result.

Probers In Pueblo Case Say

Code For Captured GIs Seen Code Of Confusion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen probing the North Korean capture of the USS Pueblo say the code of conduct for captured American servicemen is really a code of confusion.

"Rather than stricter or looser the code should be clearer," said Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee investigating the capture of the Pueblo and its crewmen. "I certainly think the confusion Monday made that manifest."

Pike referred to a parade of Pentagon officials who tried to explain the regulations governing the surrender of the Pueblo to the North Koreans and subsequent false confessions by crew members.

Committee members zeroed in on what they termed inconsistment, vagueness on information the enemy can be supplied, and absence of guidelines for surreder of a ship.

Vice Adm. Charles K. Duncan, chief of naval personnel, described the code as a "professional and inspirational' guide that needs no revision at this time.

However, Adm. Joseph B. McDevitt, the Navys chief lawyer, said violators of the code technically can be prosecuted.

"But it is not the policy of the Navy to punish violation of the code," Duncan injected.

And both men agreed that sections of the code are extensions of the Uniform Code of Military Conduct. Violators of the uniform code are subject to court martial.

"On one hand they say the code is inspirational and professional," committee member G. William Whitehurst, R-Va., complained in an interview.

"But on the other hand they say if you violate some sections you can be wrapped up (prosecuted) either under a general order or the uniform code," he said. "You can't have it all three ways."

Another puzzler came from testimony by Brig. Gen. Leo A. Benade, a deputy assistant secretary of defense, who commented on a section that says a prisoner of war is "bound to give only name, rank, service number and date of birth."

Twelve highway patrolmen armed with shotguns also entered the prison.

Twelve men formed picket lines at a walkway and two vehicle drives at the prison. They are members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes Union.

One picket carried a sign stating, "Prison Guards Day of Mourning." This referred to a "day of mourning" called for some state workers by spokesmen for the State Employes Union in a protest of present wages.

The prison, scene of a major fire and two riots last summer, now has 2,307 inmates.

Ridenour said they would eat on schedule but that some prison work would be curtailed "until we see how we stand." This would affect the machine shop, shoe factory and printing shop.

"We'll have recreation for the men if the weather permits," he added.

National Guardsmen were asked to be on standby at the Mansfield Reformatory if they are needed.

"We have an alert out," said Bernard Barton, associate superintendent.

"Should there be any need they will be ready."

Barton said there were some pickets in front of the reformatory.

Officials at other state penal institutions indicated they also expected labor problems among guard forces.

Guardsmen called up for service at the pen are from companies of the 166th Infantry Regiment stationed here, at Worthington and at Tarlton in Pickaway County.

James W. Smith, President of Local 1148 at the penitentiary, said Monday night the guards voted to strike because the state has not met their demand for a $1,500 a year across-the-board pay increase.

Smith said the guards work in 12-hour shifts that change at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. He estimated that 80 guards were on duty behind the galls overnight.

Warden Harold J. Cardwell predicted that a majority of the prison's guards would participate in the strike.

Ohio Corrections Chief Maury C. Koblentz indicated confidence that the troops could effectively maintain security.

Smith said that the prison guards, by voting to press their demands for a $1,500 raise, were rejecting provisions of an administration bill currently before the legislature that would raise salaries of 87 per cent of state employes by a maximum of $832 a year.

The AFSCME is demanding a $1,500 annual pay hike for all of the state's 45,000 employes. It has set Wednesday as the start of a "period of mourning," which could mean a strike by another 6,000 state workers who belong to the union.

By striking a day ahead of the "mourning" date and getting the jup on other state employes, the prison guards called public attention to their grievances.

Smith refused to confirm or deny that this was the reason for the action.

Judge Penalizes 5 Area Motorists

A Maplewood motorist was among five district drivers penalized at County Judge Barry Dickson's court in East Palestine Monday.

John E. Clutter of Fisher Ave. was fined $30 and costs for failure to display registration plates and Gary L. Andric of Lisbon RD 3 $5 and costs for an unsafe vehicle.

Forfeiting bonds were Gary L. Bowersock of East Liverpool RD 3, $25 bond for lack of a valid operator's license; John J. Falone of Glenmoor, $20 bond for speeding, and Frederick C. Gromley of Lisbon RD 4, $30 bond for speeding.

Teachers In Hancock Vote On Officers Slate

Members of the Hancock County Association of Classroom Teachers will vote today and Wednesday on a slate of officers presented last week.

Court Orders Man's Arrest

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a bench warrant for the arrest of a 24-year-old Wellsville area motorist who failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of driving 72 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone in the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

Louis R. Joy of Wellsville RD 1 was cited Monday at 9:47 p.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol, which said he was clocked with radar equipment. An officer said he started in pursuit of the defendant and clocked him at 75 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone just inside the Wellsville corporate limits.

When Joy did not appear for the hearing, the court forfeited his $27.50 appearance bond and also ordered the warrant for his arrest. The patrol's report to the court included a copy of a record from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles showing Joy has had four citations for speeding, two for improper passing and one for crashing a stop sign.

Meanwhile, Linda M. Jividen, 18, of Glenmoor was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Wellsville Rd. She was cited by the patrol Monday at 10:41 p.m.

Alfred T. Delphia, 55, of Steubenville forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, also on the Wellsville Rd. he was cited by the patrol Wednesday at 12:43 a.m.

Plant Is Toured By Ruritan Club On 2 Buildings

The tour followed a brief business meeting at the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church, during which the club approved donations of $50 each to the Little League, 4-H Club and a needy family.

Honor students of Wellsville and Southern Local high schools and their parents will be guests during the May 26 meeting at the church.

Raymond Rolley will preside.

Motorist Faces Traffic Charges In Area Mishap

Industry police said today charges will be filed against a driver in an accident which injured two people Sunday at 6:20 p.m. on Route 68 near the Willows Motel.

Patrolman Roy Hohenshell said reckless driving charges will be filed against Robert Williams of Beaver Falls who was passing a car traveling west, struck it and then hit a motorcycle traveling east.

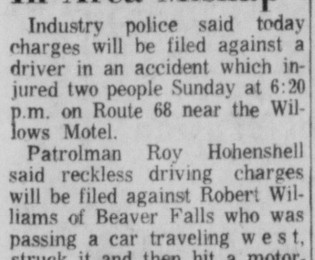

Richena Bates, 10, a passenger in the other car operated by Howard Carter of Pittsburgh, was treated at Rochester General Hospital for abrasions.

The cars received minor damages and the motorcycle extensive damage. The accident is still under investigation.

What you should know about auto insurance profits

If you believe everything you hear or read about the tremendous profits of auto insurance companies, you might feel you are being overcharged. But before you reach that conclusion, here are some facts you should know.

As a group, the auto insurance companies based in Ohio didn't make a penny of profit directly from money paid by their customers for insurance protection during the five years from 1964 through 1968. In fact, over the five-year period, the companies suffered a slight loss in daily operations.

These insurance companies did have net investment earnings of about 4½% during this five-year period — to be exact, $4.52 on every $100 they took in. All of the $4.52 net earnings came from investment income and increased market value of securities. It's what was left after deducting operating losses, Federal income taxes and policyholders' dividends.

That's not too bad. But it's not tremendous profit either. You could earn about as much from a savings account in a local bank.

And, of course, the increased market value of securities isn't actually cash on hand. It's only a paper figure. It could increase if the stock market goes up, or it could decrease if the stock market goes down — as it has for the past several months.

Anyway, what has happened to this $4.52 of earnings—or profits?

Well, about 29¢ of it went to pay dividends to stockholders of the stock companies. They're the people who put up the money—who risked their money—so the companies could get into the insurance business in the first place.

The rest of the earnings — or $4.23 out of $100 of income — was put into policyholders' surplus.

WHAT IS SURPLUS?

Surplus is an insurance company's policyholder protection fund. Surplus is money set aside — and required by law to be set aside — to assure payment of all legitimate claims and expenses. Surplus is used to pay claims and expenses when premium income falls short, as has been the case for Ohio insurance companies frequently in recent years.

The amount of surplus an insurance company has determines its capacity—that is, it determines the amount of business the company can safely handle. So insurance companies must continually strengthen their surplus funds as the demand for insurance coverage grows. And the number of cars on the highways is increasing at the rate of about 4% a year.

NOTE: All statistics shown are the combined figures of 18 companies that write about 90% of the auto insurance business handled by Ohio-based companies.

WHAT HAPPENS TO $100?

HERE'S WHERE IT COMES FROM—

$3,645,163,000	Earned Premiums from Policyholders	$ 94.33
144,644,000	Income from Investments	3.74
74,627,000	Increased Market Value of Securities	1.93
$3,864,434,000	Total Income from all Sources	$100.00

HERE'S WHERE IT GOES—

$2,523,179,000	Claims and Claims Adj. Expenses	$ 65.29
1,122,480,000	Underwriting Expenses	29.05
25,686,000	Policyholder Dividends	.66
17,249,000	Federal Income Tax	.45
1,195,000	Miscellaneous Expense	.03
$3,689,789,000		$ 95.48
11,317,000	Stockholder Dividends	.29
163,328,000	Earnings (added to policyholders' surplus)	4.23
$3,864,434,000		$100.00

These figures cover the five-year period 1964-68. The only part that can be considered profit is the payments to stockholders (29¢ out of $100) and the amount to policyholders' surplus, which is $4.23. This is retained for the protection of policyholders and to guarantee payment of claims.

CAN AUTO INSURANCE RATES BE REDUCED?

If auto insurance companies earned 4½% over the past five years, couldn't rates be kept where they are? Or better yet, couldn't rates be reduced a little?

Yes, theoretically. The companies could live on their investment earnings and their surplus. For a while.

For how long? Well, nobody knows, because nobody knows for sure how many accidents there will be next year, or the year after that. We do know that the trend is upward, and it costs a lot more to fix a wrecked car today than it used to.

But if we can't predict the future, we can say some things with certainty about the past. Let's take a look at the past few years:

Suppose—just suppose—that the rate increases of just the past three years had not been made. Suppose you had paid the same rates in 1968 that you paid in 1965.

If that had happened, Ohio based auto insurance companies would have lost more than $150 million in premium income — which would have put some of them out of business. Completely. And a lot of people wouldn't have auto insurance.

That's not theory. It's plain mathematical fact.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

A Bra Problem Solved

DEAR HELOISE: My daughter and I had trouble with our bras showing when we wore sleeveless dresses, but we came up with what we think is a very clever idea.

Heloise

We loop each end of the bra through its own armhold, causing a flat fold at the bottom of each armhole of the bra, narrowing the fabric under the arm pit.

Of course, we know some bras are cut low, but we seldom buy them.

MRS. E. V.

I'll kiss you. I was a "doubting Thomas," but you were right. And the amazing thing is that the fold lies so flat there isn't any extra bulk to show through.

It's letters from gals like you that really make my day.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When you go shopping and come home with a trunk load of sacks, many times you find the bags are ripped.

So I take my laundry basket or cart out to the car and pile it with my purchases.

This not only saves many trips, but shattered nerves when a bag breaks open and the contents spill out on the ground.

MRS. IVAN HOWARD

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I hit upon a wonderful discovery as I was knitting and finding it hard to keep track of the rows. I happened to think of my golfer's score-caddie.

I just strapped it onto my wrist like a watch, and at the end of each row I could punch the button without even putting my knitting down.

MRS. L.D.H.

DEAR HELOISE: When freezing bread or buns, I always find frost inside the package when I remove them. How do you get rid of the frost or keep it from forming?

I have tried knocking it off after removing it from the wrapper, but it seems that the bread is not as moist. Is this moisture accumulated from the bread?

If so, how do I get the moisture back into the bread? Because we buy lots of bread and rolls at one time, I would appreciate anything you can do to help me.

MRS. S.A.B.

Honest to goodness . . . I don't know the answer to that one.

If anyone has a sneaking idea, do take time out to pick up that pencil and let us in on the secret. Just address your letters to me in care of this very paper you are reading now.

HELOISE

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I added another shelf in my pantry and used a tin of sauerkraut, creamed corn, apple juice and Irish Stew (all foods that my family are not vary fond of) to hold it up. it worked beautifully and I had an extra shelf.

Later, I was rummaging in the pantry and my husband asked me what I was looking for I told him I thought I had a tin of red salmon on hand. And he said, "Are you sure you haven't got it holding up a shelf somewhere?"

MRS. F. WALTON.

DEAR FOLKS: If you are the kind of glue that comes in two tubes and must be mixed together before using, try this idea.

After removing them from the package, take a rubber band and put it around both tubes. This way you will never lose one of them when the time comes to use it again. They will always be together.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Dark motel rooms or strange bedrooms can upset small children.

So when we traveled, we always carried a night light along in the car.

Hancock's Board Okays Salaries

The Hancock County board of education Monday night approved a new teachers' salary scale in line with the West Virginia legislature's action calling for increases amounting to $1,000 per teacher.

The scale approved in Hancock includes:

4th class - certificate, from $5,075 with no experience to a maximum of $5.870; 3rd-class certificate, $5,375 to $6,559; 2nd-class certificate, $5,618 to $7,-150; A.B. degree, $7,133 to $10,-030 after 15 years experience; A.B. degree with 15 hours, $7,-391 to $10,288 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree, $7,649 to $10,742 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree with 15 hours, $7,908 to $11,000, after 15 years experience, and an A.M. with 30 hours, $8,167 to $11,632.

IN ORDER "to establish better communications and rapport," the board named two committees to meet from time to time with both the teachers and classified personnel.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of schools, will serve as an ex-officio members of each group.

Twin State Motors of Steubenville received the contract on a low bid of $4,440 per chassis (including power steering) and Superior Coach Sales of Powhatan Point received the contract for bodies (including trade-in allowance) on a low bid of $3,539.50 per body.

Other bids on the chassis, for a 66-passenger bus, were Snodgrass Sales and Service, Weirton, $4,720 and Cattrell Motor Co. of Weirton, $4,434.

Other bids on the bodies were Ateco Equipment Co. of Wheeling, $3,565; Myers Equipment Co. of Canfield, $3,658, and General Truck Sales Corp. of Charleston, $4,080.

Board members pointed out that an orthopedic bus was not recommended at present because there is a chance that it may be obtained through Special Education Title VI.

IN OTHER action, a low bid of $5,890 from the Trushel Construction Co. of Weirton was accepted for the erection of a concrete wall as part of a landscaping program at the Weirton Heights Eementary School.

The other bid was $6,550 from the James White Contruction Co. of Weirton.

The wall will be built and fill hauled to correct hilly and deeply - eroded terrain at the site.

In addition to the wall, the board will provide fencing. The city of Weirton has agreed to provide the fill and equipment to do the leveling board members said.

The Greco Plumbing and Heating Co. of Weirton, on its low bid of $940, was awarded a contract to install a new water line at Liberty School to correct a low - pressure problem.

The other bid was $1,050 from White Construction.

Permission was given for the Oak Glen High School band to participate in Memorial Day services May 30 sponsored by the Chester American Legion at Locust Hill Cemetery and for the Weir Junior High band to take part in the Strawberry Festival at Buckhannon June 6 and 7.

Officers Probe 2 Hit-Skip Cases

East Liverpool police are investigating two hit - skip traffic mishaps reported Monday afternoon and early today.

Linda K. Shields of 616 Broadview Circle told officers the left side and rear of her 1969 two-door sedan were damaged at 12:59 this morning as she drove off the Chester Bridge approach at E. 3RD St. Her auto was struck by an oncoming car which continued across the bridge without stopping, she said.

Mrs. Sarah C. Phillips of Canton St. told officers the rear bumper of her 1962 coupe was damaged by a hit-skip auto while parked on Broadway at Diamond Alley between 2:45 and 4:15 p.m. Monday.

Senior Citizens At Wellsville In Varied Program

Mrs. Bertha Reed, president, and the group welcomed visitors, Marion Rose and Margaret Martin of East Liverpool and Mrs. Wanda Dickey of Wellsville.

The program included readings by Miss Marie Headley, Mrs. Gertrude Wilkinson, Cliff Baughman, Mrs. Florence Wilkinson and Mrs. Rebecca Kinzel; vocal solos, Mrs. Dickey; vocal duet, Baughman and Louis Provost; proverbs, L. P. Perry, and recitation, Provost.

Final plans were named for the bus trip to the glass factory at Williamstown, W. Va. Reservations are due with Mrs. Reed or Mrs. Kinzel by Friday.

Announcement was made that the month of May has been designated as "Senior Citizens Month" in the U.S.

The group will meet again Friday at 1:30 p. m. in the church.

One of the highest - flying birds in the world is the condor, a large American vulture. This bird has the ability to withstand variations of air pressure that would kill many other creatures, and it easily soars from sea level to an altitude of 16,000 or more feet.

Leslie Higgins Wins Honors In Twirling Field

More honors in baton twirling have been won by Leslie Anne Higgins, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Higgins of Glenmoor.

Miss Higgins, seventh-grader at St. Aloysius School, placed first in beginners' military strut in the Kibo and Cherry Hill contest at the Akron Armory Saturday.

The victory placed her in the advanced military strut category and made her eligible to compete last Sunday in the seventh annual William McKinley national baton Class "A" event at Leavitisburgh, where she placed third.

Miss Higgins recently received trophys for intermediate solo baton twirling during contests at Ashland, Ohio, where she finished fourth, and at Pleasant Hills, Pa., where she was second

Accord Ends Toledo Grain Millers Strike

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A week-long strike that has halted grain shipments out of the Port of Toledo ended Monday with agreement between the Board of Trade and the Confederation of Grain Millers on a new 23-month contract.

Federal mediator Harry Webber announced agreement but did not dislose the details.

Teachers Salary Increase Bill Is Signed By Shafer

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill increasing teacher salary minimums to $6,000 is now law, but Gov. Shafer warned that money still must be found to pay for the measure.

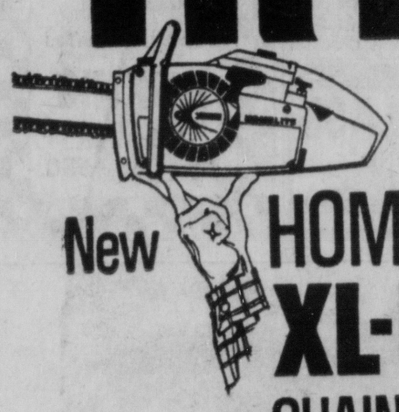

"I am not at all pleased that the General Assembly passed the bill before deciding where to get the money to finance the cost," Shafer told a special news conference Monday.

Shafer also warned local school boards that if the legislature fails to provide the revenue, they may be forced to raise local taxes.

The governor also announced at the news conference the signing of a bill retaining the state sales tax at 6 per cent.

That's how long it now takes for Ohio Bell Direct Distance Dialing equipment to connect you with Washington.

Which isn't long at all.

It used to take about 80 seconds to call through the operator, but now you can do it yourself in less than a third of the time.

This is just one of the many improvements Ohio Bell has made in telephone service since 1959. Service which keeps getting better and better.

Yet, since 1959, local telephone rates haven't gone up at all, and long distance rates have gone down several times.

This takes a lot of penny watching on our part. And a lot of the latest equipment. And some good business know-how. Keeping prices down kind of keeps us on our toes.

So now when you call Washington or Miami or Los Angeles in 25 seconds or less, it's even cheaper than in 1959.

25 seconds or less. Think about it a minute.

Senators Win Fifth Straight As Bullpen Remains Tough

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whatever Ted Williams has been saying to his hitters, they have been repeating loudly over and over again the past five games, but how do you explain how Washington's relief pitchers have been sounding off?

Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, had hoped to impart some of his knowledge to the Senators' hitters and apparently has succeeded as they have spoken up by hammering 39 runs for five consecutive victories.

Tigers Fall 6-1

But Manager Williams must have some pretty good ideas, too, on how to get batters out because his bullpen has not allowed a run in the last 35 2-3 innings he has called on it.

The lessons worked well again Monday night as the Senators rolled up No. 5 by pasting Detroit 6-1 with Hank Allen driving in three runs and Dick Bosman posting four scoreless innings in relief of winner Camilo Pascual.

While the Senators were sounding off again, the Boston Red Sox finally were silenced when Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees stopped them on three hits for a 1-0 victory, the first time in 11 games the Sox haven't hit a homer.

Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0 as Jim Perry scattered seven hits in the only afternoon game in a schedule curtailed by rain. Baltimore's game at Cleveland and the California contest at Seattle were washed out at night.

The Senators, who had managed only 25 runs in 12 games before their victory streak, jumped on Earl Wilson for two runs in the first inning on Allen's run-scoring hit and a throwing error by Al Kaline. They waited until the eighth to break loose again when Allen singled in two more runs and hits by Ken McMullen and Paul Casanova brought home two more.

Meanwhile, Pascual had held the Tigers to Dick McAuliffe's lead-off homer in the first before leaving after five innings in the 43 degree weather. That's when Bosman took over and blanked Detroit the final four innings, giving him 8 2-3 shutout innings in the bullpen spree.

Dennis Higgins has nine scoreless innings of the streak that began April 19, Casey Cox 8 2-3, Dave Baldwin 4 1-3, Bob Humphreys and Jim Miles two each and Joe Coleman one.

Twenty-three of those resounding 35 2-3 innings have come in the last five games, which have, lo and behold, lifted Washington's once shy violets of the American League over the .500 mark and ahead of the mighty Tigers into fourth place in the East Division, only 3½ games behind leading Baltimore.

The Red Sox had broken records with 26 homers in 10 consecutive games and 27 in 11 before running into Peterson, 3-2, who pitched the first complete game victory and the first shutout against them all season.

The run he needed came in tht sixth with one out when Bobby Murcer lined the third hit off rookie Ray Jarvis, 1-1, making his first major league start, and Roy White doubled him home. The victory boosted the Yankees into second place, ahead of Boston and 2½ lengths back of the Orioles.

Perry, starting only because rookie Tom Hall was delayed returning from military reserve duty in North Carolina, also coasted in after Killebrew's sacrifice fly in the first inning and Rich Reese's three-run homer in the fourth. The victory gave the Twins a one game lead over Oakland in the West Division.

Gary Carter of Fifth Ave., who appeared at East Liverpool this past season, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Duquesne.

Carter averaged 21 points a game and played for the City-Catholic stars in the Roundball Classic.

Don Wilson, 5-7 backcourt star from Penn Hills, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Pitt. Wilson averaged 20 points a game and played for the West Penn stars in the Classic.

GEORGE LYNN of Columbiana is playing lacrosse at Wittenberg. Lynn, a standout linebacker at Columbiana, played JV football at Wittenberg last fall.

ALONG WITH East Liverpool's Don Cochran, other area standout football players are expected to attend Youngstown U. as freshmen next season are Ken DiCross, Leetonia halfback, and Bob Ferranti, Boardman end.

DUQUESNE'S all-opponent basketball team for this past season was a pretty fair group. Pete Maravich of LSU and Spencer Haywood of Detroit, both All-Americans, were unanimous choices, while Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, Larry Cannon of LaSalle and Charlie Scott of North Carolina rounded out the first five.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Chuck Winters suffered a rib injury in the second period of the Pitt Blue-White football scrimmage Saturday. Up until that time, Winters, playing for the Blue, or second offensive team, had completed 3 of 5 passes with one interception.

THERE IS A rumor that the American Basketball Association Pipers, league champions while in Pittsburgh last year but a disappointment both artistically and financially in Minnesota this year, will return to Pittsburgh. The team is leaving Minnesota and was reported headed for New Jersey, but that move is apparently off, and the Pipers may return to the Civic Arena.

Mel Queen Released By Cincinnati

Queen, an outfielder converted into a pitcher, missed virtually all of 1968 with arm trouble and then turned up with a sore arm while warming up to start against San Diego Sunday.

In 1967, he posted a 14-8 record and a 2.76 earned run average. In his last appearance this year, he hurled six innings of two-hit ball.

"We are in the process of considering other moves and I think you know what they are," General Manager Robert Howsam said.

Howsam was referring to Gary Nolan and Gerry Arrigo who both are plagued by arm soreness. Arrigo, a 12-game winner last year, has yet to pitch this season.

'Personally, I don't feel there's that much wrong with my arm," Queen commented. I guess because I had arm trouble last year they feel they can't wait any longer for me."

Noriega, 25, had a 9-3 record last year with Asheville and pitched with Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League in 13 game with a 1-0 record this year. He joined the Reds Monday.

E. Liverpool, Beaver Local Postponed

The East Liverpool vs. Steubenville Central sectional baseball tournament game, slated for Steubenville's Plesant Heights Field yesterday, was postponed due to rain and is set for today at the same site at 4 p.m.

Beaver Local was scheduled to play Struthers, a 3-2 winner over Salem in the Youngstown sectional, yesterday at Victory Field, but that game was likewise postponed and is scheduled to be played today.

Minnesota's Bill Brown Free Agent

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fullback Bill Brown of the Minnesota Vikings, called the "best fullback in the NFL" by his coach, apparently will become a professional football free agent Thursday.

General Manager Jim Finks of the Vikings left the Twin Cities Monday for the National and American Football League meetings in New York, still without Brown's signature on a contract.

Brown, who led the Central Division champion Vikings in rushing with 805 yards and touchdowns with 11 last season, played without a contract in 1968 and took a 10 per cent salary cut to play out his option.

As of Thursday, any professional team legally can negotiate a contract with the 5-foot-11, 230-pound Brown.

Sebring Blanks Lisbon Golfers 9-0

The loss was the fifth straight for the Blue Devils. Ed Brown paced the losers with a 43 and Bert French had a 44 to lead Sebring.

Abernathy's Relief Job Beats Phillies For Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

"It's seldom you get out of jams like that," the Chicago skipper said Monday night after Abernathy, the ancient submariner of the Cubs' bullpen, escaped a bases-loaded, none-out bind in the 10th inning, saving a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia,

The 36-year-old relief specialist made Ron Santo's go-ahead single in the top of the 10th stand up by getting two Philadelphia pinch hitters to tap into force plays at the plate, then retiring a third on a roller to third baseman Santo.

"That was some kind of pitching," said Durocher, who admitted he'd expected the game would get away from Abernathy. "Three ground balls—that's what you have to have."

While Abernathy's underhand sinkerball was submerging the Phillies, a ball boy's ninth-inning blooper helped lift the Los Angeles Dodgers past San Diego 4-3.

Hank Aaron's 513th career homer paced Atlanta to a 12-1 romp over hapless Houston; St. Louis trimmed Pittsburgh 6-2 behind left-hander Steve Carlton and San Francisco edged Cincinnati 4-3 in other NL games. The New York Mets and Montreal Expos were idle.

Abernathy, a 36-year-old journeyman whose 84 appearances for the Cubs four years ago stands as a National League mark, rescued Ken Holtzman with one out and one on in the ninth, getting Rich Allen to ground into a double play.

But the reliever dug himself into a deeper hole in the 10th, when Deron Johnson's single, Don Money's safe bunt and catcher Randy Hundley's throwing error put runners on second and third with nobody out.

Abernathy walked Cookie Rojas intentionally, filling the bases, and then disposed of Johnny Briggs, Ron Stone and Rick Joseph.

Allen's third homer—the second hit off Holtzman—tied the game 1-1 in the seventh, but the Cubs regained the lead in the 10th on a two-base error by left fielder Rojas, a sacrifice and Santo's single.

The Dodgers trailed 3-2 in the ninth when Bill Russell delivered a pinch single. Parker, out of the starting line-up with a pulled muscle, then drilled a liner that dropped just inside the line in left. When the ball boy, thinking the ball was foul, picked it up, third base umpire Paul Pryor waved Russell home and awarded a triple to Parker.

Parker held third as Willie Davis grounded to second baseman Jose Aricia for the second out, but Boyer broke the tie by beating out a roller to short.

Nate Colbert's fourth homer in six games—a two-run blast in the fourth inning—had given the Padres a 3-1 lead. The Dodgers closed the gap in the eighth on successive two-out singles by Andy Kosco, Tom Haller and Bill Sudakis.

HOCKEY HOTSHOTS. Winners of the major trophies in the National Hockey League this season were honored at a luncheon in Montreal yesterday. Orr, Esposito, Grant Get Awards

MONTREAL (AP) — Resplendent in an iridescent tan suit, Bobby Hull was serving as master of ceremonies at the National Hockey League's annual awards luncheon and was shooting barbs instead of pucks.

Glenn Hall and Jacques Plante had just stepped forward Monday to accept the Vezina Trophy which the St. Louis Blues' goalies had earned for the best defensive record in the league when Hull wheeled and fired on the assembled NHL general managers and coaches.

"How," said Hull, "you let two goalies like Glenn and Jacques land with the same club, I'll never know."

It was, obviously, a mistake. Hull, more sympathetic with his Chicago bosses, played it straight when ex-teammate Phil Esposito stepped up to take the Hart Trophy as Most Valuable Player and Art Ross Trophy as scoring champ.

Two years ago the champion Black Hawks traded Esposito the sixth place Bruins. This season with Esposito scoring a record 126 points Chicago was sixth and Boston second.

Obviously, another mistake.

"You don't want to help the other guy," said Emile Francis, general manager of the New York Rangers, whose club finished third in the East Division.

"The clubs ahead of you don't want you to catch them and the ones behind you don't want you to get any better than you are it's tough to make a deal within your own division."

Nevertheless, Francis has been shopping, he's held repeated huddles with the Black Hawks. Dennis Hull is reportedly available. Chicago is after defense and goaltending help.

Montreal, currently concerned with knocking off St. Louis and grabbing a record 14th Stanley Cup, might be willing to do business after the playoffs are out of the way.

Defenseman J.C. Tremblay has fallen out of favor with the fans here and may be headed elsewhere.

"We'll play better," promised Scotty Bowman, coach of the Blues said, while the Blues and Canadiens prepared for game No. 2 in the best-of-7 final.

Montreal took the opener 3-1 on Sunday stretching its undefeated streak over two seasons to 15 games against the Blues.

Sure not to be mentioned in the trade talk were the individual trophy winners—Esposito; Boston's Bobby Orr, who won his second straight James Norris Trophy as the best defenseman; Minnesota's Danny Grant, Calder Trophy winner as rookie of the year; and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit, who took a Lady Byng Trophy for clean and effective play.

Red Rider Golfers Top E. Liverpool

Weirton gained revenge for its first loss of the season Friday by downing East Liverpool 157-165 in a golf match at Woodview yesterday.

The Potters are now 9-2 and Weirton 6-1. Jeff Miser of the Red Riders was medalist with a 38.

Andy Petrick, Bob Kinsey and Ralph Heffner all had 41s and Ken Johnson a 42 for East Liverpool.

Courtney's Record Jump Leads Lisbon Track Win

Courtney, who had set the mark of 19-1 in an earlier meet at Greenford this season, did 20-2¼, breaking his old standard by more than a foot. His win in the event wrapped up the meet for the Blue Devils, now 4-3 in dual encounters, who led 62-56 going into the long jump, the final event.

Courtney also won the low hurdles. Bob Hammett doubled in the 100- and 220-yard dashes and Ken Pittenger in the shot and discus. Mike Kodrich won the mile. Courtney also ran on the winning 880 relay team, but Roger Bierdeman of the losers was high point man for the meet with 12.

Boston Slight Pick To Even Laker Series

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, tested pressure cooker playoff veterans, rule a slight favorite to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers and square their best-of-7 series for the National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The Celtics, bidding for their 11th NBA title in 13 years since player-Coach Bill Russell joined the team as a rookie, are determined to make their home court advantage stand up and even the series at two games apiece.

After blowing leads and dropping the first two games in Los Angeles, the Celtics, blew a 17-point lead in the third period, but bounced back to win 111-105 Sunday on the hot shooting of John Havlicek and Larry Siegfried.

No team has ever lost the first two games and come back to win the NBA championship. The Celtics, although opening up with a line-up of five players averaging 32 years of age, hope to come out running—and keep running against Wilt Chamberlain & Co.

"Running is the key to our game," says Havlicke, the Boston captain who has scored 114 points in three games. "We've got to keep it up."

The Lakers, who are seeking their first NBA title after winning the Western Division playoffs, had a 5-2 edge on Boston during the regular season. However, they are looking for a better defense to stop the Celtics.

"We've got to improve our defense," Los Angeles Coach Bill van Breda Kolff said. "That's the big thing. Other than that, after playing 100-plus games, there's no sense changing things around now."

Jerry West, the veteran sharp-shooter led the Lakers, Sunday with 24 points, compared with outputs of 53 and 41 in the first two games.

"We knew it wouldn't be a cakewalk here," West said in summing up the feelings of the Lakers. "We knew the Celtics wouldn't quit. They never have and never will. I'm looking forward to another tremendously tough game."

The fifth game is set for Thursday in Los Angeles.

Derby Trial May Produce More Entries

By BOB COOPER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The smallest, fastest and most competitive field in recent Kentucky Derby history may have swelled by one today while last year's Derby mixup continued in a swirl of judicial whirlpool.

Tommy Cosdon, trainer for Rae Jet, said a finish among the first four places in today's Derby Trial Stakes would earn the son of War Jeep a start in Saturday's $125,000-added classic.

"Sure those big stables may be afraid to try it, but we're just a bush league bunch. All we want is a shot," Cosdon, a former rock 'n roll singer said.

Eight horses were entered in the one-mile Trial, with only one or two expected to earn credentials to face the Big Four of this racing season in the 1¼-mile Derby.

Meantime, Peter Fuller confirmed he plans to continue his appeals of the purse redistribution that came after his Dancer's Image won last year's Derby, but later was accused of having an illegal medication in his system.

He said he felt his appeal of a Kentucky Racing Commission ruling on the Derby purse redistribution "will not weaken racing, but will strengthen it."

Dancer's Image was declared winner of the 1968 Derby, but the commission gave the $122,500 purse to second finishing Forward Pass. Fuller's lawyers have taken the case to the courts.

"This action wasn't appreciated in some of the higher echelons of racing," Fuller said, "but these trials and tribulations only sharpened the thrill of victory that we thought was well earned."

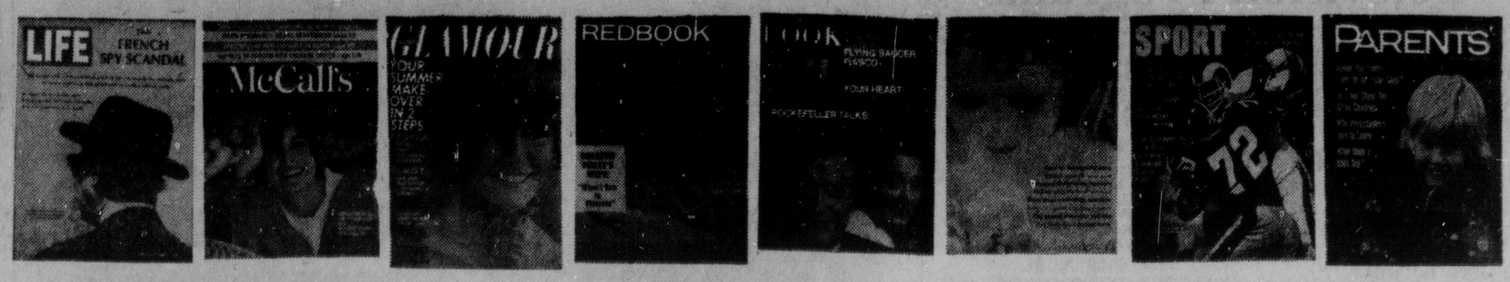

As for the Derby trial, a field headed by Cain Hoy Stable's entry of Ack Ack and Never Bow vied for a berth or two against what some trainers are calling the mightiest foursome assembled in racing in modern history.

Ready for the Derby—except for the final honing—are Frank McMahon's Majestic Prince, the Steven B. Wilson Estate's Top Knight, Claiborne Farm's Dike and Paul Mellon's Arts and Letters.

Until latecomers like Rae Jet, owned by Mrs. Robert E. Harris, declared themselves as possible starters, the four threatened to make the 95th Derby field the smallest since Citation scared off most opposition in 1948.

If Rae Jet goes in the Derby, the field probably will total eight or nine, still one of the smaller fields in the past haf cenury.

Jail Sentence Given Man In Morals Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today decreed a four-month term in County Jail for Vincent Diserio of 415 College St., who was convicted April 17 on a charge of indecent exposure and then sent to Woodside Receiving Hospital at Youngstown for a mental examination.

The court decreed the sentence after reading a report from the hospital which said the 52-yearpold World War II veteran does not suffer from any psychoneurotic disturbance, but has a "tendency to be an exhibitionist." Diserio "knows the difference between right and wrong and is responsible for his actions," the report said.

While Diserio is in jail, the court will seek to have him admitted to a Veterans Administration Hospital, Judge Chertoff said. He said he will seek the cooperation of the County Soldiers & Sailors Relief Commission in having the man admitted to a hospital.

Two women testified against Diserio in his hearing in mid-April. They said two small girls were in the vicinity at the time of the alleged incident.

Questioned by the court, Diserio said he spent four years in the armed forces in World War II. He said he had lived only briefly at the College St. address. He said he previously lived at Chester and in Weirton. He said he has been treated in VA hospitals on several occasions for "nervous disorders."

County Insurance Programs Updated By Commissioners

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners brought the county's insurance program up to date Monday afternoon in a meeting with agency representatives.

Present were Leland Helt of Greenamyer Agency in Leetonia, Paul Miller of Miller's Insurance in Wellsville and Cecil Rauch of the Rauch Agency in Lisbon.

The statement of values in 1968 was $1,960,700 for buildings and $479,950 for ceontents —a total of $2,400,650.

Monday, the agents recommended the valuations be increased by $133,000 and that the new Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children be added at $390,000. The latter figure does not include furnishings for the school. They will be added later.

With the additions, the new valuation of buildings and equipment is $2,963,650. The premium last year was $3,545.

The insurance is carried with the three agencies and the Easton Agency of East Liverpool.

W. W. Williams Co. of Cleveland received a contract Monday to furnisht the County Highway Department a front end loader with a fork for $29,450.

Commissioners said the bid was not the lowest received, but was accepted on the recommendation of County Engineer Bert A. Dawson, who said it met his requirements better than the others.

Other proposals were submitted by Allied Highway Equipment, Inc., North Canton, $28,-231; Ohio Machinery, Cleveland, $34,555; Rish Equipment, Youngstown, $34,763; Marks Tractor Equipment, Youngstown, $33,604, and Patrick Equipment Co., Niles, which bid $24,366 including a trade-in. However, the county engineer had no equipment to trade.

Two Injured At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Two Cannellton youths, both 19, were injured in a motorcycle mishap on E. Main St. this morning at 7:25, police reported.

William Nelson, the driver, and William Bratt were taken to the Beaver Falls Unit of United Hospitals. Nelson suffered a fractured shoulder and cuts on the body and Bratt cuts on the right knee and ankle.

Police said Nelson was headed west on E. Main St., cresting a hill. Nelson saw a car ahead, applied his brakes but the cycle slid, traveling 230 feet on wet pavement nd finally hitting a curb. Both were thrown off.

Reminder Issued For Payment Of Witholding Tax

City income taxes withheld from employes' wages for the first three months of 1969 must be remitted to the tax office at City Hall by employers by the close of business Wednesday, Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson reminded today.

Wilkinson pointed out that the payments cover withholding taxes for the first quarter, January through March. The ordinance allows a 30-day wait after the close of the quarter for the money to be turned over to the city.

The tax office closes at 4:30 p.m., but payments postmarked before midnight tomorrow will be accepted without penalty, Wilkinson said.

The law affects 550 employers. Compliance with the law has been good to date, but the bulk of the payments, representing $10,000 to $15,000, usually comes in the last two or three days before the deadline.

King's Widow Will Support Charleston Demonstrations

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The widow of Martin Luther King Jr. was due in Charleston today to support demonstrations that have led to the arrest of more than 500 Negroes seeking union representation for striking hospital workers.

Mrs. Coretta King planned to address a rally tonight at a Negro church.

It was also thought she might visit the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, who has been in the county jail since Friday. He succeeded her assassinated husband as president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The demonstrations are in behalf of more than 400 Negro nonprofessional workers striking for higher pay and recognition of the Hospital and Nursing Home Employes Union, AFL-CIO, as their bargaining agent.

A walkout began March 20 at the state-supported Medical College Hospital and spread a week later to the Charleston County Hospital. The strikers are cooks, nurses aides, orderlies and licensed practical nurses.

Medical College Hospital says it is operating at normal capacity with replacement workers, volunteers, and nonstrikers. The county hospital says it is operating at half normal capacity, with admissions limited to about 60 per cent.

Monday afternoon, 128 persons were arrested, including 99 teen-agers when an attempt was made to march down a downtown street. Except for repeat offenders, the juveniles arrested in the demonstrations have been released in custody of their parents.

Children's Home Board Asks Bids

Bids are being accepted this week for a new barn and poultry house by the Hancock County Children's Home Board.

Sketches of the buildings were studied by the board at last week's meeting.

The board expressed thanks to the commissioners for their assistance with the bids and specifications.

The board approved a request by Harold Sweat, farm manager, for four more calves.

The meeting date has been changed to the last Friday of each month.

Junior Editors Quiz on HUNGER

QUESTION: Why does a person get hungry?

* * *

ANSWER: We all have to eat to get food into our bodies, where it can be used to create warmth and energy. It is the special job of the stomach to act as a storage area for food after it is swallowed and to pass it along in small amounts to the digestive system below. There it is chemically treated and distributed to the cells by the blood stream. The stomach is helped on with its work by contractions of its strong muscles, which serve to move the food along. Such contractions are called peristaltic waves. While the stomach contains food, the waves go on unnoticed. But the peristaltic waves are going on and getting Charlie's attention as sensations of hunger. These waves are extremely important. They have signalled Charlie that he must do something at once about the situation. Our picture shows what he does and how the situation is met, with his mother's help. Now he can forget his stomach — at least until the hunger waves get after him again, in from 3 to 5 hours.

(Ronnie Rains of Tyler, Texas, wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, April 29, the 119th day of 1969. There are 246 days left in the year.

On this date in 1945, American soldiers fighting in Germany liberated 32,000 Nazi victims at the concentration camp at Dachau.

In 1639, Newport, R.I., was founded.

In 1962, New Orleans fell to Union forces during the Civil War.

In 1894, a band of jobless men known as Jacob Coxey's Army swarmed into Washington to petition Congress for relief.

In 1946, 28 Japanese leaders were indicted in Tokyo as war criminals.

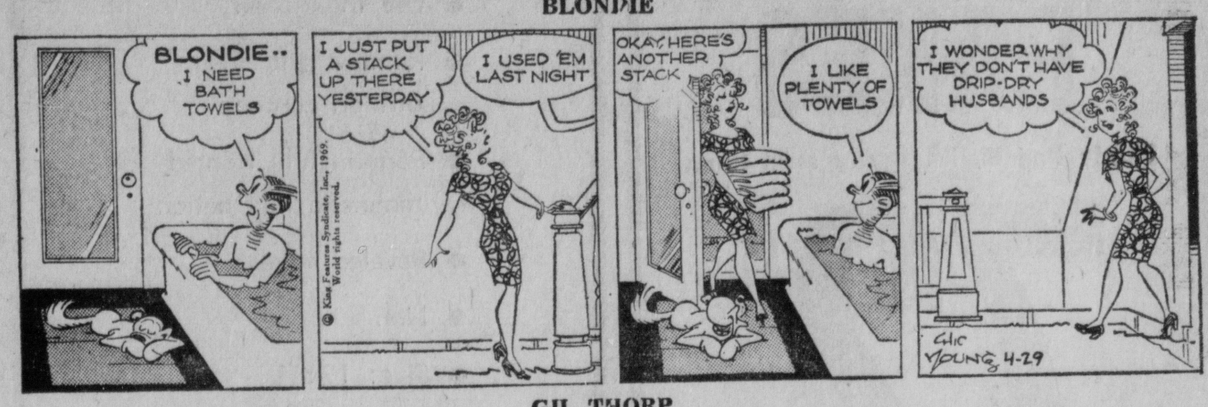

Ten years ago — The U.S. Senate confirmed Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Brazil after a bitter fight against her nomination, led by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore.

Five years ago -- Princess Irene of Netherland and Prince Carlos Hugo of Bourbon-Parma, a pretencer to the Spanish throne, were married in Rome.

Pompidou Served Under Ex-President

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Georges Pompidou, who served Charles de Gaulle for six years as premier, today announced his candidacy for the presidency, his former chief abandoned Monday.

Pompidou, 57, said he was offering his country "the will to maintain a continuity and a necessary stability, and the hope of preparing the future."

Pompidou's announcement had been expected and he already is a favorite. He announced in January that he planned to run in the next presidential election, but it was assumed then it would not be held until De Gaulle's term expired in 1972.

"Pompidou for President' clubs are springing up around the country, and the former premier has won the endorsement of Social Affairs Minister Maurice Schumann, the UJP, a young Gaullist group, and an organization of left-wing Gaullists.

Alain Poher, whose presidency of the senate made him interim president of the nation, said in a brief radio-television speech he hoped the elections would take place with "scrupulous respect for the law.

Meeting parliamentary correspondents before the address, he said he was sorry Gen. De Gaulle had resigned, but, "gentlemen, France must go on.

Poher, who campaigned for the defeat of the reform bill on which De Gaulle staked his office, is being mentioned as a possible Centrist candidate to oppose Pompidou. However, the provisional president declined to discuss his plans.

The election must be held between May 18 and June 2, within 20 to 35 days after De Gaulle's resignation. Most speculation settled on June 1 as the date for the first round. Poher said a date probably would be set next week.

If no candidate receives a majority on the first vote, a runoff is held between the two first-round leaders.

Major parties and factions represented in the National Assembly were meeting to prepare for the election. The Socialist partys leadership was to meet this afternoon, and the Communists met to decide what to do about Socialist disinterest in forming a leftist coalition.

Veteran Socialist leader Guy Mollet indicated he was more interested in a union with Centrist forces and said he would support Poher if the interim

Pen Guards Strike; Troops Take Posts

Pay Dispute Stirs Move In Walkout

State Penitentiary, Reformatory At Mansfield Affected

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Guards struck at two state penal institutions today and were replaced where necessary by Ohio National Guardsmen.

Only 54 of 175 to 200 guards and supervisors reported at the state penitentiary in Columbus. A unit of 100 guardsmen augmented the guard force there.

About 80 guards reported at Mansfield Reformatory where 130 would normally be on duty. A unit of guardsmen from Akron was sent to Mansfield to stand by in case it was needed.

Adjt. Gen. S. T. DelCorso said no national guardsmen were sent into the Mansfield reformatory immediately.

Maury Koblentz, chief of the Ohio Division of Correction, said guard situations were normal at penal institutions at Lebanon, London, Marysville, Marion and Chillicothe.

Spokesmen for the striking guards at Ohio Penitentiary said they are seeking a $1,500 annual across-the-board pay raise. Koblentz said present wages start at $4,900 annually at all institutions except at the penitentiary where the starting salary is $5,240 annually.

He noted a bill pending in the legislature would increase the starting salaries at all institutions to $5,630, with a possible hazard pay benefit for guards at the penitentiary.

Guard spokesmen said the pay raise now under consideration in the legislature would only provide $150 more a year and "is inadequate." Guards also are asking for full hospitalization.

Koblentz indicated there would be no effort to implement Ohio's Ferguson Act which bars strikes be public employes.

"We expect to explore all legal activities," he said. "We will not make any threats but we do have to run the institutions."

Lt. Col. James Abraham commanded 110 armed guardsmen who marched through the penitentiary truck entrance at 6 a.m. He said 330 members of the 1st Battalion, 166th Infantry, were called up to rotate on eight hour shifts at the prison.

Lowell G. Ridenour, deputy warden at the penitentiary near downtown Columbus, said about half of the overnight force of 80 men volunteered to remain on duty.

"We accepted their offer," he added.

Ridenour said he had not de-

New B52 Bombing Attacks Aim At Reds Near Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has launched another B52 bombing campaign to harass North Vietnamese troops in the jungles north of Saigon, Military spokesmen reported today.

In a 24-hour period Monday and today, 36 Stratofortresses dropped more than 1,000 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese bases in the enemy's War Zones C and D. The strikes ranged from 71 miles northwest of Saigon to 55 miles northeast of the capital. Some were within 1½ miles of the Cambodian border.

Spokesmen said the bombing concentration in War Zone C is the heaviest of the war, with nearly 200 bombing raids flown along the Cambodian border in the past week.

The bulk of four North Vietnamese divisions is said to be concentrated in these two zones.

For the past four years, U.S. troops have battled enemy soldiers in the 2,000 uninhabited square miles of War Zone C, but all the fighting apparently has resolved nothing.

Two North Vietnamese divisions operating there have always been able to replace their losses from bases across the Cambodian border, using Zone C as a staging area for attacks into populated areas and allied bases to the southeast.

Sources said some captured documents mention another enemy offensive in the summer-autumn months, but intelligence officers have been unable to determine any firm trend. The aim of the stepped up B52 raids is to prevent the North Vietnamese troops from getting organized.

The Communists command's spring offensive, now in its 10th week, has tapered off sharply to about a dozen rocket and mortar attacks each night and only scattered ground assaults. Many of these occur in the 3rd Military Corps area, the most critical in South Vietnam because it includes the seat of government, Saigon.

Chief aim of these attacks is to inflict American casualties and undermine the influence of the Saigon government.

U.S. analysts feel the enemy is trying to make his presence felt in the 3rd Corps without any large commitment at present. The Communist command has placed one regiment from each of its four divisions in forward combat areas while holding the two other regiments from each division to the rear.

Aims At Conglomerates

U.S. Challenges ITT's Merger Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration trust-busters have made their second move in two weeks to short circuit the trend toward conglomerate mergers by filing suit against the giant International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

ITT was challenged Monday in Chicago's U.S. District Court on acquisition three days earlier of Canteen Corp., a national food and vending company with 1967 revenue of $322 million.

The Justice Department complaint charged the acquisition might trigger other mergers, a tendency government antitrust chief Richard W. McLaren says he means to stop.

ITT, the country's 12th largest business, thus joined Ling-Temco-Vaught Inc., the 14th largest, as a defendant in separate government lawsuits to slow the rate of economic concentration.

Justice filed suit two weeks ago to stop LTV's purchase of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

In addition to futher entering economic power in a company whose 1967 sales were $3.6 billion, the government suit charged, the ITT-Canteen merger would strengthen ITT's power to favor its customers with purchases, a practice called reciprocity.

In New York, a spokesman for ITT denied that allegation: "Under each of the companies' own policies of long standing, neither company has in fact engaged in reciprocity. We are confident, therefore, that the courts will rule that this suit is baseless in fact and law."

More than a year ago, on Jan. 1, 1968, ITT canceled plans to merge with American Broadcasting Co. because of long delays caused by Justice Department claims that ITT international interests might influence ABC news operations.

The new suit said ITT has 109,000 employes in its plants

Gov. Rhodes Firm Against Life Charges

Welcomes Probe After Democrats' Investigation Call

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes is standing pat on his formal statement denying allegations by Life magazine that has manipulated public funds while in public office.

He has made it clear that he won't discuss the matter further.

And, as he said in his statement, he defies anyone to prove him guilty of any wrongdoing.

Asked Monday night to comment about a Democratic call for a federal investigation of the charges, Rhodes said:

O'Grady asked Nixon to direct the Justice Department, under the "personal direction of Atty. Gen. John Mitchell, to make a full and comprehensive investigation of the charges raised against Gov. Rhodes."

Saying it is not a partisan issue, O'Grady told Nixon the people of Ohio "have the right to the full and complete information surrounding these charges against their governor."

Meanwhile, another Democrat came to Rhodes' defense,

Achievement Of 2 Objectives

Ship Pullout Off Korea Resulted In Goals Gained

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officers say quick achievement of two major objectives enabled President Nixon to order withdrawal of more than two-thirds of the 29-ship armada deployed off Korea only last week to protect U.S. reconnaissance flights.

One objective, military experts said, was resumption of Navy EC121 intelligence flights in the area without tempting North Korea with another easy, undefended target like the plane shot down April 15.

The other objective was to demonstrate to North Korean leaders that even though the United States is fighting a war in Vietnam it still can muster considerable military power elsewhere to defend American interests.

Whether military precautions or power politics was the bigger factor in Nixon's decision to rush a big fleet to Korea is a matter of speculation.

But the Pentagon's announcement Monday that 21 of the original 29 vessels in Task Force 71 had left the Korean area suggested the "show of force" aspect was uppermost in the President's mind.

"He made his point," one Navy admiral said. "Now we're gradually scaling down while still protecting our reconnaissance flights."

Tired Youths Steal Plane

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two youths apparently were tired of walking so they took a plan ride.

The 15-year-old boys drove a stolen car 25 miles to the Washington County Airport and flew off in a single-engine Piper Cherokee. They headed the aircraft towards Pittsburgh and buzzed several homes before returning to the airport.

Police arrested the pair in Pittsburgh Monday and charged them with stealing the plane. Police said the boys also took a car at the airport to return home.

Bolt Causes Interruption In Phone Net

Long - distance telephone and teletype circuits linking the East Liverpool area to the north and west were disrupted late Monday afternoon when lightning struck an underground cable five miles west of Wellsville.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said most lines were repaired by 12:15 a.m. today, and all were back in service by 6:30 a. m.

The bolt hit the toll cable which lies three to four feet below ground level, Robert Sauer, commercial manager for the utility, said.

More than four feet of the cable were virtually welded together and the insulation burned off by the bolt. A farmer provided a tractor for repair crews to get across plowed fields to the site.

The interruption affected circuits to Canton, Youngstown, Salem and other communities. The Review's teletype link with Waterford Park race track and other points was out of order.

Sauer said telephone calls were placed on an emergency basis for some time, being routed through Youngstown.

Phillis Gets 2-Year Contract

Native Of Salem Selected To Head County's Schools

LISBON — A native of Salem who began his career in education 11 years ago in southern Ohio will come home this summer as superintendent of the Columbiana County school system.

The county board of education Monday night gave a two-year contract to William L. Phillis, 31, of Minford RD 2 at $15,000 a year plus a car allowance of $600 annually. He will assume his new duties Aug. 1.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Phillis of Depot Rd., Salem RD 3, Phillis is superintendent of Minford Local Schools in Scioto County near Portsmouth.

He was graduated from Salem High School in 1954 and received his bachelor and master degrees in agricultural education from Ohio State University in 1958 and 1961, respectively. He is studying for his doctorate.

Latest Round In Fight Lost By Smoleski

The West Virginia Supreme Court at Charleston on Monday:

Refused to consider a petition in which Democrat Smoleski asked that the office be declared vacant and that Republican Ralph J. Patrick Jr. be ordered to give up the post.

Refused a hearing for 16 who sought reinstatement in the deputy sheriff jobs they held until a recount changed the November election outcome and installed Patrick as sheriff instead of Smoleski.

Both Smoleski and Patrick are from Weirton.

Criminal Trials Slated To Begin Monday For 18

LISBON — Criminal trials will begin Monday in Common Pleas court for Grand Jury defendants who pleaded not guilty at arraignment Monday before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

In addition to the 10 previously named defendants who pleaded not guilty in 11 cases before the morning recess yesterday, eight others entered similar pleas before and after lunch. They were:

John Wasson, 30, Akron, two Jan. 25 burglaries at Jarrett's Feed Supply Co. and Art Hole's Auto Co., both in East Rochester.

Fred T. Kidder and Gary Crowl, both of Lisbon, stealing two wheels and tires from a new car at the Lehman Ford Sales Lot.

Rachel J. Welker, Unity Rd., East Palestine RD 1, larceny by trick.

Charles Phillips, 32, Youngstown, receiving and concealing stolen property.

Robert E. Ammon, 25, East Palestine, burglary March 20 at Jim's Grill in East Palestine.

Eight defendants pleaded guilty as charged after the recess and asked the court for probation. Judge Buzzard ordered pre - sentence investigations and reports for:

Daniel Delp, Salem RD 1, burglary Nov. 26 at Suburban Market in Salem.

Virgil Paul Hutchison, 44 McCormick Rd., Salineville RD 1, and David A. Cheuvront, 23, of 727 Avondale St., East Liverpool, both charged with burglary Feb. 28 at Denzil Conger property on McCormick Run Rd. in Madison Township.

The arraignment of two defendants was continued. Two others are currently serving sentences in state institutions. Three others named in secret indictments have not been located.

Bill To Cut Size Of Pa. Senate, House Offered

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to cut the size of the state Senate by 20 per cent and the House of Representatives by 40 per cent was introduced in the Senate Monday.

The proposal requires a state constitutional amendment, and must be approved by two sessions of the General Assembly and the voters before it could become effective.

The state Constitutional Convention had an opportunity to reduce the size of the legislature in 1968 but failed to do so.

Boy Bitten By Spider Still 'Very Critical'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Todd Quester, 5, remained in "very critical" condition this morning at Babies and Childrens Hospital, where he is being treated for a spider bite. Todd, of Amherst, was believed to have been bitten by a brown recluse spider while playing April 18.

His condition worsened over the weekend despite administration of a serum flown to Cleveland from Brazil last Thursday. He stopped breathing Saturday night and was put in a respirator. His parents and doctors keep a 24 - hour vigil at his bedside.

Lisbon Sets Pay Boost For Street Head, Crew

LISBON — Council Monday night granted pay raises to the street commissioner and street crew, effective Thursday.

Commissioner Thirl Flugan will receive $475, a $25-per a month increase, while crewmen will be paid $2.25 per hour, up 25 cents per hour.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike announced that the Rotary Club will clean the community swimming pool bathhouse this evening.

The Kiwanis Club will paint the buildings at the pool, he said, and the Key Club of David Anderson High School will paint the pool itself.

Council voted to authorize repairs and expenses to get the pool in condition for the summer season.

The North Beaver street Church of Christ was given permission to break the curbing for two new entrances to its parking lot. Donald I. Hill appeared on behalf of the congregation. He said the portions of the existing entrances no longer needed will be curbed and filled in when the new drives are made.

Hill said the changes are necessary because of a proposed addition to the church.

Under suspension of rules, Council passed on three readings an ordinance prohibiting peeling of tires and "cracking exhaust noises." The new law will become effective in 30 days and carries a penalty of a fine of $25 to $200 and up to three days in jail.

First reading was given an ordinance authorized two weeks ago to prohibit the extension of water and sewer lines beyond the village limits.

Council rejected a park commission suggestion that 25-cent-per-hour meter be installed at the tennis courts to help pay for their maintenance.

Councilman Willis Coleman said the courts are in poor condition and should be resurfaced. An attempt will be made to obtain financial help from service clubs and individuals.

Sampson Quits As Budget Chief

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislative leaders were mixed today in their reaction to the resignation of Budget Seretary Arthur F. Sampson in the midst of Gov. Shafer's battle for his record $2.52 billion budget.

Sampson, the chief architect of the record spending proopsal and its accompanying state personal income tax has resigned effective June 1 to take a federal post, Shafer announced Monday.

By that time, the governor said, the "battle of the budget" should be about over.

House Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, disagreed, however, and added, "It was inconsiderate of Mr. Sampson to have pulled up stakes and departed at this time."

Fineman said the budget "ballgame is just getting started" and indicated the loss of Shafer's "closest fiscal advisor" is bound to hurt."

Sampson will serve under General Services Administration director Robert Kunzig as purchasing executive at $36,000 a year. He earned $25,000 a year here, serving in the dual cabinet positions of budget secretary and secretary of administration.

New Phase Of Campus Revolt

The full impact of the introduction of arms into the ongoing campus is yet to be determined. yet to be determined.

What happened at Cornell University will find application at other troubled institutions across the land in one way or another.

A band of Negro students occupied a building and took with them a good-sized arsenal. Their demands for amnesty were met to end the armed occupation of the campus building.

THE INCIDENT brought varied reactions.

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, a Negro psychologist and member of the New York Board of Regents, said the outrageous action stimulates the same feelings of revulsion and sadness experienced when the Birmingham police used cattle prods on civil rights demonstrators a few years ago.

The psychologist said: "These spectacles must be viewed as serious symptoms of deep disturbances which threaten the foundation of our society."

Examining the current wave of campus disturbances, he was sharply critical of protesters —white and black—whose tactics interfered with the freedom and rights of others.

Dr. Clark warned against regarding campus confrontation promoters as "mere random revolutionaries seeking any cause or seeking disruption for its own sake."

HE DECLARED that violent tactics are wrong but cautioned that cause of unrest "must be remedied by rational processes if our democratic society is to survive."

Author Clinton Rossiter, who also is a Cornell professor, said a university "is a place of controlled controversy and rational discourse . . . there is nothing rational about a gun."

A measure to outlaw firearms on college campuses drew widespread support among New York legislators.

Sen. Edward J. Speno, a Republican and a Cornell alumnus, said: "The threat of armed coercion has no place in American education. Let us not condemn our youth, but let our youth know we condemn what they have done."

"I can understand how people from the ghettos, the Afros, are lost up here. Even I had trouble adjusting when I first got to Cornell. The academic environment, the white society—I'm sure a lot of them never came into contact with this before they got here. It's all right to demonstrate, but not to seize buildings or carry guns."

A MINORITY of militant Cornell faculty members vowed to assist the students in seizing another building if the demands to nullify disciplinary action against five Negro students were not met.

Professor Rossiter, who had previously resisted student coercion, said he had been "forced by conscience and by the rational persuasion of students and faculty" to change his mind.

A minority of senior professors dissented and called the faculty action "abject capitulation" and "surrender to intimidation."

The Cornell faculty bought some time but what else did it buy? How long will it be before another disgruntled group of students—white or black—fall back on the tactic of threatening the use of arms?

SEEING HOW WELL armed occupation worked at Cornell, how long will it take for radical activists to adopt the method on other campuses?

It is our fervent hope that college and university leaders throughout the country will be able to head off armed conflict but the Cornell precedents of capitulation and impunity will make the job difficult.

It will be a miracle if all our citadels of intellectualism avert the spilling of blood.

OEO Has A New Chief

Donald Rumsfeld, the Illinois congressman who criticized the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) and voted against funds for its operation, today is singing a different tune about government antipoverty programs.

The difference being, of course, that he has just been named by President Nixon as director of the program.

MR. RUMSFELD, a campaigner for Mr. Nixon, now sees the OEO as "a very special mechanism . . . an incubator for ideas" which is charged with producing "precise and responsive solutions to problems" of the poor.

Mr. Rumsfeld's statement, released after announcement of his appointment as successor to Sargent Shriver, who resigned a year ago, reflected that his thinking is in line with the administration.

He said: "We have learned in some instances that our efforts have been less successful than we had hoped. We have seen that programs must be improved—for the sake of those they serve."

Mr. Nixon recently pulled the Job Corps and Head Start project from the jurisdiction of the OEO which he sees as "an initiating agency" which devises new programs to help the poor and serving as an "incubator for these programs during their initial experimental phase."

Mr. Nixon praised Mr. Rumsfeld for giving up his "safe" congressional seat to assume an "immensely important" but "controversial" assignment.

The new director expressed the thought that the new job carries a formidable challenge and he expects it to be "exciting" and possibly "discouraging."

The 36-year-old Princeton graduate summed up his projection of what the job means in these words:

"We must make progress in the painstaking process of aiding individuals to fulfill their potential, the heartening and sometimes heartbreaking task of gaining new knowledge. The commitment is to find out what works and what does not; and more, it is to put that knowledge to work, to implement it."

Which side of the fence you are on surely does make a difference in the way you look at a problem doesn't it?

IT IS SOMETHING akin to listening to a discussion of poverty by a poor man and a wealthy man—it often sounds as if they are talking about different topics.

Mr. Rumsfeld's position is unique—for not many people get a chance to bring their ideas to bear directly in an area where they have been extremely critical.

He is to be wished well in his endeavor for the solving of poverty programs is vital to the nation.

The Camera Protest

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There is some question as to what role the communications media are playing in student unrest. Most of us like to think we're just reporting the events on college campuses, but there is a gnawing suspicion that our role may be one of participant rather than observer. Have you ever wondered what might happen if the press and TV didn't show up at a student demonstration?

Art Buchwald

"OK, guys, we're taking the building. Is everybody ready for the attack?"

"Who was supposed to alert the TV stations?"

"I DID ALERT THEM. I said we were going to lock ourselves in at noon. They said they were covering the flower show at the Coliseum and they didn't have any cameras available."

"That's a hell of a note. It's just like the bourgeois, racist, capitalistic TV media to ignore the revolution. What do we do now?"

"Let's take the building anyway."

"What good will it do? There are no press photographers or newspapermen here either."

"Where are they?"

"I called up the papers and told them what we were going to do and they said they were too busy to cover another student takeover of a building. They said it wasn't news any more."

"Did you tell them we were going to tar and feather the dean of the law school?"

"Yeah, and they said to send them a press release on it."

"WHERE'S THE REPORTER from the school newspaper?"

"The school newspaper said they didn't have any student to spare for our demonstration, but they'd get a fill-in later from one of us."

"Boy, this isn't much fun. Hey, here comes a guy with a camera. Up against the wall! Up against the wall!. The university is a fascist cesspool."

"I get your pardon?"

Who are you shooting the film for, man?"

"My cinema class. Would you mind doing that again?"

"Get our of here."

"Somebody's got to come. What about the radio stations?"

"No dice. They said we could call in on their telephone talk show if we wanted to, but they're not sending anyone over."

"There's got to be some law that the press has to cover a student riot."

"If I had known nobody was going to be here, I wouldn't have missed my lunch hour."

"I want to read my speech telling why we are taking over the law building."

"Who cares? You wrote it for the press. As long as they're not showing up, spare us."

"I say we should takeover the law building anyway."

"What good will it do? Nobody will know we did it."

"It could keep us in practice."

"Why are you combing your hair?"

"Well, if nobody's going to take my picture, I might as well go to English class."

"WAIT. DON'T GO. Let's make new demands to the administration."

"Such as?"

"It's the administration's responsibility to see that our student demonstrations are covered by the press and TV media, and if they don't provide adequate coverage the university has three hours to live."

"Let's hurry. I promised my parents I'd be on the Cronkite show tonight."

Let's Hope It's Loaded

VICTOR RIESEL

New Anti-Mafia Strategy

WASHINGTON — On the desk alongside my typewriter are photostats of stock certificates issued to the late Cosa Nostra czar, Vito Genovese, by prominent and influential waterfront company. Don Vito did not have to infiltrate that business. He walked right in the front door.

Victor Riesel

And when he went to a well-earned prison cell, he merely transferred the stock to his brother Mike. But the influence of the boss of bosses hardly was gossamer. He got those company shares on May 13, 1955 — and he was persona extremely grata in company circles until death parted them.

The ever-embattled New York Waterfront Commission did the best it could. Recently in a quixotic mood, commission counselors even presented this evidence of Mafia influence in the vast New York harbor to the New York and New Jersey legislatures. The "lawmakers" couldn't care less.

As for the U.S. attorneys in the area, there just has not been enough manpower to pursue common criminals and defrauders as well as tackle the seven or eight major and minor Cosa Nostra families in the region — and dig into all business operations of dons, cappo regimes and button men (troops).

NEITHER HAS THERE been continuity Fighting the Mafia has been cyclical. The federals would move in, the cameras would zero in, the newsmen would pack in. There'd be an indictment or two, moral and juridicial and everybody would go away.

But now something new has been added — it seems. President Nixon's decision to set up 20 permanent federal anticrime field offices will supply that continuity, end the cycles, establish the struggle against organized crime and racketeering as a permanent institution.

If successful, these first 20 federal metropolitan antiracketeering centers will wipe out the Mafia as we have known it since the days it ran whiskey and murdered its way into the labor movement.

Once the field offices are operative, La Cosa Nostra (LCN, according to the FBI's code book; chiefs no longer will be able to winter it at cool watering places while the heat is on.

Despite undulating waves of investigations at five-year intervals since Tom Dewey went after Murder, Inc. and its blood brothers in the '30s, the crime syndicates are more powerful, wealthier and vastly more politically influential than ever before.

THIS ISN'T CYNICISM. This is fact. Just watch some congressmen line up on the appropriations and legislation requested by the President. They'll give him a hard time, though he has said — with low-voiced understatement:

"Not a single one of the 24 Cosa Nostra families has been destroyed. They are more firmly entrenched and more secure than ever before."

Mr. Nixon, on the advice of John Mitchell's Justice Department, plans to expand the antiracketeering strike force technique now used in eight cities. These will be turned into permanent units. Then, in coming months, four more headquarters will be opened — Kansas City, and New Orleans are expected to be the first. The other 12 headquarters will spread eastward from the West Coast, according to one Justice Dept. source. Eventually there will be units in such widely separated cities as Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Tampa.

They'll be well staffed compared with the current strike forces, made up of five attorneys and seven or eight investigators. At first they'll concentrate on the metropolitan center in which they set up shop. Some will move swiftly — as is the Newark strike force, now about to ask a grand jury for several indictments. Some will take a year, for without continuity, without any files, without many contacts, they will have to start clean.

THEN, IN A few years, as they form a grid across country, they'll be turned into regional offices. They'll fan out of the big cities and across each state. They'll funnel the information back to the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section, which may soon be upgraded to a full Justice Dept. division. Facts will be computerized. With an additional 415 FBI agents in the field, bringing the total to 6,800 (out of an FBI staff of 17,000), the computer's memory box hardly will be vacuous.

Furthermore, there will be no wasteful competition between U.S. attorneys or between the "locals" and the federals. There will be no battling for witnesses or cases. There will be memoranda of agreement on cooperation, jurisdiction, manpower and money. And about time, too.

There will be the pooling, for example, of wiretap information. In the past this has linked the mob with at least two members of the Congress — and it should be remembered that the authorities tap racketeers, not congressmen. It was the tap on the underworld which turned up the voices of those two members.

It will be more difficult for the underworld to communicate with their political protectors. It will be tougher to hold crime summit sessions, even out on a yacht, as the mob has done recently.

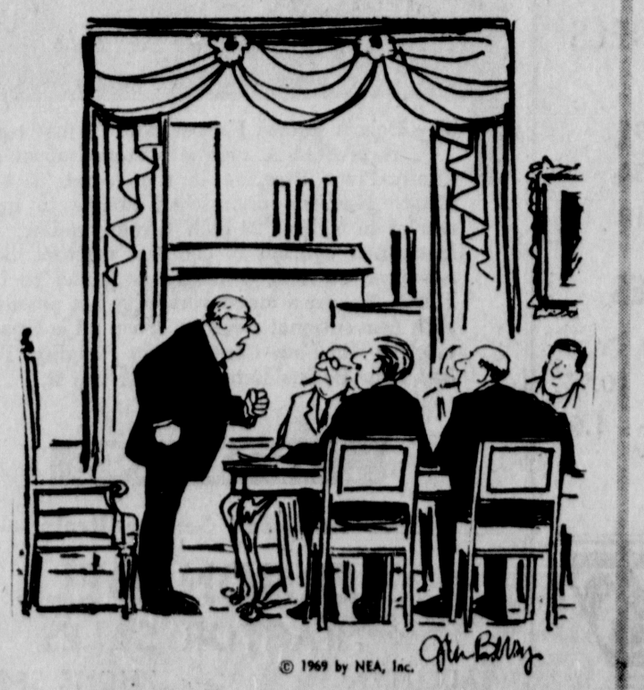

The 20 field offices will mean constant pressure, building of files, familiarity with the Cosa-Nostra operations on a street by street basis, business by business, local by local basis.

That is, if Congress comes up with the money — $61 million. It may not.

Odd Facts

The number of husbands who desert their homes, according to one recent estimate, is just about 14 times the number of wives who walk out on their families.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Government's Structure Hit

WASHINGTON — The big story in the national capital is not how President Nixon has fared in his first 100 days in office. It is rather, the tragic failure of that part of the American system of government which permits a majority from one political party to control both houses of Congress while a chief executive is elected from another party.

This means standstill government as the opposition party members not only snipe at the administration on legislative proposals for domestic affairs but actually interfere with the conduct of foreign affairs by emphasizing to the world a mood of dissension, if not irresponsibility. A pertinent question is: "What has Congress done in the last 100 days?"

THE AMERICAN SYSTEM is weak because the people do not have to vote for a party but may select members of Congress from one party and the president from the opposition party.

With all the suggestions for constitutional amendments being made in Congress nowadays — mostly about direct or popular election of presidents — not a single proposal has been offered which would give the American people a responsible system of government. This could be readily attained if the president and his cabinet were always an integral part of a majority organization in the Senate and House of Representatives. An analogous combination of leaders and prospective cabinet officers could be formed by the minority party.

The United States today is confronted with obstacles within Congress itself which impair the operation of a successful foreign policy. Thus, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a Democrat, acts and speaks on international questions as if he thought he had the powers of a president or a secretary of state. Again and again in the past a Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has done the same thing. A Republican senator in that post in 1919 blocked American entrance into the League of Nations which had been advocated by a Democratic president at the Paris peace conference after the close of World War I.

The amount of damage done to both national and international programs by the members of the opposition party in Congress in the last 100 days is considerable, especially in failing to support the government during maritime.

Long delays in enacting major policies of a domestic nature may be expected. In the end, the administration will find it necessary to modify its proposals considerably in order to win the necessary majority in both houses.

Whether it's a tax-reform bill, or a system for distributing public funds by an effective method of sharing with the states, or the enactment of a stern policy to deal with the riots and disturbances — plainly being instigated by groups in our midst with some foreign influence behind them, and hence subject to federal surveillance and prosecution — there is little progress being made on the legislative side.

Although the Democratic party has a majority in both houses of Congress, it has not presented in the last 100 days a program of its own in either house. Yet the Democrats control the chairmanships of all committees in the Senate and the House.

WHAT IS PRIMARILY lacking is a system of party discipline. President Johnson had a majority of his party in both houses for the last six years, but he, too, was faced with revolts. While a coalition of certain Republicans with Democrats produced for him a majority vote on some important pieces of legislation, this merely accentuated the lack of a system of party responsibility.

The American people in the 1970 election will vote to fill all the seats in the House of Representatives but only one third of the Senate. This is a lop-sided arrangement which makes it possible for the Senate to become Republican next time while the house stays Democratic. The people would be better served if elections were held every four years in which the entire membership of both houses had to go before the people along with the presidential nominees. This would at least be a start toward responsible government.

Through The Years

Science Post Turned Down

Nixon Reverses Position But Long Rejects Offer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, in a major reversal of position, has offered an important administration appointment to a man originally vetoed by the White House for opposing the Safeguard missile defense system.

But the man involved, scientist Franklin A. Long, says no thanks.

Following criticism from congressmen and scientists for letting politics override qualifications in selecting the new director of the National Science Foundation, Nixon Monday said the job would be picked on merit only.

The President also revealed to the members of the National Science Board and the National Academy of Sciences that after first approving Long's rejection he had asked the Cornell University vice president to take the job.

But presidential science adviser Lee A. DuBridge, who originally recommended Long for the job, said Monday Long was no longer interested because he found "the political situation distasteful to him and he preferred not to have it reopened."

After DuBridge recommended Long several weeks ago, White House staff members protested that he had publicly opposed Nixon's missile defense proposals and should not get an administration appointment.

Nixon backed up his staff at his April 18 news conference, confirming that Long's opposition to the proposed Safeguard project "would be misunderstood."

Asked why the President changed his mind, DuBridge said Nixon had "looked at it more carefully."

In his meeting with the scientists, Nixon asked for suggestions for the NSF spot and promised that he would pick the new director from one of the names submitted, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Nixon also said he would support the independence of the foundation and assured them of his interest in science and in international scientific cooperation, Ziegler added.

DuBridge was asked how the fresh Nixon stance would affect the scientific community. "I'm sure it will be tremendously pleased and encouraged," he answered.

Ziegler refused to discuss the politican implications of Nixon's position change, which could be considerable.

Two important Republican congressional figures—Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. James G. Fulton of Pennsylvania—had opposed Long's appointment and took credit for his original rejection.

4 Escapees Returned To Elkins Jail

West Virginia state police said the four, who escaped Sunday night while one held a knife to the jailer's wife's throat, were apprehended Monday. They are being held on federal charges relating to interstate transportation of stolen automobiles.

Police said Fred L. Bennett, 19, of Clarksburg was picked up at a friend's house in Clarksburg and John P. Emerson, 24, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, was captured on a rural Randolph County road at Lower Cheat Mountain.

Robert Knight, 21, of Newell and John Pierce, 33, of Burnside, Pa., were apprehended in the same area where Emerson was caught.

Killed In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Spec. 5 David M. Lacey of Mantua, Ohio, has been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

Magnesium is unique in that it weighs more after it has been burned, its ashes weighing more than the metal itself.

Tough To Keep Politics Out Of ABM, Critic Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leading Republican critic of President Nixon's Safeguard program says it is becoming harder and harder to keep politics out of the dispute over the missile defense system.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky made his observation in advance of today's appearance by Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard on behalf of the Safeguard before a closed session of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Cooper said he deplores the injection of politics into the coming Senate battle over whether to authorize a Safeguard go ahead.

"I'm afraid you can't keep politics out of it," Cooper said in an interview.

The Kentucky senator said he had been brought under no pressure by the Republican administration because he is not supporting the President.

"They couldn't have been nicer to me," he commented.

Previously Sen. Milton R. Young, secretary of the Senate Republican Conference, had complained about what he called partisan political attacks against him in North Dakota on the Safeguard issue.

In a statement to his constituents, Young also denied allegations that he is supporting the system because of plans to spend $150 million in North Dakota for one of the two Safeguard sites in Nixon's modified program.

Packard was invited to make the administration's case before the Republican policy group by Chairman Gordon Allott, a Safeguard backer. The Colorado senator left it up to Cooper and other opponents to name an opposition speaker for a similar session next week.

Youth Is Sentenced In County Burglaries

LISBON — Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court sentenced William J. Mort, 20, of Youngstown to the Ohio State Reformatory Monday for two burglaries.

The court terminated the defendant's probation granted Jan. 24, 1968, after finding he violated two conditions of his release on good behavior.

Mort had pleaded guilty to break-ins March 22, 1967, at Jan's Restaurant on route 7 and Carter's Market, New Waterford RD 1.

Judge Sharp sentenced Mort to 1 to 15 years on each count, but said the sentences may be served at the same time.

Be Careful, Your Vote on the School Levies Could Cost the City School System $1,353,628 in State Funds.

(53.7% of the total operating Budget.)

It's up to you. If the 12-Mill Renewal Levies fail to pass, the school system will lose $1,353,628 in state funds. Over half the operating budget. And this is money already paid out of your pocket, which will not be returned by the state unless the levies are renewed.

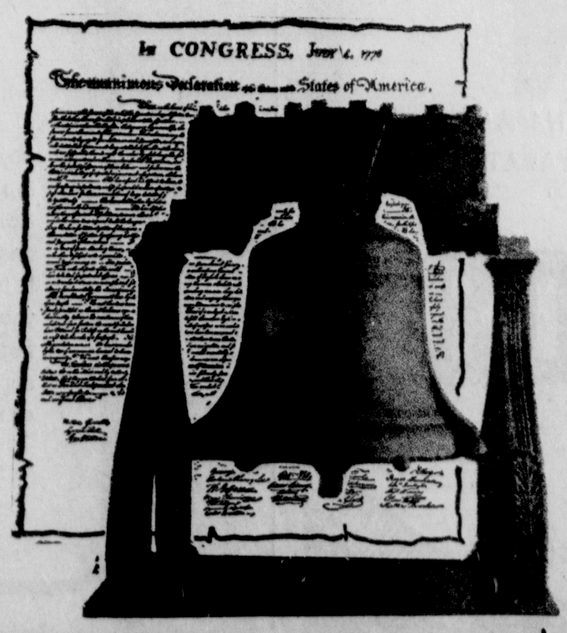

The Renewal Levies do not represent an increase in taxes.

The question you will vote on May 6, is whether or not to continue the school levies as they stand now.

By renewing this millage we will continue to receive State Foundotion Funds. We cannot operate without the 12 mills renewal and the State Foundation Funds, which together total almost three-fourts of our operating budget. The loss of these levies would put us in a very precarious position.

Look at it this way:

If you had the one and only deciding vote, could you vote against our youth?

Edison Local Sets Ballot On 2 Buildings, Repairs

Construction of two new elementary schools in Edison Local School district along with remodeling, repairing and updating other facilities are proposed in a $4,246,000 bond issue on which the voters will ballot May 6.

Serious overcrowding and lack of proper facilities have been cited by Supt. C. P. Henderson as problems of the recently - consolidated district which should be solved.

"All schools, with one exception, are overcrowded at the present time which makes it impossible to have the proper kind of an educational program which is so necessary today," he said.

"Several buildings are in need of repair, some were never entirely completed, others need new heating and ventilating systems, as present systems are worn out, while the lighting in some is very inadquate. Repairs of less major importance are needed in many buildings.

"The program was recommended by the school's architect and a representative of an engineering and planning firm after a very close examination and inspection of present buildings.

"EDISON LOCAL is a fast-growing district. The school population has increased by 1,200 pupils within the last 10 years. The greatest increase has been within the last three years, which has been due in part to people moving from the urban area to the rural areas. This movement has been due partially to the installation of water lines, and with the further extension of proposed water lines the school population will increase more than ever.

"At present there are 265 students in classrooms other than regular school classrooms. Students are housed in four church buildings and some are in portable buildings. This situation will become more acute with the start of another school year, and will continue to do so, until more buildings are provided. It is impossible to carry on a proper educational program under such conditions.

"The enrollment in each high school next year will be increased by approximately 40 to 50 students, which is going to create further problems in an already critical situation.

"There is not one empty classroom in the school district. At the present time there is no room for special education classes. The county psychologist has determined there are 180 pupils in the district that should be in special education classes. These are not mentally rtarded children, but they are classified as slow learners.

"AT PRESENT there is no room or facilities for music, art or adequate library facilities. In some buildings library books and reference materials are kept in storage rooms and issued to children, who must either take them home or to their classroom to be used, which is a very unsatisfactory situation.

"The Board of Education proposes, in addition to the remodeling and repairing program, to construct two new elementary schools known as "middle schools". These new schools would provide for grades 5 to 8. There are enough students in the district at the present time to justify the construction of the new buildings if properly distributed. Classrooms would not be overcrowded and all students would be housed in regular school buildings, and all students would again feel they are a part of a school. All present buildings would continue to be used as they are at present. This type of organization (middle schools) is in accordance with modern day trends in education and in line with the thinking of our best educators and the results of recent research.

"The buildings would be so designed as to stress flexibility, programmed instruction, flexible scheduling, team teaching and other innovations common to a progressive school today.

"Construction of these buildings will make it possible to improve, broaden and strengthen the curriculum through all grades. In the middle grades the following would be added: elementary guidance, music, art, physical education, homeeconomics, industrial arts, typing, foreign language (equal to one year of high school by the time a student reaches high school) special education at all levels.

"ONE NEW building would be located somewhere in the Knoxville - Pleasant Hill area, and the other one in the East Springfield-Richmond area.

Extensive repairs and remodeling would be made to the Knoxville, Pleasant Hill and Richmond elementary schools. New sewage systems must be installed at two of the schools. Remodeling of the music, home economics departments and library at Jefferson Union High School. A new automatic heating system would replace the worn-out coal-fired system at East Springfield elementary school.

"If there is a delay in the passage of this bond issue, the cost will be higher. Completion of this program will fulfill the reason for consolidation of the original school districts that make up the Edison Local School District," Henderson concluded.

Track And Field Meet Set For Hancock Youngsters

The first annual track and field meet for fourth, fifth and sixth-grade youngsters in Hancock County schools will be held Saturday, May 17, at the Weir High stadium in Weirton, beginning at 10 a.m.

The program, termed "Operation Physical Fitness," received final approval of the board of education during Monday's night's meeting at New Cumberland.

THE EVENTS will include dashes, broad jump, high jump, softball throw and relays.

The youngsters will be placed in four classifications for the competition according to grade, age, height and weight, John Kuzio, supervisor of the program, said.

Preliminaries are to be conducted at each school, with all first-place winners, boys and girls, from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades competing in the finals at the Weir High stadium.

Kuzio said he expects some 250 to 350 boys and girls to participate.

Each youngster will receive a certificate for taking part and badges or ribbons will be given the first five places in each event.

THE RULES and regulations follow:

1.—Each student will be placed in one of four classifications according to grade of school, age, height and weight.

2.—Each student is to participate in at least one event and no more than three events, which does not include the relay.

3.—Each school will be allowed to enter one girls' and one boys' relay team.

4.—Both a boy and girl winner will be selected in each event.

5.—All 25- and 50-yard dashes will be timed.

6.—Each youngster will be given two trials, with the best being recorded in the following events: softball throw, standing broad jump and running broad jump.

"We are hopeful that many parents will turn out to watch their youngster compete in this program. We are also hopeful that they will volunteer to help in running the program during the day," Kuzio said.

Those desiring to volunteer are to contact Kuzio at the Pupil's Servies Office in Weirton.

Driver Escapes Injury In Plunge

A Wellsville driver escaped injury early this morning when his car plunged down a steep embankment on Route 267, just south of Route 30.

The car was only slightly damaged, the patrol said. The accident occurred at 5:35.

City Will Push Requests For Project Help

A delegation of city, county and state officials will confer at New Philadelphia Friday with Ohio Highway Department representatives to push East Liverpool's request for state funds with which to undertake three major local highway projects.

East Liverpool started action in mid - April to obtain a share of the funds from a statewide bond issue approved by voters last November to help with improvement of Maine Blvd. and Shadyside Ave. and the city's share of the cost of extending the Freeway east into East End.

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey will represent the city government in the meeting at 10 Friday morning. Commissioners James Boyd, Charles Gause and Max Gard, and possibly Engineer Bert A. Dawson Jr., will speak for the county.

State Rep. Clarence (Dutch) Wetzel of near Lisbon and State Sen. Douglass Applegate of Steubenville also are expected to attend. Willshaw said the city is seeking to arrange the appearance of a representative of the Liverpool Township trsutees, as the proposed Shadyside Ave. improvement would affect both the city and the township.

The mayor and director and Engineer George Bloomgren conferred at Columbus April 17-18 with Wetzel and Applegate, discussing the possibility of obtaining state bond issue funds to assist with the three projects.

No One Injured In Area Mishaps

No one was injured in two automobile mishaps investigated by Wellsville police.

Police Chief John Hephner reported a two-car collision resulted when Leyman Pearson of 1321 Main St. swerved to avoid hitting a parked vehicle, and his car struck an auto operated by Iris L. Carpenter of Irondale RD 1.

A car operated by Timothy L. Madison of Salineville hit a parked auto on 15th St. The parked vehicle was owned by Charles Wright of 210 15th St. and was in front of his home.

Bomb-By-Mail Trial Due For Jury Today

CLEVELAND Ohio, (AP) — The bomb-by-mail trial of Orville E. Stifel II, a former Cincinnati laboratory technician, was expected to reach the jury in U.S. District Court late today.

Taking the stand in his own defense Monday, Stifel, 22, denied that he mailed the bomb that killed Daniel J. Ronec, 23, last July 8.

"We have a heat pump, and one of the advantages is that the same piece of equipment is used to both heat and cool the house, so the cost includes air conditioning."
Hayden Hannabass*

"I have a heat pump, and it costs me considerably less money because it's about twice as efficient. The ducts were already in existence, therefore, all they had to do was set the unit inside and the other one outside, and insulate. There's no reason at all why you can't install electric heat in any older home."
Raymond Dervin*

"We have a heat pump, and it's very economical! There's very little repair and if it's insulated and built properly it will compete or beat any other type of heat on the market. There's a definite guarantee on them and it's definitely no more expensive to operate. We've had it for 8 years and we're well pleased with it."

ANN LANDERS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I did a slow burn when that guy wrote to complain that his wife acts like she's doing him a favor once every two weeks. A timetable like that would have been heaven to me.

I married Aggie when I was 26. She was 22. What I thought was high principles turned out to be a pathological hatred for sex. From the night we married until I left her, 17 years later, Aggie wore underwear and ankle sox under her nightgown.

She also had this thing about lubricating her skin so it wouldn't wrinkle. At bedtime she put so much grease on, she looked like she was fixing to swim the English Channel.

And then of course there were the headaches and backaches and colds. She managed to get six colds a year, each one lasting a month.

I'm now married to a wonderful gal who knows that sex can be a bond that ties a man and woman together. My only mistake was waiting 17 years to lead a normal life. You print lots of letters from women who think their husbands are sex manics. Please print this one and help even the score. — ALIVE AND WELL IN DEYATUR.

Dear Alive: The score never will be even, but your letter helps balance it a bit. Thanks for writing.

The I.D. D.T.'s

Dear Ann: Why do people get belligerent and act insulted when they want to cash a check and are asked to produce identification? Don't they realize employes have to keep records? It isn't enough that a person has an honest face.

I work in a large store and I try to be as polite and considerate to our customers as possible. Yesterday when I asked for identification, she snapped, "Are you trying to say I'm a swindler"?

A half hour later a man threw his credit cards and driver's license in my face and yelled, "Some fresh punks just have to show their authority!"

I'm sure I'm not the only sales person who has this problem, so please print my letter. I'd like to tape it to the cash register and I'll guarantee you, so will hundreds of other employes. — ABUSED.

Dear Ab: Here's your letter and I hope it helps promote better understanding on the part of the customers.

Language Barrier

Dear Ann: Our 19-year-old daughter is a sophomore at a well known school in the East. Judy always has been considered one of the better brought up young ladies in this town. But her language since she has been away at school is appalling.

She uses some very dirty words in ordinary everyday conversation. Her father, half kidding, said, "When you were younger I used to wash your mouth out with soap and I might have to do it again."

Judy's answer was, "I tell it like it is. Words are only sounds. Get with it."

What should a parent say in response? — SPEECHLESS.

Dear Speech: A parent should say, "If you want to stay in this house you'd better use decent language to tell it like it is. We don't go for gutter talk around here and YOU'D better get with it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her incare of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hershey Warns Protesters Who Dispose Of Draft Cards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service chief Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says antiwar protesters who throw away their draft cards will continue to lose their deferments and be reclassified for immediate induction until the courts order the procedure stopped.

Putting such protesters first in line for the draft "has nothing to do with punishment," the blunt, 75-year-old Hershey said in an interview. "I get riled up when they talk to me about serving your country being punishment."

Hershey spoke after the Supreme Court Monday agreed to hear arguments next fall by two antiwar protestors who charge their reclassification was unconstitutional.

One of the protesters, 22-year-old David Earl Gutknecht of Gaylord, Minn., is appealing a four-year prison sentence for refusing induction after he was reclassified for leaving his draft card on federal building steps during an antiwar demonstration in Minneapolis.

The other, 21-year-old Timothy J. Breen of Westport, Conn., sued against being drafted after he was reclassified for giving his draft card to a Boston clergyman to protest the war.

Both gave up their draft cards within weeks of Hershey's October 1967 memorandum authorizing draft boards to take away draft deferments for such "illegal activities" and declare the violators delinquents, which sends their names to the top of the draft list.

American Civil Liberty Union attorneys for the two protesters say 537 students were stripped of deferments and put on 1-A delinquent status in 1968.

Legal Director Melvin L. Wulf said in New York the ACLU hopes the Gutknecht case "will be the central test of the power of Gen. Hershey to reclassify men as punishment for protesting the war in Vietnam."

Hershey's general counsel, Col. David D. Omer, said he welcomes the Supreme Court decision to hear the two cases and is confident the court will uphold the reclassification policy.

Failure of a potential draftee to carry his draft card is a specific violation of the Military Selective Service Act. The issue before the court is whether a man can lose his deferment and be reclassified to high draft status for the violation.

Hershey's position is that draft deferments for college or any other reason are a "privilege" and they are granted only when it is in the national interest

"Breaking a law is never in the national interest," he said, "and if they (young men) break a law, it's not in ths national interest to defer them."

Violation of the draft card possession law also makes them liable for top-of-the-list delinquent status rather than simple reclassification to 1-A, he contends.

Thief Obtains $30 In Wallet

A Substation area woman told police her wallet containing $30 to $40 was stolen Monday night in the New York Restaurant in the Diamond.

Mrs. Betty Grimm of Dome St. told officers she placed the wallet beside the telephone while making a call. Returning to a booth to get her coat, she remembered she did not have her wallet, but when she went to retrieve it, the wallet was gone, she said.

The incident was timed about 6:10. The money was mostly in change. The wallet also contained various keys, she said.

Two vandalism cases also were reported to police Monday.

Archie Pinkerton of 1066 Huston Ave. told officers yesterday afternoon a "director element" which is part of the antenna for his citizens band radio was damaged by a bullet within the preceding four days.

David Huffman of 1023 Edgewood Ave. reported the power radio antenna of his auto was bent and the right rear fender was scratched while the vehicle was parked near his home between 11 p. m. Saturday and 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Man Fined And Jailed In Hearing At Lisbon

LISBON — Roy Jeffery of 251 W. Washington St. chose an immediate hearing before Mayor Clyde B. Pike Monday night after being taken into custody during a domestic disturbance at home.

He pleaded guilty to an assault and battery complaint filed by his wife Ardith and to a charge of fighting with Patrolman Edward C. Dray, who placed him under arrest.

Mayor Pike fined Jeffery $100 and costs and sentenced him to three days in jail on the first count and $50 and costs on the second.

Then the mayor imposed a $50 disorderly conduct fine suspended Jan. 1 on condition the defendant be of good behavior.

Probe Of 'Loopholes' In Pa. Business Tax Laws Urged

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House had under consideration today a pair of resolutions proposing legislative investigations of so-called "loopholes" in Pennsylvania business tax laws.

One proposal, sponsored by Rep. John Hope Anderson, R-York, would authorize a joint investigation by the House and Senate and would require approval by both chambers.

The other, offered by Speaker Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, would enable the House to conduct the probe on its own in the event the Senate failed to act on the Anderson resolution.

Fineman said he would prefer a joint inquiry in a spirit of bipartisanship, noting that the Senate is controlled by Republicans and the House by Democrats.

"I don't want this investigation to get bogged down in politics," the House speaker said. Fineman added, however, that the House would proceed on its own, if necessary.

The House dominated action on the General Assembly Monday with the passage of several bills, including a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

Action was light in the Senate, but four senators from the Republican side introduced an amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

The key measure approved by the House would require the state to represent the consumer's interests at official proceedings such as utility and insurance rate hearings.

The vote was 103-92 with all the opposition coming from the GOP. Republicans maintained that consumer interests already were served by the state agencies that regulate rates.

Democrats argued otherwise and convinced two Republicans to vote in the affirmative. The two were Reps. Marvin E. Miller, Lancaster, and Francis Worley, Adams.

The House voted 149-46 in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would enable a verdict in a civil trial to be rendered by 10 of 12 jurors.

President Pro Tempore Robert D. Fleming, R-Allegheny, was among the four senators who proposed the amendment to reduce the size of the legislature.

Under the proposal, the Senate would be cut from 50 to 40 members and the House from 203 to 120. Similar legislation in the past has failed.

Former Resident To Have Role In California Opera

Mrs. Jeanne Henderson Withroe of Ontario, Calif., formerly of Glenmoor, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Henderson of Sub Station Rd., will appear in the opera "Carmen" Saturday at the Gardiner Spring Auditorium in Ontario. She will portray "Micaela."

Mrs. Withroe studied voice and was active as a soloist in various church and community affairs in East Liverpool and Wellsville. She has sung major roles in oratorios as well as trios and duets.

The Withroes, with their daughter and son, moved to California in 1964.

The 1970 U. S. census will be taken principally by mail. In March of next year, letter carriers will deliver census forms to all households. In major metropolitan areas, with 60 per cent of the total population, households will be asked to fill out and return these forms by mail on April 1. Census workers will visit only households failing to return forms or failing to answer all questions. Elsewhere in the nation, census workers will visit every household to pick up the questionnaires.

Education Unit Hits More Regents Power

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Higher Education Conference Committee, a group of five organizations concerned with higher education, voiced opposition Monday to giving the Board of Regents more control over state universities.

The position paper apparently was in response to proposed legislation before the legislature which would give the board more power over state-supported universities. The committee suggested that at least one faculty member and a student be inluded on the board.

75th Anniversary Marked By Eastern Star Chapter

The 75th anniversary of Crystal Chapter 18, Order of Eastern Star, was observed with a grand inspection Friday night at the Masonic Temple. Some 230 attended.

Mrs. Irene Thornbury of Washington Court House, worthy grand matron, was inspecting officer. She was presented an honorary membership certificate arranged on a lace crown by Mrs. Phyllis Eaton.

Mrs. Mary Matheny, worthy matron, and her husband, Elmer Matheny, worthy patron, presided.

The theme for the year, "Faith," was symbolized in decorations in the East, which was draped with a blue satin cloth and featured a glittering 75th emblem and a white cross entwined with flowers. A large replica of an uncut diamond was suspended over a basket of flowers at the West draped in pink satin.

White Bibles were presented by Matheny to the four candidates who were initiated. Mrs. Matheny read a poem, 'Star of Hope," composed by Mrs. Eva Beaver. Mrs. Marilyn Wagner sang.

Grand officers introduced were Mrs. Eunice Huston of Wellsville, who serves as Ruth; Mrs. Pauleen Wolfgang of East Palestine, deputy matron; Mrs. Evelyn Moesle of Massillon, representative to California; Mrs. Dorothy Jordan of Sebring, representative to Massachusetts; Mrs. Rowena Dusthiner of Danville, warder, and Mrs. Jessie Nagus of Sebring, past grand matron.

Members of Council and the Park Commission will confer at 8 and the commission will meet earlier — at 7 — with a group of residents from the 3rd St. area.

Plans for tonight's meetings were made Monday night when a delegation from the commission and a group of residents attended the Council session.

The city is attempting to purchase the old Central School site from the Hancock County board of education as a possible playground area.

Council will meet again May 12.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I improvise a delicious syrup for pancakes when I find I am out of the real thing?

A. — Try adding a little water and a dab of butter to some fruit jelly, and heat. It's finger-licking good!

Q.—How can I dry matches that refuse to strike because of dampness?

Q.—How can I treat scratches on furniture?

'Circus' To Be Theme Of Wellsville Festival

"Circus" will be the theme of the annual Wellsville grade school music spring festival Friday at 8 p.m. at Beacom Memorial Gymnasium.

Mrs. Louise Lawton, elementary music director, is in charge. A number of show tunes will be heard, including "The Impossible Dream" from the production "Man of LaMuncha" and "Tradition" from "Fiddler on the Roof."

Kindergarten pupils will portray circus "darlings" — first and second graders, balloon men; third graders, scarecrow clowns; girls from the fourth through sixth grades, tightrope walkers; girls and boys from third to sixth grades, who face clowns, who have worked out individual routines and stunts to be performed before their regular songs and dances.

Some 240 square dancers will take the floor at one time for two new dances. Emcees will be Gwen Gooch and Marva Carter. Approximately 600 students will participate.

Soloists include Carol Ann Hughes, Jody Welch, Gwen Gooch and Marva Carter.

A kindergarten student will be a "surprise" vocalist.

About 160 members and guests are expected to attend the annual spring dinner of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce Wednesday at the Country Club at 6:30, according to E. R. Chandler, executive secretary.

J. Ed Uland, executive secretary of the Greater Lorain Chamber of Commerce, will discuss "Where Do You Fit In The American Dream?"

Uland has been active in Chamber activities for years and served as statewide chairman of "Chamber of Commerce Week" for 1968-69.

Minor Damage Listed In Lisbon Plant Fire

LISBON — Police Sgt. Kenneth McKenzie saw flames in the Wright Buffing Wheel building on S. Market St. at 6:15 a. m. today and called the fire department and Gregg Ramsey, owner.

Police said there was minor damage. The blaze started from a pair of wet coveralls left by a gas heater to dry.

MRS. NORA STODDARD
Birthday Honored.

Open House Held For Woman, 80, At Home Of Son

Mrs. Nora M. Talbott Stoddard of Glenmoor was honored with an open house reception celebrating her 80th birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of her son, Charles E. Talbott of 1548 Globe St.

Mrs Stoddard was born April 26, 1889, at Tuppers Plains in Meigs County, a daughter of the late Edward Burton and Etta Heiney Burton. She was married to Charles G. Talbott, who died in 1941. She became the wife of Chester L. Stoddard in 1943. He died last Nov. 30.

She has another son, Kenneth E. Talbott of Cleveland Ave., and another daughter, Mrs. Leander (Maxine) Henson of the Y. & O. Rd. She also has two stepsons, C. Robert Stoddard of St. Clair Ave. and Lewis H. Stoddard of Shadyside Ave.

There are 16 grandchildren and 13 great - grandchildren.

Refreshments were served 50 at a buffet table covered with a deep pink cloth and centered with an arrangement of daisies, roses, jonquils and carnations. A large birthday cake and milk-glass appointments completed the setting.

The oldest guest present was Mrs. Myrtle Talbott, 85, of East Liverpool and the youngest, Jennifer Talbott, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Talbott of Pittsburgh.

The honored guest received gifts and cards.

Officials and diplomats at the Brussels headquarters of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization foresaw only a slow change in French relations with the Atlantic alliance and expected any dramatic developments.

De Gaulle pulled France out of most integrated NATO defense arrangements but maintained the nation's membership in the alliance.

France also continued its boycott of the permanent council of the Western European Union and stayed away from the councils regular meeting in London Monday. France has boycotted the biweekly meetings of the council since February, when the British enlarged the scope of the council's discussions. De Gaulle considered this an attempt to get around his veto of Britains membership in the Common Market.

Cite Mongolism In Offspring

By DIANA STOVER
Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fluoridation of public drinking water can, according to those against it, lead to poisoning of the user and Mongolism in their offspring.

Dr. Jonathan Foreman of Columbus, in testimony Monday night before the Ohio Senate Education, Health and Welfare Committee, said persons who drink fluoridated water may suffer chromosome damage, which in some cases would later result in Mongolism among their children.

Dr. Forman, the chairman of the National Medical and Dental Committee to Evaluate Fluoridation and president of the Ohio State Alliance against Fluoridation, testified against a bill to require statewide fluoridation of water supplies serving 5,000 or more persons.

Dr. Forman, however, declined to endorse the testimony of four other persons who appeared before the committee.

"What they know and don't know I wouldn't want to comment on," he told the committee.

Thomas McIlvain of Wyoming, Ohio, which has fluoridated water, told the committee he suffered fluoride poisoning from drinking the water and almost died from it.

"The doctors asked me if I had been exposed to rat poisoning," he said, saying they were at a loss to determine his illness.

At this point, the committee's chairman, Sen. Oakley C. Collins, R - 18 Ironton, suggested the McIlvain's testimony "was taking up a lot of time and getting us nowhere.

Collins sponsored the fluoridation bill.

Edith Bowman, representing the Citizens Committee against Fluoridation of Cincinnati, said "fluoridation is treating your body without your consent."

In other action, the committee recommended for passage a bill requiring all day care centers in the state to be licensed by Jan. 1, 1970.

To be licensed, a center would have to have at least 35 square feet of indoor space for each child and 60 square feet of outdoor space. Infants would have to be cared for in rooms separate from older children.

The bill sets maximum numbers of children for each staff member.

Administrators would be required to have at least a high school education and by Dec. 17, 1971, must have completed at least two years of training or have at least two years experience working with children and their parents.

In earlier legislative action Monday, the Senate received a resolution calling for Collins' committee to investigate conditions within the Ohio Penitentiary.

The resolution's main sponsor and committee member, Sen. Marigene Valiquette, D - 11 Toledo, said from "preliminary soundings out" with the Republican leadership, she felt her proposal has a good chance of being heard by the committee.

She said unless Ohio's penal system is overhauled there will be "further riots" at the century old prison.

In te House, a bill to permit jail or workhouse inmates to hold outside employment was adopted 81-8 after a vigorous debate.

The bill was a victory for Jim Thorpe, R-90 Alliance, who has sponsored a similar bill without success for the past five years.

The bill permits courts within a county to adopt a work-release program for prisoners if they want. Prisoners who qualify would pay their own board.

The House also sent back to the Judiciary Committee a bill calling for councilmen in non-charger cities to be elected to four year terms, instead of the two year terms they now serve.

The first one would extend the deadline for trials in small claims court from 20 to 30 days. The second would designate Ohio 72 beginning in Springfield as the "Simon Kenton Trace Highway."

Mental Health Group Meets

LISBON — Twenty - three attended a general meeting of the Columbiana County Mental Health Association Monday evening at the Courthouse.

The speakers were Judge Louis Tobin of Probate Court, Mrs. Edith Martsolf, supervisor of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, and Gordon Fediaczko, psychiatric social worker at the County Mental Health Clinic. They answered questions from the audience.

Dr. John W. Hayes of East Liverpool, president, was in charge.

Other East Liverpool residents present were Mrs. Christie Krafft of the Jaycee-ettes, Mrs. William Erwin Jr., Mrs. R. A. Wagner and the Rev. Allen R. Conway of the First United Methodist Church.

Salem area residents present were Mrs. Carey Jackson, Lillian R. Schroeder, Lozier Caplian, Mary Catherine Donahue, executive director of the Catholic Charities Bureau; the Rev. William W. Stickle, Episcopal church minister; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hawk Jr., East Rochester RD, and Richard Broomall, president of the Guilford Lake Ruritan Club.

Odd Facts

Employe Named By Water Board At Salineville

Madison will serve as a meter reader and general repairman for the water department at a salary of $145 a month. He will start Monday.

The board authorized estimates of water bills in the West End section for one period. Joe Weston, meter reader and assistant superintendent, resigned effective March 31, and the meters were not read.

It was announced scheduled installation of fire hydrants to replace four old ones have been delayed. Rain prevented the project last Wednesday.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. G. W. Chambers

Mrs. Gladys Chambers, 72, of 1057 St. George St., wife of G. Willard Chambers, died this morning at 4:05 at City Hospital after a long illness.

A native of Steubenville, Mrs. Chambers was born May 23, 1896, a daughter of the late George Hull and Neva Giles Hull. She had resided in this area virtually her lifetime. She was a member of the Second United Presbyterian Church.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. James (Roberta) Walker of East Liverpool; three sons, George W. Chambers of Clearwater, Fla., Donald F. Chambers of East Liverpool and Frank B. Chambers of St. Petersburg, Fla.; two brothers, Frank Hull and Donald Hull, both of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Neva Rencuf of Daytona Beach, Fla., eight grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Harold Sherman, who is pastor of the Second and Grace churches. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and night.

Edwin H. Mattern Jr.

Edwin Harold Mattern Jr., 22, of the Lisbon - East Fairfield Rd., Lisbon, a native of East Liverpool, died Monday at 6:10 a.m. at the veterans Hospital in Cleveland after being ill since last Dec. 4.

He was born June 1, 1946, a son of Edwin H. Mattern and Letty Lang Mattern, who survive at home. He was employed in the open hearth of the Midland Crucible Division of Colt Industries, working last in September 1968.

He attended schools in East Liverpool until his senior year, when he transferred to David Anderson High School at Lisbon, graduating in 1964. He served in the Army from Oct. 14, 1965, to July 19, 1967, including 14 months in Vietnam. He attended the Churchill Christian Church at Lisbon and was a member of Steelworkers Local 1212.

Besides his parents, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Loretta Blackburn Mattern; a daughter, Michelle Lee Mattern, and a brother, John A. Mattern, all at home; three sisters, Mrs. Terry (Scherry) Sine of Toronto, Mrs. Robert (Cynthia) Moser of Guilford Lake and Mrs. Paul (Phyllis) French of Lisbon; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Docia Mattern of East Liverpool, and his maternal grandfather, A. C. Lang of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Frederick Lauder. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and night.

Denise Friess

Denise Ann Friess, infant daughter of Ronald L. Friess and Linda Fitzsimmons Friess of Princeton Ave., Glenmoor, died this morning at 1:15 at City Hospital, where she was born at 12:15.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister, Deborah Sue Friess, at home; a stepbrother, Randall Friess of Wellsville; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Friess of Valley Trailer Court; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roger Fitzsimmons of Clarkson, and maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Bretch of East Liverpool.

The Dawson Funeral Home is arranging services.

Mrs. Anna Moore

Mrs. Anna Mae Moore, 89, of New Manchester, widow of James Harry Moore, died Monday afternoon at the East Liverpool Extended Care Center after a long illness.

A native of Beaver County, Mrs. Moore was born July 20, 1879, a daughter of the late Franklin Pierce Hutton and Harriet Amanda Smith Hutton.

She was a member of the Fairview Presbyterian Church. She was married April 3, 1901, and her husband, a native of the New Manchester area, died June 26, 1943. After his death, Mrs. Moore made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Gail (Norma) McHaffle, and a grandson James Moore.

She also is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Ruth) Allison of New Manchester; two sisters, Mrs. Edith Wycoff of Chester and Mrs. Grace Mountford of East Liverpool, six grandchildren and 11 great - grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Turley Funeral Home in New Cumberland by the Rev. Donald Bell of the Chester Westminster United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in the Methodist Cemetery at New Manchester.

Friends may call at the funeral home any time.

HAROLD MILLER
Honored In Ceremonies.

God And Country Award Received By Area Scout

Harold Miller, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Alderlick Rd., Wellsville RD 1, was presented the God and Country Award at the West Point Nazarene Church Sunday.

The Rev. L. D. Smith introduced Scoutmaster William Betteridge Sr., who presented Harold to the pastor for the awarding of the emblem. The pastor reviewed the significance of the scouting program.

Taking part in the ceremonies with Harold, who is a first-class Scout and the Hawk Patrol leader of Troop 59, were his parents and other members of the troop.

Randy Seckman gave the Scout's promise. Ushers were Billy Conrad and Gregg Betteridge.

craft carriers, as an indication of the risk Nixon attached to resumption of the EC121 flight.

"North Korea is a belligerent," he commented. "We didn't know what to expect. So we didn't go up there with a little stick; we took a big stick."

After "proving his point," the President had to consider the cost of keeping a sizeable Navy force in the area over any extended period—not only in terms of dollars but also in terms of assignments the Navy had elsehwere.

One carrier, for example, had been pulled from Vietnam waters to join the task force, cutting Navy bombing capability in the war zone by one-third.

Nixon also may have considered the possibility that a prolonged presence of many U.S. warships near Korea would have been construed as provocative.

"By pulling out most of the ships, Nixon showed he wasn't out looking for trouble," a civilian analyst said.

The Navy still has a considerable presence off Korea—the carrier Enterprise with more than 90 planes and seven destroyers.

While two carriers have left, Pentagon sources report that an additional squadron of F4 Phantom fighters—about 24 planes—has been sent to South Korea to beef up American air strength there.

Police Unit Sets Picnic Plans At Wellsville Hall

Plans for the annual Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police picnic were discussed at a meeting Monday at the lodge hall.

The event will be held at James Lake along Route 45. The date will be selected at the next meeting May 26.

Police Chief John Hephner, president, was in charge. Verification of debts for payment was aired.

Plans were discussed for electing a delegate to the state FOPA conference July 20-22.

An application for membership from Jess Warren Gill of Route 30 was approved.

Area Man Jailed For 3 Violations

A Wellsville man is serving an 8-day jail term on charges of resisting arrest, intoxication and escaping custody.

Donald Brewer of Commerce St. was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to jail by Mayor William Daugherty after he was taken into custody Saturday near 9th St.

Three motorists were fined a total of $70 and costs for failure to pay parking ticket penalties. They were Walter Carroll of 1728 Lincoln Ave., $22; Wilbur Jarvis of Commerce St., $36, and William Murry of 12th St., $32.

William B. Miller of 227 Center St., East Liverpool, forfeited a $20 bond for traveling the wrong way on a 1-way street.

Police Chief John Hephner has issued a warning to motorists who are operating cars with invalid licenses or to owners of parked inoperable autos. He said such owners will be prosecuted, and the autos towed away.

Donald Rupert of New Waterford, county board president, said Phillis was one of 19 applicants for the position. He will succeed James L. McBride of Lisbon, county superintendent since 1950 and an educator 42 years. Mr. and Mrs. McBride, librarian at Beaver Local High School, plan to move in June to Alliance, where their daughter Jayne attends Mt. Union College.

Phillis is a member of the Ohio Education Association, the Ohio Association of School Administrators and the National Education Association, the President's Advisory Council of the Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, W. Va., and the Advisory Council of the Midwestern Children's Home near Cincinnati; secretary of the southeastern Ohio Unified Purchasing Committee, and treasurer of Fort Hill Christian Youth Camp near Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillis, the former Betty Lou Reeder of Columbus, are members of the Church of Christ. They have two daughters, Kimberly, 11, and Tamera, 8.

The new superintendent's sister, Miss Wanda Phillis, is a caseworker for the County Welfare Department. He has four brothers — George, James and Samuel, all of Salem RD 3, and Lowell of Yale.

The county board interviewed Phillis here last Thursday night. Rupert talked with him by phone last night and invited him to a combined meeting of the county board and four local boards in June. United, Fairfield - Waterford, Beaver and Southern Local boards make up the county system.

McBride read to the board a letter from William Oliver of Steubenville, a field consultant for OEA, who requested "a meeting with you and the county board of education" concerning the salary increase granted Lorin Ruff, elementary supervisor for the county school system.

In granting raises for the county office staff last December, the board increased Ruff's salary $700 per year, $300 less than the increases given the school psychologist and high school supervisor.

The board directed McBride to invite Oliver to the next regular meeting May 19.

McBride was given permission to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio School Superintendents Association in June at Lincoln Lodge, Columbus.

ITT acquisitions in 1968 alone included Continental Baking Co., the nation's largest; Sheraton Corp., one of the two largest hotel chains; Levitt Sons Inc., a major homebuilding firm; Avis Inc., No. 2 in car rentals; and Rayonier, a leading producer of chemical cellulose.

ITT appears to be the kind of corporate supergiant that Asst. Atty. Gen. McLaren referred to last month when he announce plans to move against conglomerates. saying such articles touch off "witch hunts" on the basis of rumors.

State Rep. Patrick A. Sweeney of Cleveland said the magazine article "is filled with innuendoes and I do not believe this type of reporting is good regardless of what party the accused is a member of."

"They impung the character of our chief executive and they do it with no facts," Sweeney said.

Sweeney is one of the chief backers of a code of ethics for all branches of state government. He said the magazine article is "either going to kill a conflict of interest bill or enhance its chances of passage."

Sweeney said if the bill, currently pending in the House, existed now it would have given the magazine a chance to separate rumor from fact before proceeding with the "damaging" article.

Prosecution To Rest In Evans Trial Today

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The prosecution was expected to rest its case today, one month and six days after the start of the first-degree murder trial of Black Nationalist leader Fred "Ahmed" Evans.

Evans, 37, is charged with three sniper slayings during a gunbattle with police last July.

New Officers Selected For Chester PTA

Mrs. Lynda Reynolds was elected president of the Chester Intermediate and Junior High Parent - Teacher Association for the 1969-70 school term Monday night at the school.

Others named are: Mrs. Jean Whittington, vice president; Mrs. Sandra West, secretary, and Mrs. Ilene Arner, treasurer.

The meeting opened with a poem by Mrs. Fern Flowers. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. B. Rose of the Chester Church of the Nazarene.

Mrs. Sara Lou Miller introduced Mrs. Verna Robinson of the Hancock County Child Welfare Daprtment, who reviewed services rendered. A question-and-answer period followed.

Mrs. Margaret Watson, vice president, conducted business in the absence of the president, Mrs. Whittington.

It was announced the intermediate students will participate in the Hancock County Field Day May 17 at Weir Junior High School.

Mrs. Watson asked for volunteers for a Block Mothers Committee in Chester. Those interested are to contact Mrs. Whittington.

The meeting was ajourned by Mrs. Watson.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mabel Lowers and her committee.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of Hancock schools, will be guest speaker at the May 19 meeting.

Award Given Key Club At Beaver Local

The Beaver Loocal Key Club was the recipient of the Governor's Award for outstanding service over the past year during the 20th annual Ohio District Key Club convention in Cleveland over the weekend. Nine members attended.

The award was presented by Gov. Rod Wynkoop of Findlay and was accepted by Keith Steiner, president, on behalf of the club.

The local organization was rated fifth in the almost 200 clubs of the Ohio District on the basis of "over-all service to school and community."

Steiner, who has stepped down from his one - year term as secretary of the Ohio District, also was recognized for his service.

The convention, at the Pick-Carter Hotel, attracted about 900 Key Club members and Kiwanis advisers. The theme was "Influence Through Example."

Dixie College Building Held By Students

By The Associated Press

About 30 students, some armed with guns and knives, held the administration building of predominantly Negro Voorhees College in South Carolina today but school officials said they would take no hasty action.

Probers In Pueblo Case Say

Code For Captured GIs Seen Code Of Confusion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen probing the North Korean capture of the USS Pueblo say the code of conduct for captured American servicemen is really a code of confusion.

"Rather than stricter or looser the code should be clearer," said Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee investigating the capture of the Pueblo and its crewmen. "I certainly think the confusion Monday made that manifest."

Pike referred to a parade of Pentagon officials who tried to explain the regulations governing the surrender of the Pueblo to the North Koreans and subsequent false confessions by crew members.

Committee members zeroed in on what they termed inconsistment, vagueness on information the enemy can be supplied, and absence of guidelines for surreder of a ship.

Vice Adm. Charles K. Duncan, chief of naval personnel, described the code as a "professional and inspirational' guide that needs no revision at this time.

However, Adm. Joseph B. McDevitt, the Navys chief lawyer, said violators of the code technically can be prosecuted.

"But it is not the policy of the Navy to punish violation of the code," Duncan injected.

And both men agreed that sections of the code are extensions of the Uniform Code of Military Conduct. Violators of the uniform code are subject to court martial.

"On one hand they say the code is inspirational and professional," committee member G. William Whitehurst, R-Va., complained in an interview.

"But on the other hand they say if you violate some sections you can be wrapped up (prosecuted) either under a general order or the uniform code," he said. "You can't have it all three ways."

Another puzzler came from testimony by Brig, Gen. Leo A. Benade, a deputy assistant secretary of defense, who commented on a section that says a prisoner of war is "bound to give only name, rank, service number and date of birth."

Twelve highway patrolmen armed with shotguns also entered the prison.

Twelve men formed picket lines at a walkway and two vehicle drives at the prison. They are members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes Union.

One picket carried a sign stating, "Prison Guards Day of Mourning." This referred to a "day of mourning" called for some state workers by spokesmen for the State Employes Union in a protest of present wages.

The prison, scene of a major fire and two riots last summer, now has 2,307 inmates.

Ridenour said they would eat on schedule but that some prison work would be curtailed "until we see how we stand." This would affect the machine shop, shoe factory and printing shop.

"We'll have recreation for the men if the weather permits," he added.

National Guardsmen were asked to be on standby at the Mansfield Reformatory if they are needed.

"We have an alert out," said Bernard Barton, associate superintendent.

"Should there be any need they will be ready."

Barton said there were some pickets in front of the reformatory.

Officials at other state penal institutions indicated they also expected labor problems among guard forces.

Guardsmen called up for service at the pen are from companies of the 166th Infantry Regiment stationed here, at Worthington and at Tarlton in Pickaway County.

James W. Smith, President of Local 1148 at the penitentiary, said Monday night the guards voted to strike because the state has not met their demand for a $1,500 a year across-the-board pay increase.

Smith said the guards work in 12-hour shifts that change at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. He estimated that 80 guards were on duty behind the galls overnight.

Warden Harold J. Cardwell predicted that a majority of the prison's guards would participate in the strike.

Ohio Corrections Chief Maury C. Koblentz indicated confidence that the troops could effectively maintain security.

Smith said that the prison guards, by voting to press their demands for a $1,500 raise, were rejecting provisions of an administration bill currently before the legislature that would raise salaries of 87 per cent of state employes by a maximum of $832 a year.

The AFSCME is demanding a $1,500 annual pay hike for all of the state's 45,000 employes. It has set Wednesday as the start of a "period of mourning," which could mean a strike by another 6,000 state workers who belong to the union.

By striking a day ahead of the "mourning" date and getting the jup on other state employes, the prison guards called public attention to their grievances.

Smith refused to confirm or deny that this was the reason for the action.

New Awards Captured By Vi-Lar Group

Four first - place awards were won by the Vi-Lar Kadettes Baton and Drum Corps of East Liverpool in the opening of another season's competition Sunday at Leavittsburg, Ohio.

In solo events, Tammy Reed took first place in intermediate, 7-8 years; Lavern Cochran, first in military and fourth in intermediate, 11-12, and Marsha Joy first in intermediate, 0-6, and second in military strutting. Also winning honors were Susan Williams, fourth in advanced, 9-10 years, and Gloria Creaturo, fourth in intermediate, 7-8.

The Kadettes will open their parade season Saturday here and in East Palestine. Members of the corps are reminded of the dress rehearsal Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Thompson Park.

The Vi-Lars Senior NBTA Corps will compete at Berea May 11. On June 28, the Vi-Lars will defend their state title at Fairfield, near Cincinnati.

Model Cities Program To Be Revamped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is revising the controversial model cities program with the hope of eliminating confusion over who is in charge at the local level—the citizen or City Hall.

Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney indicated at a news conference Monday that this was a principal aim of seven revisions to the program that Lyndon Johnson reportedly believed as he left office was the best instrument in the war on poverty.

"Final authority for the city must be the local officials," Romney said.

"If the citizens do not think the officials are wise, they can get rid of them" presumably through the electoral process, Romney said.

Created by Congress in 1966, model cities has cost the taxpayer $23 million in three years with not one program for the 150 cities involved yet out of the planning stage.

The model cities' concept is an integrated approach to solving the problems of the urban poor with across the board improvements in housing, schools and recreation.

Critics argue the program is vague and that spending could get out of hand. Some opponent also forecast the program will turn into a "domestic Pentagon," gobbling up huge expenditures without noticeable result.

Court Orders Man's Arrest

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Ohertoff today ordered a bench warrant for the arrest of a 24-year-old Wellsville area motorist who failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of driving 72 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone in the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

Louis R. Joy of Wellsville RD 1 was cited Monday at 9:47 p.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol, which said he was clocked with radar equipment. An officer said he started in pursuit of the defendant and clocked him at 75 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone just inside the Wellsville corporate limits.

When Joy did not appear for the hearing, the court forfeited his $27.50 appearance bond and also ordered the warrant for his arrest. The patrol's report to the court included a copy of a record from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles showing Joy has had four citations for speeding, two for improper passing and one for crashing a stop sign.

Meanwhile, Linda M. Jividen, 18, of Glenmoor was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Wellsville Rd. She was cited by the patrol Monday at 10:41 p.m.

Alfred T. Delphia, 55, of Steubenville forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, also on the Wellsville Rd. he was cited by the patrol Wednesday at 12:43 a.m.

What you should know about auto insurance profits

If you believe everything you hear or read about the tremendous profits of auto insurance companies, you might feel you are being overcharged. But before you reach that conclusion, here are some facts you should know.

As a group, the auto insurance companies based in Ohio didn't make a penny of profit directly from money paid by their customers for insurance protection during the five years from 1964 through 1968. In fact, over the five-year period, the companies suffered a slight loss in daily operations.

These insurance companies did have net investment earnings of about 4½% during this five-year period — to be exact, $4.52 on every $100 they took in. All of the $4.52 net earnings came from investment income and increased market value of securities. It's what was left after deducting operating losses, Federal income taxes and policyholders' dividends.

That's not too bad. But it's not tremendous profit either. You could earn about as much from a savings account in a local bank.

And, of course, the increased market value of securities isn't actually cash on hand. It's only a paper figure. It could increase if the stock market goes up, or it could decrease if the stock market goes down — as it has for the past several months.

Anyway, what has happened to this $4.52 of earnings—or profits?

Well, about 29¢ of it went to pay dividends to stockholders of the stock companies. They're the people who put up the money—who risked their money—so the companies could get into the insurance business in the first place.

The rest of the earnings — or $4.23 out of $100 of income — was put into policyholders' surplus.

WHAT IS SURPLUS?

Surplus is an insurance company's policyholder protection fund. Surplus is money set aside — and required by law to be set aside — to assure payment of all legitimate claims and expenses. Surplus is used to pay claims and expenses when premium income falls short, as has been the case for Ohio insurance companies frequently in recent years.

The amount of surplus an insurance company has determines its capacity—that is, it determines the amount of business the company can safely handle. So insurance companies must continually strengthen their surplus funds as the demand for insurance coverage grows. And the number of cars on the highways is increasing at the rate of about 4% a year.

NOTE: All statistics shown are the combined figures of 18 companies that write about 90% of the auto insurance business handled by Ohio-based companies.

WHAT HAPPENS TO $100?

HERE'S WHERE IT COMES FROM—

$3,645,163,000	Earned Premiums from Policyholders	$ 94.33
144,644,000	Income from Investments	3.74
74,627,000	Increased Market Value of Securities	1.93
$3,864,434,000	Total Income from all Sources	$100.00

HERE'S WHERE IT GOES—

$2,523,179,000	Claims and Claims Adj. Expenses	$ 65.29
1,122,480,000	Underwriting Expenses	29.05
25,686,000	Policyholder Dividends	.66
17,249,000	Federal Income Tax	.45
1,195,000	Miscellaneous Expense	.03
$3,689,789,000		$ 95.48
11,317,000	Stockholder Dividends	.29
163,328,000	Earnings (added to policyholders' surplus)	4.23
$3,864,434,000		$100.00

CAN AUTO INSURANCE RATES BE REDUCED?

If auto insurance companies earned 4½% over the past five years, couldn't rates be kept where they are? Or better yet, couldn't rates be reduced a little?

Yes, theoretically. The companies could live on their investment earnings and their surplus. For a while.

For how long? Well, nobody knows, because nobody knows for sure how many accidents there will be next year, or the year after that. We do know that the trend is upward, and it costs a lot more to fix a wrecked car today than it used to.

But if we can't predict the future, we can say some things with certainty about the past. Let's take a look at the past few years:

Suppose—just suppose—that the rate increases of just the past three years had not been made. Suppose you had paid the same rates in 1968 that you paid in 1965.

If that had happened, Ohio based auto insurance companies would have lost more than $150 million in premium income — which would have put some of them out of business. Completely. And a lot of people wouldn't have auto insurance.

That's not theory. It's plain mathematical fact.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

A Bra Problem Solved

DEAR HELOISE: My daughter and I had trouble with our bras showing when we wore sleeveless dresses, but we came up with what we think is a very clever idea.

Heloise

We loop each end of the bra through its own armhold, causing a flat fold at the bottom of each armhole of the bra, narrowing the fabric under the arm pit.

Of course, we know some bras are cut low, but we seldom buy them.

MRS. E. V.

I'll kiss you. I was a "doubting Thomas," but you were right. And the amazing thing is that the fold lies so flat there isn't any extra bulk to show through.

It's letters from gals like you that really make my day.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When you go shopping and come home with a trunk load of sacks, many times you find the bags are ripped.

So I take my laundry basket or cart out to the car and pile it with my purchases.

This not only saves many trips, but shattered nerves when a bag breaks open and the contents spill out on the ground.

MRS. IVAN HOWARD

DEAR HELOISE: Recently I hit upon a wonderful discovery as I was knitting and finding it hard to keep track of the rows. I happened to think of my golfer's scorecaddie.

I just strapped it onto my wrist like a watch, and at the end of each row I could punch the button without even putting my knitting down.

MRS. L.D.H.

DEAR HELOISE: When freezing bread or buns, I always find frost inside the package when I remove them. How do you get rid of the frost or keep it from forming?

I have tried knocking it off after removing it from the wrapper, but it seems that the bread is not as moist. Is this moisture accumulated from the bread?

If so, how do I get the moisture back into the bread? Because we buy lots of bread and rolls at one time, I would appreciate anything you can do to help me.

MRS. S.A.B.

Honest to goodness . . . I don't know the answer to that one.

If anyone has a sneaking idea, do take time out to pick up that pencil and let us in on the secret. Just address your letters to me in care of this very paper you are reading now.

HELOISE

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I added another shelf in my pantry and used a tin of sauerkraut, creamed corn, apple juice and Irish Stew (all foods that my family are not vary fond of) to hold it up. It worked beautifully and I had an extra shelf.

Later, I was rummaging in the pantry and my husband asked me what I was looking for I told him I thought I had a tin of red salmon on hand. And he said, "Are you sure you haven't got it holding up a shelf somewhere?"

MRS. F. WALTON.

DEAR FOLKS: If you are the kind of glue that comes in two tubes and must be mixed together before using, try this idea.

After removing them from the package, take a rubber band and put it around both tubes. This way you will never lose one of them when the time comes to use it again. They will always be together.

Hancock's Board Okays Salaries

The Hancock County board of education Monday night approved a new teachers' salary scale in line with the West Virginia legislature's action calling for increases amounting to $1,000 per teacher.

The scale approved in Hancock includes:

4th class - certificate, from $5,075 with no experience to a maximum of $5.870; 3rd-class certificate, $5,375 to $6,559; 2nd-class certificate, $5,618 to $7,-150; A.B. degree, $7,133 to $10,-030 after 15 years experience; A.B. degree with 15 hours, $7,-391 to $10,288 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree, $7,649 to $10,742 after 15 years experience; A.M. degree with 15 hours, $7,908 to $11,000, after 15 years experience, and an A.M. with 30 hours, $8,167 to $11,632.

IN ORDER "to establish better communications and rapport," the board named two committees to meet from time to time with both the teachers and classified personnel.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of schools, will serve as an ex-officio members of each group.

Twin State Motors of Steubenville received the contract on a low bid of $4,440 per chassis (including power steering) and Superior Coach Sales of Powhatan Point received the contract for bodies (including trade-in allowance) on a low bid of $3,539.50 per body.

Other bids on the chassis, for a 66-passenger bus, were Snodgrass Sales and Service, Weirton, $4,720 and Cattrell Motor Co. of Weirton, $4,434.

Other bids on the bodies were Ateco Equipment Co. of Wheeling, $3,565; Myers Equipment Co. of Canfield, $3,658, and General Truck Sales Corp. of Charleston, $4,060.

Board members pointed out that an orthopedic bus was not recommended at present because there is a chance that it may be obtained through Special Education Title VI.

IN OTHER action, a low bid of $5,890 from the Trushel Construction Co. of Weirton was accepted for the erection of a concrete wall as part of a landscaping program at the Weirton Heights Eementary School.

The other bid was $6,550 from the James White Contruction Co. of Weirton.

The wall will be built and fill hauled to correct hilly and deeply - eroded terrain at the site.

In addition to the wall, the board will provide fencing. The city of Weirton has agreed to provide the fill and equipment to do the leveling board members said.

The Greco Plumbing and Heating Co. of Weirton, on its low bid of $940, was awarded a contract to install a new water line at Liberty School to correct a low - pressure problem.

The other bid was $1,050 from White Construction.

Permission was given for the Oak Glen High School band to participate in Memorial Day services May 30 sponsored by the Chester American Legion at Locust Hill Cemetery and for the Weir Junior High band to take part in the Strawberry Festival at Buckhannon June 6 and 7.

Officers Probe 2 Hit-Skip Cases

East Liverpool police are investigating two hit - skip traffic mishaps reported Monday afternoon and early today.

Linda K. Shields of 616 Broadview Circle told officers the left side and rear of her 1969 two-door sedan were damaged at 12:59 this morning as she drove off the Chester Bridge approach at E. 3RD St. Her auto was struck by an oncoming car which continued across the bridge without stopping, she said.

Mrs. Sarah C. Phillips of Canton St. told officers the rear bumper of her 1962 coupe was damaged by a hit-skip auto while parked on Broadway at Diamond Alley between 2:45 and 4:15 p.m. Monday.

Senior Citizens At Wellsville In Varied Program

A corsage was received by Mrs. Genevieve Henthorne as "Queen for a Day" when the Golden Links Senior Citizens Club of Wellsville met Friday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bertha Reed, president, and the group welcomed visitors, Marion Rose and Margaret Martin of East Liverpool and Mrs. Wanda Dickey of Wellsville.

The program included readings by Miss Marie Headley, Mrs. Gertrude Wilkinson, Cliff Baughman, Mrs. Florence Wilkinson and Mrs. Rebecca Kinzel; vocal solos, Mrs. Dickey; vocal duet, Baughman and Louis Provost; proverbs, L. P. Perry, and recitation, Provost.

Final plans were named for the bus trip to the glass factory at Williamstown, W. Va. Reservations are due with Mrs. Reed or Mrs. Kinzel by Friday.

Announcement was made that the month of May has been designated as "Senior Citizens Month" in the U.S.

The group will meet again Friday at 1:30 p. m. in the church.

Leslie Higgins Wins Honors In Twirling Field

More honors in baton twirling have been won by Leslie Anne Higgins, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Higgins of Glenmoor.

Miss Higgins, seventh-grader at St. Aloysius School, placed first in beginners' military strut in the Kibo and Cherry Hill contest at the Akron Armory Saturday.

The victory placed her in the advanced military strut category and made her eligible to compete last Sunday in the seventh annual William McKinley national baton Class "A" event at Leavitisburgh, where she placed third.

Miss Higgins recently received trophys for intermediate solo baton twirling during contests at Ashland, Ohio, where she finished fourth, and at Pleasant Hills, Pa., where she was second

Accord Ends Toledo Grain Millers Strike

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A week-long strike that has halted grain shipments out of the Port of Toledo ended Monday with agreement between the Board of Trade and the Confederation of Grain Millers on a new 23-month contract.

Federal mediator Harry Webber announced agreement but did not dislose the details.

Teachers Salary Increase Bill Is Signed By Shafer

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill increasing teacher salary minimums to $6,000 is now law, but Gov. Shafer warned that money still must be found to pay for the measure.

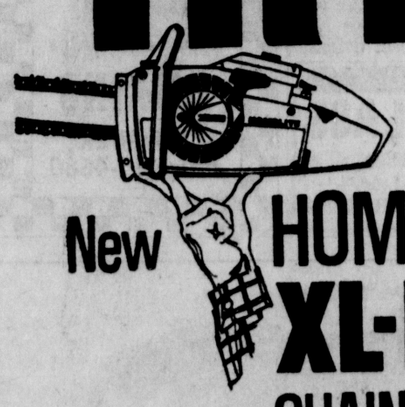

"I am not at all pleased that the General Assembly passed the bill before deciding where to get the money to finance the cost," Shafer told a special news conference Monday.

Shafer also warned local school boards that if the legislature fails to provide the revenue, they may be forced to raise local taxes.

The governor also announced at the news conference the signing of a bill retaining the state sales tax at 6 per cent.

That's how long it now takes for Ohio Bell Direct Distance Dialing equipment to connect you with Washington.

Which isn't long at all.

It used to take about 80 seconds to call through the operator, but now you can do it yourself in less than a third of the time.

This is just one of the many improvements Ohio Bell has made in telephone service since 1959. Service which keeps getting better and better.

Yet, since 1959, local telephone rates haven't gone up at all, and long distance rates have gone down several times.

This takes a lot of penny watching on our part. And a lot of the latest equipment. And some good business know-how. Keeping prices down kind of keeps us on our toes.

So now when you call Washington or Miami or Los Angeles in 25 seconds or less, it's even cheaper than in 1959.

25 seconds or less. Think about it a minute.

Senators Win Fifth Straight As Bullpen Remains Tough

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whatever Ted Williams has been saying to his hitters, they have been repeating loudly over and over again the past five games, but how do you explain how Washington's relief pitchers have been sounding off?

Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, had hoped to impart some of his knowledge to the Senators' hitters and apparently has succeeded as they have spoken up by hammering 39 runs for five consecutive victories.

Tigers Fall 6-1

But Manager Williams must have some pretty good ideas, too, on how to get batters out because his bullpen has not allowed a run in the last 35 2-3 innings he has called on it.

The lessons worked well again Monday night as the Senators rolled up No. 5 by pasting Detroit 6-1 with Hank Allen driving in three runs and Dick Bosman posting four scoreless innings in relief of winner Camilo Pascual.

While the Senators were sounding off again, the Boston Red Sox finally were silenced when Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees stopped them on three hits for a 1-0 victory, the first time in 11 games the Sox haven't hit a homer.

Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0 as Jim Perry scattered seven hits in the only afternoon game in a schedule curtailed by rain. Baltimore's game at Cleveland and the California contest at Seattle were washed out at night.

The Senators, who had managed only 25 runs in 12 games before their victory streak, jumped on Earl Wilson for two runs in the first inning on Allen's run-scoring hit and a throwing error by Al Kaline. They waited until the eighth to break loose again when Allen singled in two more runs and hits by Ken McMullen and Paul Casanova brought home two more.

Meanwhile, Pascual had held the Tigers to Dick McAuliffe's lead-off homer in the first before leaving after five innings in the 43 degree weather. That's when Bosman took over and blanked Detroit the final four innings, giving him 8 2-3 shutout innings in the bullpen spree.

Dennis Higgins has nine scoreless innings of the streak that began April 19, Casey Cox 8 2-3, Dave Baldwin 4 1-3, Bob Humphreys and Jim Miles two each and Joe Coleman one.

Twenty-three of those resounding 35 2-3 innings have come in the last five games, which have, lo and behold, lifted Washington's once shy violets of the American League over the .500 mark and ahead of the mighty Tigers into fourth place in the East Division, only 3½ games behind leading Baltimore.

The Red Sox had broken records with 26 homers in 10 consecutive games and 27 in 11 before running into Peterson, 3-2, who pitched the first complete game victory and the first shutout against them all season.

The run he needed came in tht sixth with one out when Bobby Murcer lined the third hit off rookie Ray Jarvis, 1-1, making his first major league start, and Roy White doubled him home. The victory boosted the Yankees into second place, ahead of Boston and 2½ lengths back of the Orioles.

Perry, starting only because rookie Tom Hall was delayed returning from military reserve duty in North Carolina, also coasted in after Killebrew's sacrifice fly in the first inning and Rich Reese's three-run homer in the fourth. The victory gave the Twins a one game lead over Oakland in the West Division.

Gary Carter of Fifth Ave., who appeared at East Liverpool this past season, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Duquesne.

Carter averaged 21 points a game and played for the City-Catholic stars in the Roundball Classic.

Don Wilson, 5-7 backcourt star from Penn Hills, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Pitt. Wilson averaged 20 points a game and played for the West Penn stars in the Classic.

GEORGE LYNN of Columbiana is playing lacrosse at Wittenberg. Lynn, a standout linebacker at Columbiana, played JV football at Wittenberg last fall.

ALONG WITH East Liverpool's Don Cochran, other area standout football players are expected to attend Youngstown U. as freshmen next season are Ken DiCross, Leetonia halfback, and Bob Ferranti, Boardman end.

DUQUESNE'S all-opponent basketball team for this past season was a pretty fair group. Pete Maravich of LSU and Spencer Haywood of Detroit, both All-Americans, were unanimous choices, while Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, Larry Cannon of LaSalle and Charlie Scott of North Carolina rounded out the first five.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Chuck Winters suffered a rib injury in the second period of the Pitt Blue-White football scrimmage Saturday. Up until that time, Winters, playing for the Blue, or second offensive team, had completed 3 of 5 passes with one interception.

THERE IS A rumor that the American Basketball Association Pipers, league champions while in Pittsburgh last year but a disappointment both artistically and financially in Minnesota this year, will return to Pittsburgh. The team is leaving Minnesota and was reported headed for New Jersey, but that move is apparently off, and the Pipers may return to the Civic Arena.

Cards Down Pirates

Abernathy's Relief Job Beats Phillies For Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Devlish old Leo Durocher figures Ted Abernathy's underhanded tricks are too good to be true.

"It's seldom you get out of jams like that," the Chicago skipper said Monday night after Abernathy, the ancient submariner of the Cubs' bullpen, escaped a bases-loaded, none-out bind in the 10th inning, saving a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia.

The 36-year-old relief specialist made Ron Santo's go-ahead single in the top of the 10th stand up by getting two Philadelphia pinch hitters to tap into force plays at the plate, then retiring a third on a roller to third baseman Santo.

"That was some kind of pitching," said Durocher, who admitted he'd expected the game would get away from Abernathy. "Three ground balls—that's what you have to have."

While Abernathy's underhand sinkerball was submerging the Phillies, a ball boy's ninth-inning blooper helped lift the Los Angeles Dodgers past San Diego 4-3.

Hank Aaron's 513th career homer paced Atlanta to a 12-1 romp over hapless Houston; St. Louis trimmed Pittsburgh 6-2 behind left-hander Steve Carlton and San Francisco edged Cincinnati 4-3 in other NL games. The New York Mets and Montreal Expos were idle.

Abernathy, a 36-year-old journeyman whose 84 appearances for the Cubs four years ago stands as a National League mark, rescued Ken Holtzman with one out and one on in the ninth, getting Rich Allen to ground into a double play.

But the reliever dug himself into a deeper hole in the 10th, when Deron Johnson's single, Don Money's safe bunt and catcher Randy Hundley's throwing error put runners on second and third with nobody out.

Abernathy walked Cookie Rojas intentionally, filling the bases, and then disposed of Johnny Briggs, Ron Stone and Rick Joseph.

Allen's third homer—the second hit off Holtzman—tied the game 1-1 in the seventh, but the Cubs regained the lead in the 10th on a two-base error by left fielder Rojas, a sacrifice and Santo's single.

The Dodgers trailed 3-2 in the ninth when Bill Russell delivered a pinch single. Parker, out of the starting line-up with a pulled muscle, then drilled a liner that dropped just inside the line in left. When the ball boy, thinking the ball was foul, picked it up, third base umpire Paul Pryor waved Russell home and awarded a triple to Parker.

Parker held third as Willie Davis grounded to second baseman Jose Aricia for the second out, but Boyer broke the tie by beating out a roller to short.

Nate Colbert's fourth homer in six games—a two-run blast in the fourth inning—had given the Padres a 3-1 lead. The Dodgers closed the gap in the eighth on successive two-out singles by Andy Kosco, Tom Haller and Bill Sudakis.

Aaron moved past ex-teammate Ed Mathews into sixth place on the all-time homer list with a three-run wallop in the third inning. He delivered another run with a double in the four-run fourth.

George Stone, making his first start after posting three victories in relief, held the Astros to an unearned run and six hits until the seventh, when he left for a pinch hitter.

The loss was the sixth in a row and 13th in 14 games for Houston.

Carlton fired a four-hitter, squaring his record at 2-2, as the Cards breezed past the Pirates after striking for three runs in the first inning. Joe Torre's two-run single keyed the burst.

Curt Flood drove in one run with a fourth-inning single and doubled and scored another on Vada Pinson's single in the eighth.

Bobby Bonds smashed a lead-off homer in the first inning and scored two more runs on singles by Willie Mays and Ron Hunt, leading the Giants past Cincinnati in a day game.

Gaylord Perry, staked to a 4-0, survived seventh and ninth-inning homers by Tony Perez as the Giants protected their share of the NL West Division lead.

Mel Queen Released By Cincinnati

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The Cincinnati Reds, burdened by sundry pitching problems, released sore-armed Mel Queen outright Monday to their Indianapolis farm club and recalled John Noriega.

Queen, an outfielder converted into a pitcher, missed virtually all of 1968 with arm trouble and then turned up with a sore arm while warming up to start against San Diego Sunday.

In 1967, he posted a 14-8 record and a 2.76 earned run average. In his last appearance this year, he hurled six innings of two-hit ball.

"We are in the process of considering other moves and I think you know what they are," General Manager Robert Howsam said.

Howsam was referring to Gary Nolan and Gerry Arrigo who both are plagued by arm soreness. Arrigo, a 12-game winner last year, has yet to pitch this season.

'Personally, I don't feel there's that much wrong with my arm," Queen commented. I guess because I had arm trouble last year they feel they can't wait any longer for me."

Noriega, 25, had a 9-3 record last year with Asheville and pitched with Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League in 13 game with a 1-0 record this year. He joined the Reds Monday.

E. Liverpool, Beaver Local Postponed

The East Liverpool vs. Steubenville Central sectional baseball tournament game, slated for Steubenville's Plesant Heights Field yesterday, was postponed due to rain and is set for today at the same site at 4 p.m.

Beaver Local was scheduled to play Struthers, a 3-2 winner over Salem in the Youngstown sectional, yesterday at Victory Field, but that game was likewise postponed and is scheduled to be played today.

Minnesota's Bill Brown Free Agent

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fullback Bill Brown of the Minnesota Vikings, called the "best fullback in the NFL" by his coach, apparently will become a professional football free agent Thursday.

General Manager Jim Finks of the Vikings left the Twin Cities Monday for the National and American Football League meetings in New York, still without Brown's signature on a contract.

Brown, who led the Central Division champion Vikings in rushing with 805 yards and touchdowns with 11 last season, played without a contract in 1968 and took a 10 per cent salary cut to play out his option.

As of Thursday, any professional team legally can negotiate a contract with the 5-foot-11, 230-pound Brown.

Sebring Blanks Lisbon Golfers 9-0

The loss was the fifth straight for the Blue Devils. Ed Brown paced the losers with a 48 and Bert French had a 44 to lead Sebring.

HOCKEY HOTSHOTS. Winners of the major trophies in the National Hockey League this season were honored at a luncheon in Montreal yesterday. From left are Bobby Orr of Boston, top defenseman; Phil Esposito of Boston, MVP; Danny Grant of Minnesota, rookie of the year; and Jacques Plante and Glenn Hall of St. Louis, who combined for the top goal tending award. Orr, Esposito, Grant Get Awards

MONTREAL (AP) — Resplendent in an iridescent tan suit, Bobby Hull was serving as master of ceremonies at the National Hockey League's annual awards luncheon and was shooting barbs instead of pucks.

Glenn Hall and Jacques Plante had just stepped forward Monday to accept the Vezina Trophy which the St. Louis Blues' goalies had earned for the best defensive record in the league when Hull wheeled and fired on the assembled NHL general managers and coaches.

"How," said Hull, "you let two goalies like Glenn and Jacques land with the same club, I'll never know."

It was, obviously a mistake. Hull, more sympathetic with his Chicago bosses, played it straight when ex-teammate Phil Esposito stepped up to take the Hart Trophy as Most Valuable Player and Art Ross Trophy as scoring champ.

Two years ago the champion Black Hawks traded Esposito the sixth place Bruins. This season with Esposito scoring a record 126 points Chicago was sixth and Boston second.

Obviously, another mistake.

"You don't want to help the other guy," said Emile Francis, general manager of the New York Rangers, whose club finished third in the East Division.

"The clubs ahead of you don't want you to catch them and the ones behind you don't want you to get any better than you are it's tough to make a deal within your own division."

Nevertheless, Francis has been shopping, he's held repeated huddles with the Black Hawks. Dennis Hull is reportedly available. Chicago is after defense and goaltending help.

Montreal, currently concerned with knocking off St. Louis and grabbing a record 14th Stanley Cup, might be willing to do business after the playoffs are out of the way.

Defenseman J.C. Tremblay has fallen out of favor with the fans here and may be headed elsewhere.

"We'll play better," promised Scotty Bowman, coach of the Blues said, while the Blues and Canadiens prepared for game No. 2 in the best-of-7 final.

Montreal took the opener 3-1 on Sunday stretching its undefeated streak over two seasons to 15 games against the Blues.

Sure not to be mentioned in the trade talk were the individual trophy winners—Esposito; Boston's Bobby Orr, who won his second straight James Norris Trophy as the best defenseman; Minnesota's Danny Grant, Calder Trophy winner as rookie of the year; and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit, who took a Lady Byng Trophy for clean and effective play.

Red Rider Golfers Top E. Liverpool

Weirton gained revenge for its first loss of the season Friday by downing East Liverpool 157-165 in a golf match at Woodview yesterday.

The Potters are now 9-2 and Weirton 6-1. Jeff Miser of the Red Riders was medalist with a 38.

Andy Petrick, Bob Kinsey and Ralph Heffner all had 41s and Ken Johnson a 42 for East Liverpool.

Courtney's Record Jump Leads Lisbon Track Win

Courtney, who had set the mark of 19-1 in an earlier meet at Greenford this season, did 20-2¼, breaking his old standard by more than a foot. His win in the event wrapped up the meet for the Blue Devils, now 4-3 in dual encounters, who led 62-56 going into the long jump, the final event.

Courtney also won the low hurdles. Bob Hammett doubled in the 100- and 220-yard dashes and Ken Pittenger in the shot and discus. Mike Kodrich won the mile. Courtney also ran on the winning 880 relay team, but Roger Bierdeman of the losers was high point man for the meet with 12.

Summary:

100 — Hammmett (L), Weaver)G), Pike (L) :11.6

220 — Hammett (L), Pike (L), Alexander (G) :24.2

880 — Davis (G), McClintock (L), Kodrich (L) 2:22

Boston Slight Pick To Even Laker Series

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, tested pressure cooker playoff veterans, rule a slight favorite to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers and square their best-of-7 series for the National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The Celtics, bidding for their 11th NBA title in 13 years since player-Coach Bill Russell joined the team as a rookie, are determined to make their home court advantage stand up and even the series at two games apiece.

After blowing leads and dropping the first two games in Los Angeles, the Celtics, blew a 17-point lead in the third period, but bounced back to win 111-105 Sunday on the hot shooting of John Havlicek and Larry Siegfried.

No team has ever lost the first two games and come back to win the NBA championship. The Celtics, although opening up with a line-up of five players averaging 32 years of age, hope to come out running—and keep running against Wilt Chamberlain & Co.

"Running is the key to our game," says Havlicke, the Boston captain who has scored 114 points in three games. "We've got to keep it up."

The Lakers, who are seeking their first NBA title after winning the Western Division playoffs, had a 5-2 edge on Boston during the regular season. However, they are looking for a better defense to stop the Celtics.

"We've got to improve our defense," Los Angeles Coach Bill van Breda Kolff said. "That's the big thing. Other than that, after playing 100-plus games, there's no sense changing things around now."

Jerry West, the veteran sharp-shooter led the Lakers, Sunday with 24 points, compared with outputs of 53 and 41 in the first two games.

"We knew it wouldn't be a cakewalk here," West said in summing up the feelings of the Lakers. "We knew the Celtics wouldn't quit. They never have and never will. I'm looking forward to another tremendously tough game."

The fifth game is set for Thursday in Los Angeles.

Derby Trial May Produce More Entries

By BOB COOPER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The smallest, fastest and most competitive field in recent Kentucky Derby history may have swelled by one today while last year's Derby mixup continued in a swirl of judicial whirlpool.

Tommy Cosdon, trainer for Rae Jet, said a finish among the first four places in today's Derby Trial Stakes would earn the son of War Jeep a start in Saturday's $125,000-added classic.

"Sure those big stables may be afraid to try it, but we're just a bush league bunch. All we want is a shot," Cosdon, a former rock 'n roll singer said.

Eight horses were entered in the one-mile Trial, with only one or two expected to earn credentials to face the Big Four of this racing season in the 1¼-mile Derby.

Meantime, Peter Fuller confirmed he plans to continue his appeals of the purse redistribution that came after his Dancer's Image won last year's Derby, but later was accused of having an illegal medication in his system.

He said he felt his appeal of a Kentucky Racing Commission ruling on the Derby purse redistribution "will not weaken racing, but will strengthen it."

Dancer's Image was declared winner of the 1968 Derby, but the commission gave the $122,500 purse to second finishing Forward Pass. Fuller's lawyers have taken the case to the courts.

"This action wasn't appreciated in some of the higher echelons of racing," Fuller said, "but these trials and tribulations only sharpened the thrill of victory that we thought was well earned."

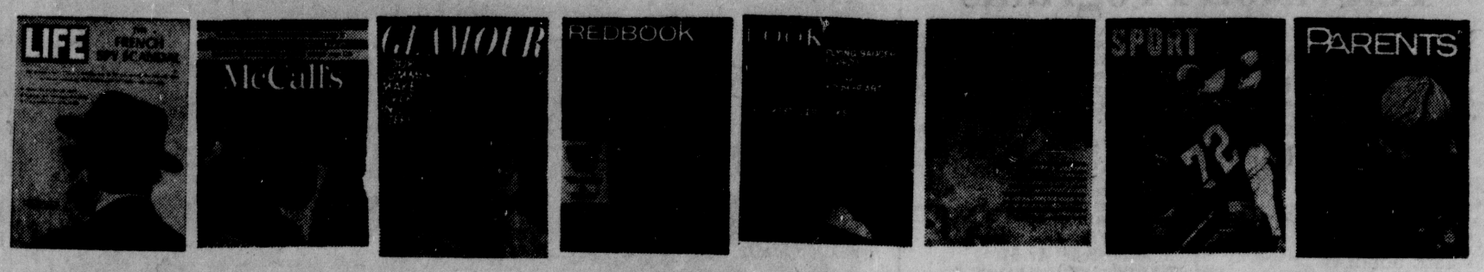

As for the Derby trial, a field headed by Cain Hoy Stable's entry of Ack Ack and Never Bow vied for a berth or two against what some trainers are calling the mightiest foursome assembled in racing in modern history.

Ready for the Derby—except for the final honing—are Frank McMahon's Majestic Prince, the Steven B. Wilson Estate's Top Knight, Claiborne Farm's Dike and Paul Mellon's Arts and Letters.

Until latecomers like Rae Jet, owned by Mrs. Robert E. Harris, declared themselves as possible starters, the four threatened to make the 95th Derby field the smallest since Citation scared off most opposition in 1948.

If Rae Jet goes in the Derby, the field probably will total eight or nine, still one of the smaller fields in the past haf cenury.

County Insurance Programs Updated By Commissioners

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners brought the county's insurance program up to date Monday afternoon in a meeting with agency representatives.

Present were Leland Helt of Greenamyer Agency in Leetonia, Paul Miller of Miller's Insurance in Wellsville and Cecil Rauch of the Rauch Agency in Lisbon.

The statement of values in 1968 was $1,960,700 for buildings and $479,950 for ceontents —a total of $2,400,650.

Monday, the agents recommended the valuations be increased by $133,000 and that the new Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children be added at $390,000. The latter figure does not include furnishings for the school. They will be added later.

With the additions, the new valuation of buildings and equipment is $2,963,650. The premium last year was $3,545.

The insurance is carried with the three agencies and the Easton Agency of East Liverpool.

W. W. Williams Co. of Cleveland received a contract Monday to furnisht the County Highway Department a front end loader with a fork for $29,450.

Commissioners said the bid was not the lowest received, but was accepted on the recommendation of County Engineer Bert A. Dawson, who said it met his requirements better than the others.

Other proposals were submitted by Allied Highway Equipment, Inc., North Canton, $28,-231; Ohio Machinery, Cleveland, $34,555; Rish Equipment, Youngstown, $34,763; Marks Tractor Equipment, Youngstown, $33,604, and Patrick Equipment Co., Niles, which bid $24,366 including a trade-in. However, the county engineer had no equipment to trade.

King's Widow Will Support Charleston Demonstrations

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — The widow of Martin Luther King Jr. was due in Charleston today to support demonstrations that have led to the arrest of more than 500 Negroes seeking union representation for striking hospital workers.

Mrs. Coretta King planned to address a rally tonight at a Negro church.

It was also thought she might visit the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, who has been in the county jail since Friday. He succeeded her assassinated husband as president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The demonstrations are in behalf of more than 400 Negro nonprofessional workers striking for higher pay and recognition of the Hospital and Nursing Home Employes Union, AFL-CIO, as their bargaining agent.

A walkout began March 20 at the state-supported Medical College Hospital and spread a week later to the Charleston County Hospital. The strikers are cooks, nurses aides, orderlies and licensed practical nurses.

Medical College Hospital says it is operating at normal capacity with replacement workers, volunteers, and nonstrikers. The county hospital says it is operating at half normal capacity, with admissions limited to about 60 per cent.

Monday afternoon, 128 persons were arrested, including 99 teen-agers when an attempt was made to march down a downtown street. Except for repeat offenders, the juveniles arrested in the demonstrations have been released in custody of their parents.

Children's Home Board Asks Bids

Bids are being accepted this week for a new barn and poultry house by the Hancock County Children's Home Board.

Sketches of the buildings were studied by the board at last week's meeting.

The board expressed thanks to the commissioners for their assistance with the bids and specifications.

The board approved a request by Harold Sweat, farm manager, for four more calves.

The meeting date has been changed to the last Friday of each month.

Jail Sentence Given Man In Morals Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today decreed a four-month term in County Jail for Vincent Diserio of 415 College St., who was convicted April 17 on a charge of indecent exposure and then sent to Woodside Receiving Hospital at Youngstown for a mental examination.

The court decreed the sentence after reading a report from the hospital which said the 52-yearpold World War II veteran does not suffer from any psychoneurotic disturbance, but has a "tendency to be an exhibitionist." Diserio "knows the difference between right and wrong and is responsible for his actions," the report said.

While Diserio is in jail, the court will seek to have him admitted to a Veterans Administration Hospital, Judge Chertoff said. He said he will seek the cooperation of the County Soldiers & Sailors Relief Commission in having the man admitted to a hospital.

Two women testified against Diserio in his hearing in mid-April. They said two small girls were in the vicinity at the time of the alleged incident.

Questioned by the court, Diserio said he spent four years in the armed forces in World War II. He said he had lived only briefly at the College St. address. He said he previously lived at Chester and in Weirton. He said he has been treated in VA hospitals on several occasions for "nervous disorders."

Two Injured At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Two Cannellton youths, both 19, were injured in a motorcycle mishap on E. Main St. this morning at 7:25, police reported.

William Nelson, the driver, and William Bratt were taken to the Beaver Falls Unit of United Hospitals. Nelson suffered a fractured shoulder and cuts on the body and Bratt cuts on the right knee and ankle.

Police said Nelson was headed west on E. Main St., cresting a hill. Nelson saw a car ahead, applied his brakes but the cycle slid, traveling 230 feet on wet pavement nd finally hitting a curb. Both were thrown off.

Reminder Issued For Payment Of Witholding Tax

City income taxes withheld from employes' wages for the first three months of 1969 must be remitted to the tax office at City Hall by employers by the close of business Wednesday, Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson reminded today.

Wilkinson pointed out that the payments cover withholding taxes for the first quarter, January through March. The ordinance allows a 30-day wait after the close of the quarter for the money to be turned over to the city.

The tax office closes at 4:30 p.m., but payments postmarked before midnight tomorrow will be accepted without penalty, Wilkinson said.

The law affects 550 employers. Compliance with the law has been good to date, but the bulk of the payments, representing $10,000 to $15,000, usually comes in the last two or three days before the deadline.

FENCING

RED BRAND costs less

... because it lasts longer

Actual weather tests have proved that Red Brand fence lasts longer — saves money in the long run. Only Red Brand fence has the "Galvannealed" zinc coating over copper bearing steel wire . . . double protection against rust. We have a stock of Red Brand fence on hand, in various gauges and heights. SEE US.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, April 29, the 119th day of 1969. There are 246 days left in the year.

On this date in 1945, American soldiers fighting in Germany liberated 32,000 Nazi victims at the concentration camp at Dachau.

In 1639, Newport, R.I., was founded.

In 1962, New Orleans fell to Union forces during the Civil War.

In 1894, a band of jobless men known as Jacob Coxey's Army swarmed into Washington to petition Congress for relief.

In 1946, 28 Japanese leaders were indicted in Tokyo as war criminals.

Ten years ago — The U.S. Senate confirmed Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Brazil after a bitter fight against her nomination, led by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore.

Five years ago — Princess Irene of Netherland and Prince Carlos Hugo of Bourbon-Parma, a pretencer to the Spanish throne, were married in Rome.

Junior Editors Quiz on HUNGER

QUESTION: Why does a person get hungry?

* * *

ANSWER: We all have to eat to get food into our bodies, where it can be used to create warmth and energy. It is the special job of the stomach to act as a storage area for food after it is swallowed and to pass it along in small amounts to the digestive system below. There it is chemically treated and distributed to the cells by the blood stream. The stomach is helped on with its work by contractions of its strong muscles, which serve to move the food along. Such contractions are called peristaltic waves. While the stomach contains food, the waves go on unnoticed. But the peristaltic waves are going on and getting Charlie's attention as sensations of hunger. These waves are extremely important. They have signalled Charlie that he must do something at once about the situation. Our picture shows what he does and how the situation is met, with his mother's help. Now he can forget his stomach — at least until the hunger waves get after him again, in from 3 to 5 hours.

(Ronnie Rains of Tyler, Texas, wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)
